CTCS 469:
Seven Deadly Directors

This course in film style analysis rounds up a rag-tag group of 7 “deadly directors” who have enjoyed recent success: Ridley Scott, Christopher Nolan, Kathryn Bigelow, Alejandro González Iñárritu, F. Gary Gray, Danny Boyle, and David Fincher. The class explores their diverse origin stories and analyzes their bodies of work to gain insights about style and contemporary cinema. The course incorporates reading, writing, and research, as well as intensive film viewing; two of each director's films will be screened in class, with two more films by each director as homework (plus one extra from a “Hateful 8th” director, Quentin Tarantino).
