This course will look at recent research on the effects of screen time on your brain, and the role of assistive devices on screens, while examining TV and film representations of Brain Diseases like Schizophrenia, Mood Disorders, ALS and Asperger's Syndrome. Screenings include Girl Interrupted, Perception, United States of Tara, The Lou Gehrig Story, The Good Wife, and Shutter Island.

Register today!
Mondays, 2:00-5:50 PM
SCA 316
Spring 2016, 4 Units
Professor Ellen Seiter

Questions?
Visit the Cinema & Media Studies Office in SCA 320
Phone: (213) 740-3334
Email: mediastudies@cinema.usc.edu