Learning Objectives
The chief objective of the course is to provide you with valuable persuasion and sales lessons that you will be able to use immediately and in your chosen field of endeavor. Specifically, you will:

- Learn the principles of selling
- Develop practical skills to achieve your career goals through in-class exercises and role play scenarios
- Gain confidence by preparing and presenting an individual, professional sales presentation using the selling skills discussed in class and in your textbook

Course Approach
Classes will be a combination of discussions, various exercises (conducted both inside and outside the classroom) and lectures. In addition, you will participate in several role-playing exercises. The purpose of these activities is to provide you with opportunities to significantly enhance your communication and selling skills.

Student Profile
So that I may know more about you including your objectives for taking the class, please complete and return the Student Profile by Wednesday, January 15, 2014. You will find the document in MS Word format on the Blackboard under Assignments.

Required Materials
- Access to Blackboard. I will add course content to the Blackboard (http://blackboard.usc.edu) as the class progresses. I will post course assignments under “Assignments” and other documents under “Content”.

Prerequisite
BUAD 307-- Marketing Fundamentals
UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
Marshall School of Business
Marketing 410: Professional Selling, Section 16478
Spring 2015

Attendance
Your attendance is expected. If you are unable to attend class on any occasion, please email me in advance. You and I have scheduled a business appointment at 10:00 a.m. every Monday and Wednesday during the semester and I expect you to notify me if you will be late or are unable to keep your appointment.

Focus
It is critical that you are focused and engaged. Just as in business meetings, phone calls, text messaging, emailing, working on unrelated class documents on your computer, reading unrelated material, whispering or conversing with others or napping is unprofessional.

Be Prepared
Complete the reading prior to class and bring in any questions. I will not review all material in-class, although you are responsible to know it and may be tested on it. Study thoroughly for exams. Rehearse your presentation.

Class Methodology
- Lectures
- DVD and Internet Presentations
- Role Plays
- In-class Exercises
- Guest Speakers
- Individual Sales Interview
- Individual Sales Presentation
- Exams

Grading
- Sales Interview Term Paper  15%
- Individual Sales Presentation  30%
- Midterm Exam  20%
- Final Exam  20%
- Class Participation  15%

Sales Interview Term Paper (15%)
You will interview in-person (not via the phone or email) a sales professional who conducts business to business selling. The paper must include background on the sales person, business card, thank you letter and your observations of the sales concepts, strategies and tools. Further requirements are attached.
Sales Interview Term Paper Late Policy
If you fail to turn in your paper in class on the assigned date, an automatic 10% penalty will apply. If you fail to turn in your paper within one week of the due date, another 10% penalty shall apply.

Sales Presentation (30%)
You will present an eight minute individual, professional sales presentation to the entire class for a product or service that is targeted to a corporate buyer. Further assignment requirements are attached. There is a written portion of your presentation that accounts for 10% of this grade.

Sales Presentation Make-up Policy
If you miss your assigned presentation date, an automatic 10% penalty will apply. You must email me within 24 hours to arrange a make-up presentation time within one week of your assigned date. Your make-up presentation will be presented only to me and outside of class time. Failure to meet the one week make-up time frame results in another 10% penalty.

Midterm Exam (20%)
The midterm exam will cover the assigned reading, class lectures and guest speakers’ input.

Final Exam (20%)
The final exam will cover all assigned reading and class lectures for the course.

Exam Procedures
- I will provide Scantrons for each exam. Please bring a #2 pencil.
- Notes, books, calculators, cell phones, PDAs or other aids are not allowed during exams. I am available during all exams to answer questions on non-marketing word translations and for clarification.
- Any issues with exam scoring need to be discussed with me within one week of returning the exam score.

Exam Make-up Policy
- Any make-up exam times must be approved and scheduled two days prior to the exam date.
- If you have a last minute emergency, you will need to provide appropriate documentation or the 10% penalty will occur.
- Make-up times that are not pre-approved will be penalized 10% and must be scheduled before the next class meeting.
- You will be considered taking a late exam if you begin an exam after the first student has completed an exam at the scheduled time.
Class Participation (15%)
I expect you to be actively engaged during class and participate in role plays. Although attendance is not required, participation is part of your grade. You are responsible for everything covered or announced in class on that day whether you attend or not.

Grading and Student Deliverables
The Department of Marketing follows the grading policy of the Marshall School of Business. For this elective course, the grading standard is an average of 3.3 or a B+ average. Additionally, there are three other factors for final grades:
- Your average weighted score as a percentage of the available points.
- The overall average percentage score within the class.
- Your ranking among students in the class.

Pass/No Pass or Audit Grading Options
Due to the high demand for marketing courses at this time, the grading options of Pass/No Pass or Audit are not available.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
Any student requesting academic accommodations based on a disability is required to register with Disability services and Programs (DSP) each semester. You need to obtain a letter of verification for any approved accommodations from DSP and deliver to me by January 15. DSP is located in STU 301 and is open 8:30-5:00 pm, M-F. The phone number is (213) 740-0776.

Extending deadlines for assignments is not a disability accommodation and will not be granted. Please note that it is the student’s responsibility to manage the scheduling process with DSP. Therefore, if you do not meet their office’s deadlines, there is a high likelihood you will not have special accommodations.

Course Advisory
Please be flexible and open to the learning process. Additional readings and/or assignments may be added at my discretion. Furthermore, unforeseen circumstances may arise which mandate changes in the content of the course.

Academic Integrity
You are expected to adhere to the standards of academic integrity that govern students registered at USC. The use of unauthorized material, plagiarism, failure to cite relevant work, communication with fellow students during an examination, attempting to benefit from the work of another student, and similar behavior that defeats the intent of an examination or other class work is unacceptable to the University. Where a clear violation has occurred, the professor may disqualify the student’s work as unacceptable and assign a failing mark on the paper.
Retention Policy
Returned paperwork, unclaimed by a student, will be discarded after four weeks and hence, will not be available should a grade appeal be pursued by a student following receipt of his/her course grade.

Reference Requests for Employers
I will be happy to be a contact for you for future employers. Please make any reference requests in writing to me five business days in advance. Please provide the name, title and address of the prospective employer, the position you are applying for and any requirements of the position.

Important Dates for Spring 2015

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>January 12</td>
<td>Spring semester classes begin</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>January 19</td>
<td>Martin Luther King Day</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>February 16</td>
<td>Presidents’ Day</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>March 16 - 21</td>
<td>Spring Recess</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 1</td>
<td>Spring semester classes ends</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 12, 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Final Exam</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 15</td>
<td>Commencement</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Sales Presentation Guidelines

Overall (30%)
- Choose an existing good or service
- Choose a corporate buyer: A retailer, wholesaler, manufacturer, distributor
- Assume you are presenting to decision makers
- Develop an 8-minute formal Sales Presentation to be given to the class. You will be stopped at the 8-minute time limit and graded based on what you presented.
- Wear business attire

Before your Presentation Begins (one minute)
- Outline who your buyer/distribution channel is
- Key hot buttons for the buyer
- Your sales objective

Oral Presentation Requirements (90%)
- Introduction
- Address the prospect’s issues
- Describe your solution
- Discuss the benefits of your solution
- Answer at least one Killer Question
- Conclusion

Written Presentation Requirements due the Same Date as Your Presentation (10%)
Please paper clip written requirements in the following order:
1. A typed copy of your Pitch Outline and any handouts
2. A typed copy of the Pitch Questionnaire
3. A copy of your PowerPoint presentation (six slides per page)
4. A typed copy of your three Killer Questions

Oral Presentation Evaluation Criteria
- 50% Presentation structure
- 10% Vocal skills
- 10% Physical skills
- 10% Rapport skills
- 10% Appearance
- 10% Audio visual skills
Sales Term Paper

1. Contact a professional, business to business* sales person in any industry and request an in-person interview (no phone or email interviews). Think about leveraging this interview for your future job search and interview someone in the industry or company that most interests you. Schedule at least two weeks in advance and allow one hour of time.

2. Prepare your questions before the interview.

3. Dress professionally. Apply the One Notch Rule.

4. Take notes and be gracious. You may agree or disagree with what is told to you, but do not argue with the interviewee at the time of the interview. If appropriate, recommend techniques that you have learned during the course.

5. Sell yourself if the opportunity arises (bring a copy of your resume).

6. Write four to five page, single spaced paper with one and one-quarter inch margins summarizing your findings as they relate to class concepts. Do not repeat your interview. Instead apply as many course concepts as possible to what you learned in the interview and discuss similarities and differences.

7. Limit sentences to no more than two lines and paragraphs to no more than six lines using any 12 point serif style font. Use section headings to enhance the visual appeal of your paper.

8. Attach a title sheet that includes your name, the course title, date, the interviewee’s name, title, company, business card, number of years selling and an overview of responsibilities.

9. Send a professional thank letter (emails do not qualify) and attach a copy to your paper. This is not counted in the five page paper maximum.

10. Use primary research not secondary research to develop your information, findings and conclusions, and recommendations.

11. Suggested questions:

   - What products and/or services do you offer?
   - What is your target market (markets)?
   - What is size of an average sale?
   - Who are your largest clients?
   - How do you obtain clients?
   - What is your sales process?
   - What selling techniques work best and why?
   - What kind of product/service information do you provide?
   - What are the best ways to present that information?
   - What are the typical objections during you receive during the selling process?
   - How do you overcome these points of objections?
• What are the most significant challenges you are facing today?
• How do you overcome these challenges?

Please include the following items in this order:

1. Cover page with your name, date and course
2. One page for background information and business card
3. Interview and application to course lessons – four to five pages
4. One page thank you letter

You must turn in your paper in class on the assigned date.

*A Business to Business Sales Person is defined as someone who represents a company’s products or services with the objective of selling to other retailers, wholesalers, distributors, institutions or professionals. This can also include persons who manage other Business to Business Sales Persons.

A sales professional who sells direct to a consumer or end user is inappropriate and incorrect for this assignment. Therefore the assignment excludes realtors, brokers, insurance and auto sales persons, etc. that sell directly to a consumer. Failure to interview a B to B sales person will result in a failing grade of 60% on the paper.
Profile

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name:</th>
<th>__________________________</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Phone:</td>
<td>__________________________</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E-mail Address:</td>
<td>__________________________</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Address</td>
<td>__________________________</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Major:</td>
<td>__________________________</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Graduation Date:</td>
<td>__________________________</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

What are your career goals?
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|

What do you expect to learn from this course?
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|

What marketing related course(s) have you already taken?
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|

What type(s) of work experience have you had?
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|

Do you have any specific marketing related interests?
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|

What are your hobbies and USC activities?
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|

Any comments, questions and/or concerns?
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|

Any comments, questions and/or concerns?
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|

Any comments, questions and/or concerns?
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|

Any comments, questions and/or concerns?
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|

Any comments, questions and/or concerns?
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|

Any comments, questions and/or concerns?
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|
|________________________________________________________________________________|

Any comments, questions and/or concerns?