- Last day to drop a class with a mark of “W” April 10, 2014

FINAL EXAM: Saturday, May 9, 4.30 pm. – 6.30 pm.; LOCATION TBA

COURSE OBJECTIVES
This is a course aimed at those students who wish to attain a working knowledge of Spanish, and the objective conditions will be created whereby all students can have a successful learning experience. Students will:
- continue to develop their communicative skills.
- understand simple ideas expressed by other speakers.
- use Spanish to communicate ideas about self, family, study, work, daily routines, leisure activities, houses, furniture, chores, health, food, shopping, vacations and festivals, traveling, relationships, environmental issues, arts and entertainment, politics, and technology.
- interact with authentic Spanish texts on a variety of subjects.
- attain an increased awareness of and cultural sensitivity to the Spanish language.
- gain knowledge of some social and historical aspects of the Spanish-speaking world.
- learn more about the Spanish-speaking communities in Los Angeles.

The Language Program at USC teaches language communicatively which means that all courses are taught in Spanish, except for brief moments of English when absolutely necessary to facilitate the flow of the course. In a communicative language class, students are expected to be active co-participants in their own learning. This requires that you come to class prepared to engage in the day’s work by having read all required material and completed all assignments listed on the schedule.
The content of the Spanish classes and the way in which students’ work is assessed are based on the theoretical and pedagogical guidelines developed by the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL). These are summarized in the National Standards for Foreign Language Education (ACTFL, 2006), whose main goals of instruction are as follows:

COMMUNICATION: COMMUNICATE IN LANGUAGES OTHER THAN ENGLISH
- Standard 1.1: Students engage in conversations, provide and obtain information, express feelings and emotions, and exchange opinions.
- Standard 1.2: Students understand and interpret written and spoken language on a variety of topics.
- Standard 1.3: Students present information, concepts, and ideas to an audience of listeners or readers on a variety of topics.

CULTURES: GAIN KNOWLEDGE AND UNDERSTANDING OF OTHER CULTURES
- Standard 2.1: Students demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between the practices and perspectives of the culture studied.
- Standard 2.2: Students demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between the products and perspectives of the culture studied.

CONNECTIONS: CONNECT WITH OTHER DISCIPLINES AND ACQUIRE INFORMATION
- Standard 3.1: Students reinforce and further their knowledge of other disciplines through the foreign language.
- Standard 3.2: Students acquire information and recognize the distinctive viewpoints that are only available through the foreign language and its cultures.

COMPARISONS: DEVELOP INSIGHT INTO THE NATURE OF LANGUAGE AND CULTURE
- Standard 4.1: Students demonstrate understanding of the nature of language through comparisons of the language studied and their own.
- Standard 4.2: Students demonstrate understanding of the concept of culture through comparisons of the cultures studied and their own.

COMMUNITIES: PARTICIPATE IN MULTILINGUAL COMMUNITIES AT HOME & AROUND THE WORLD
- Standard 5.1: Students use the language both within and beyond the school setting.
- Standard 5.2: Students show evidence of becoming life-long learners by using the language for personal enjoyment and enrichment. (Source: http://www.actfl.org/publications/all/national-standards-foreign-language-education)

The activities and homework assignments that you will complete in class and the assessment tools with which your work will be evaluated have been created to accomplish and reflect the instructional objectives described in the Standards. The content of your class has also been designed to develop your ability to communicate in three different modes—interpersonal, interpretive, and presentational:
ACADEMIC CONDUCT

Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Section 11, Behavior Violating University Standards https://scampus.usc.edu/1100-beavior-violating-university-standards-and-appropriate-sanctions/. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct/.

Discrimination, sexual assault, and harassment are not tolerated by the university. You are encouraged to report any incidents to the Office of Equity and Diversity http://equity.usc.edu/ or to the Department of Public Safety http://capsnet.usc.edu/department/department-public-safety/online-forms/contact-us/. This is important for the safety whole USC community. Another member of the university community – such as a friend, classmate, advisor, or faculty member – can help initiate the report, or can initiate the report on behalf of another person. The Center for Women and Men http://www.usc.edu/student-affairs/cwm/ provides 24/7 confidential support, and the sexual assault resource center webpage sarc@usc.edu describes reporting options and other resources.

SUPPORT SYSTEMS

A number of USC’s schools provide support for students who need help with scholarly writing. Check with your advisor or program staff to find out more. Students whose primary language is not English should check with the American Language Institute http://dornsife.usc.edu/ali, which sponsors courses and workshops specifically for international graduate students. The Office of Disability Services and Programs http://sait.usc.edu/academicsupport/centerprograms/dsp/home_index.html provides certification for students with disabilities and helps arrange the relevant accommodations. If an officially declared emergency makes travel to campus infeasible, USC Emergency Information http://emergency.usc.edu/ will provide safety and other updates, including ways in which instruction will be continued by means of blackboard, teleconferencing, and other technology.

ACCOMODATION IN THE LANGUAGE PROGRAM: DSP
Any student requesting academic accommodations based on a disability is required to register with Disability Services and Programs (DSP) each semester. A letter of verification for approved accommodations can be obtained from DSP. Please present your letter of accommodation to your instructor as early in the semester as possible, preferably during the first week of classes. Arrangements for accommodations for chapter exams are done individually with your instructor. Requests for accommodations for final exams require the DSP test proctoring form, signed by the student and the professor and submitted to DSP by the student, two weeks prior to the beginning of the final exam period. DSP is located in STU 301 and is open 8:30 a.m.–5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. The phone number for DSP is (213) 740-0776.

CONTACT WITH INSTRUCTORS
Your first contact is your instructor who may be reached through email, by telephone, or in person during office hours or by appointment. You can find contact information for the Program and the faculty on the Language Program page of the Department of Spanish and Portuguese http://dornsife.usc.edu/spanish/faculty/.

COURSE EVALUATION
The evaluation system is based on students’ ability to participate actively and effectively in a wide variety of language related activities both in and out of the classroom. This entails a kind of apprenticeship into the language and progress is a result of the students’ own efforts. A strategy of continuous application and fulfillment of course requirements will enable students to exercise a great deal of direct control over their final grade for this course.

EXPLANATION OF EVALUATION PROCEDURES

1. Make Up Policy
Be aware that the Language Program has a Make Up Policy, and that all course work responds to it. This means that in order to make up any work (specific assignments, exams, etc.) that you miss, you must present valid, original documentation to your instructor.

General university policy states that students who can verify that they were prevented from completing assignments due to illness or religious holidays are permitted to make up the work they missed. Students who miss class because of their performance in university-sponsored events, such as athletic competitions, fine-arts performances, ROTC activities, etc. are also allowed to make up the work they missed. The other valid reason for making up work is a death in the immediate family.

Personal reasons for missing class cannot be excused. These include personal trips to attend university-sponsored events as a spectator, to visit family, to attend weddings (and the like), to attend court (except for jury duty), and other personal reasons, even when plane tickets have been purchased. To make up missed class work, consult your instructor. Give your instructor the original of your excuse, who will verify it and attach it (or a copy of it) to the grade sheet.

In order to assist you, we have summarized below the different components of the Spanish courses. If after reading these sections, you have questions about your course, please be sure to ask your instructor.

2. Use of Spanish and Instructors’ Feedback
This is a Spanish course, therefore it will be taught in Spanish. However, your instructor may occasionally use English if it is deemed pedagogically appropriate. For example, when providing feedback on the result of an exercise or assessment tool (e.g., a quiz), he/she may resort to English to ensure full understanding of the reason why an error was made, and to provide practical suggestions for improvement. To benefit from this course and to acquire a greater understanding of the language, students are expected to speak Spanish as much as possible in class.

Throughout the semester, instructors will make constructive comments on students’ errors with the objective of helping students to recognize weaknesses in their learning process, and, above all, to provide them with ways to improve. You should take advantage of your instructors’ comments, following suggestions for improvement and continuing using Spanish actively. Your instructor’s feedback should not be seen as a form of criticism, but as another facet of the learning process.

3. Preparedness, Participation, and Attendance
Purpose:
• To provide multiple evaluations of participation (oral and written) and engagement.
• To help you prepare for your in-class work.
Participation consists of the assessment of the quality of the student’s contributions to the class and language learning. Participation is not an attendance grade, but rather a measure of each student’s language learning activity. If you appear not to be prepared (e.g., if you haven’t completed the exercises assigned the previous class), your grade will reflect this. If you are prepared and do not participate, your grade will suffer similarly. We expect that all students will engage in the course in ways that will advance language learning.

Participation will be evaluated through the level of preparation; discussions of readings and textbook exercises, etc.; participation in oral activities; contributions to pair and small group work; and use of Spanish as the language of communication in the classroom. You are expected to use Spanish to communicate with your fellow students and instructor at all times during your class (except when discussing your grades or any administrative matters related to your class). If you are absent and excused, you will earn the average of your performance for participation. You may consult with your instructor about your participation throughout the semester. Your participation grades will be posted on Blackboard in weeks 3, 7, 11, and 15.

Any unexcused absence will result in a grade of ZERO for the “participation” component on each day (or hour) absent, as well as, a grade of ZERO will be given for any exams, assignments, or participation grade sheets that are not handed in or completed as a result of an unexcused absence. This grade will be included in your total participation grade calculation.

Students must provide original documentation for all valid absences. For illness, a medical excuse from a doctor or other appropriate health-care provider is required and is subject to confirmation. Students using the University Park Health Center should have a valid release on file at the UPHC with their instructor’s name on it. For university-sponsored events, an original memo from the appropriate advisor must be provided. Documentation from a newspaper, funeral, memorial service, etc., must be provided in the event of absence due to a death in the immediate family.

In-class Homework: Each day before class, students are expected to have the material outlined on the schedule completed (e.g., all textbook exercises, reading and listening comprehension activities, compositions, or extra homework assigned by the instructor). Any incomplete work will receive a grade of zero and a loss of points for the “Participation” component of the course.

4. Homework

Purpose:
- To give you the opportunity to experiment with and use Spanish in a variety of activities/contexts.
- To help you prepare for your in-class work.

How it works:

Blackboard Homework
- You will do your workbook exercises and practices outside of class in an electronic workbook. Use a web browser and go to the myuse portal https://my.usc.edu/portal/guest.php or the Blackboard website https://blackboard.usc.edu. Once inside Blackboard, click on your Spanish class. Blackboard is the framework for the electronic workbook. You will also have to enter the key in your book to access the assignments. Your instructor can assist you with this matter.
- To do your assignment, click on the Mandatory Homework icon. Click on the lesson you are working on (note the deadlines), and go to an activity. You need to do the activities in both the Mandatory Workbook Exercises and Mandatory Lab Manual Exercises folders. To prepare for the activities, read the lesson in the text before starting your homework exercises. Note that most activities will direct you to the appropriate pages in your text if you encounter difficulties.
- An assignment consists of every single activity for the lesson. There are approximately twenty-five activities per lesson. All the activities for each lesson are machine-scored, and some will accept multiple correct answers. Pay attention to spelling, capitalization, punctuation, and accentuation as you complete your work.
- Your scores are housed in the Blackboard grade book. You may check your scores at any time. You may repeat an exercise as many times as you would like. You must, however, complete the activities by the deadline stated in the schedule. You will not have access to the online BB exercises after the deadline. You must complete all of the assignments for each of the lessons for your level unless otherwise instructed. No assignments will be dropped. Activities that are not done or not submitted for scoring (work saved, but not submitted for scoring) are computed as a zero.
- NOTE: When doing your workbook, if you open multiple instances (windows) of Bb, submit your activities for scoring from the original instance (window) of Bb. It is the original instance that the system uses to record your grades.

5. Conversation with Partner

Purpose:
- To give you the opportunity to speak Spanish in a specific social context
- To evaluate you in the acquisition and use of Spanish in the interpersonal mode

How they work:
You will be required to participate in a short oral conversation with a partner. This conversation will be presented in front of your instructor. The oral conversation will last 8 minutes (approx. 4 minutes per student). The dates for the conversation are listed on the schedule. The topics of the conversation will NOT be announced beforehand; however, they will be based on the topics covered in class, for example in the A conversar, En contexto, and A comunicarnos sections of each chapter.

6. Final Oral Interview

Purpose:
- To give you the opportunity to speak Spanish in a specific social context
- To evaluate you in the acquisition and use of Spanish in the interpersonal mode

How it works:
The final oral interview will consist of a one-on-one conversation with your instructor. It will be conducted at the end of the semester, and you will be evaluated with regard to the expected proficiency level of students in your course. The interview will last at least 8 minutes.

7. Portfolio

Purpose: To give you the opportunity to work on different oral and written texts, to interact with native speakers, and to know more about the target culture.

How it works:
You will have to complete two portfolio tasks related to the topics discussed in class. These tasks will require you to work with authentic materials, or to use Spanish in the community, and to write reflections on your experience. The completed assignments will be submitted online (on Blackboard) on the deadline established in the schedule. Further details about the portfolio entries will be provided by your instructor at a later date during the semester.

8. Chapter Exams

Purpose: To validate comprehension of material in the chapter (interpretive and presentational modes), and to allow students to assess their knowledge of the material learned.

How they work:
Each exam may cover any and all of the material related to a particular lesson, and it will consist of reading and listening comprehension exercises and a short composition. The exams are significant measurements of your comprehension of the material in the lesson and should be viewed as interim assessments with regard to the final exam. The number of items on an exam is variable.

9. Final Exam

Purpose: To evaluate your progress in the acquisition of Spanish in the interpretive and presentational modes.

How it works:
The exam will cover the material learned in all the chapters discussed during the semester, and it will consist of reading and listening comprehension exercises and a composition.
TEMARIO/SCHEDULE:
- The instructor reserves the right to make changes to the schedule (excluding exams and composition dates) if he/she deems it pedagogically appropriate.
- The student is responsible for the notes/material from any classes missed.
- Remember to bring your textbook to class every day. You are responsible for all the material assigned that is listed on each day, and you are required to complete ALL assigned activities listed on the schedule or any assigned by the instructor BEFORE you come to class.
- NOTE: Any incomplete or late assignments will receive an automatic grade of ZERO.
