Course Description
Techniques of modern dance; elements of dance composition.

Full Course Description
This course is designed to instruct modern dance fundamentals at a beginning level. This class will explore historical and current ideas of modern dance. Our study will be informed by the pioneers of modern dance as well as contemporary choreographers.

Learning Objectives
The learning objectives for this course are enunciated below and the overall objective is to give the students an understanding of the basics of modern dance technique. In this course students will:
- Acquire an understanding of the basics of modern dance technique
- Develop an understanding of the evolution of modern dance
- Develop an understanding of the basic tenets of choreography, improvisation, and performance
- Execute a written journal recording commentary on modern dance choreographers, class time, achievements, challenges, and inspirations
- Execute a written review of the one of the USC Kaufman BFA Students’ performances

Course Notes
Course announcements, assignments, readings, and requirements will be posted to Blackboard. Students are expected to review the course’s Blackboard page weekly.

Proper Attire for Technique Class
Dance shoes are not desired, but jazz dance shoes or “dance paws” are acceptable to protect from blistering and tearing of calluses. Refrain from wearing only socks. Form-fitting workout clothes are acceptable. Dance shoes can be purchased online or at any dance store. Be sure to check size conversions as some dance shoes are sized differently than normal shoes.

Required Text

Suggested Readings

Description and Assessment of Assignments
Students will be responsible for completing a midterm exam, a final exam, a journal, and a dance review paper. The exams will consist of live performances by students of modern choreography during scheduled exam times. There will also be an optional in-studio performance for this class the week of April 25th to April 29th (exact date and time TBD - a sign-up sheet will be circulated).

<td>Active Participation</td>
<td>For purposes of this course, active participation is diligently engaging in physical modern dance technique curriculum including exerting effort to effectuate muscle memory to the best of your ability without disruptive behavior, unexcused tardiness, or absence as required during scheduled class time. Note that among other undesirable behavior, excessive sitting out, tardiness, absences, unwillingness to exert full efforts, distracting classmates, failing to adhere to the dress code, and marking of movement as opposed to full-out effort will negatively affect active participation points. Students should be respectful of the instructor, fellow classmates, and themselves during class activities, demonstration of combinations, and collaborations. Preparation, review and in-class work as observed by the instructor are key in achieving full active participation points.</td>

<td>Weekly Discussions &amp; Journals</td>
<td>We will have brief discussions at the beginning of the class period regarding specific modern dance choreographers. Students are expected to conduct online research of the particular choreographers prior to the in-class discussion, complete the assigned readings, and execute a weekly journal entry including commentary on the readings and the in-class experience. For the discussions, students will be called on at random to provide information regarding the choreographer(s) of interest for that week. If a student is not prepared to discuss the assigned choreographer(s) when called upon or is absent, the student will lose 5 points. A student that has been called upon at a class session is not exempt from being called upon during subsequent discussions (so come prepared each week). Journals will be due the beginning of the class period on the Tuesdays of Week 6, Week 11, and Week 14. Hard copies only. No late Journals will be accepted. If Journal entries are missing or late, Students will lose 5 points.</td>

IV. Paper

Dance Review Paper

May 4th by 12pm

(emailed to angelikp@usc.edu)

Students are required to attend a performance of the USC Kaufman BFA students this semester. Students will write a personal reflection paper (3-5 pages, typed, double-spaced and proof-read) offering original comments on the content and form of a live dance performance given by USC Kaufman BFA Students.

Your choice of attending:
- Mid-Term informal studio showing in PED 207: tentatively Feb. 25 and the 26th (time TBD)
- Performance of Graham in Bovard Auditorium: April 27 (time TBD)
- End of Semester Performance in the Bing Theatre: April 28-29 (time TBD)

Students must email the papers to angelikp@usc.edu by May 4th at 12pm. The papers must be in Microsoft Word format (.doc or .docx).

Late papers will not be accepted. The paper will be evaluated on its quality, thoroughness, and thoughtfulness. Other Requirements: typed, MLA format, double-spaced, 12 pt. Times New Roman font, 1 inch margins, 8 ½” by 11” standard paper.

Exam Policy
The Midterm Exam will be conducted the eighth week of the semester during class time. For the date and time of the Final Exam for this class, consult the USC Schedule of Classes at www.usc.edu/soc. No make-up midterm or final exams will be permitted. Any student tardy to an exam will not be permitted additional time outside of the scheduled exam period to complete the exam.

Course Expectations
The student is expected to do the following:
- Be on time for class
- Be prepared for class having completed reading and other class assignments
- Engage in class discussions
- Develop an understanding of the basics concerning modern dance technique

Attendance, Tardiness and Absences:
Attendance is mandatory. There will be 3 excused absences allowed. No doctors’ notes are necessary or accepted. No make-up classes are allowed. Tardiness is not tolerated. The full course time is necessary to complete course training, and tardiness creates a significant disruption to the course work of the other students. Tardiness of 20 minutes or more will constitute an absence. Further, 3 tardy attendances of less than 20 minutes will also constitute an absence. Because attendance is important to this course, each unexcused absence will count for a 10 point deduction of the final accumulated Active Participation (as defined herein) points.

Use of Technology in the Classroom
Students are not allowed to use technology in the classroom during the technique class with the exception of preparation for midterm and final exam performances. Students will not abuse the use of social media in the classroom and are expected to behave with requisite decorum and respect for the instructor and their fellow classmates.

Statement for Students with Disabilities

Any student requesting academic accommodations based on a disability is required to register with Disability Services and Programs (DSP) each semester. A letter of verification for approved accommodations can be obtained from DSP. Please be sure the letter is delivered to me as early in the semester as possible. DSP is located in STU 301 and is open 8:30 a.m.–5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Website and contact information for DSP: http://sait.usc.edu/academicsupport/centerprograms/dsp/home_index.html, (213) 740-0776 (Phone), (213) 740-6948 (TDD only), (213) 740-8216 (FAX) ability@usc.edu.

Statement on Academic Integrity

USC seeks to maintain an optimal learning environment. General principles of academic honesty include the concept of respect for the intellectual property of others, the expectation that individual work will be submitted unless otherwise allowed by an instructor, and the obligations both to protect one’s own academic work from misuse by others as well as to avoid using another’s work as one’s own. All students are expected to understand and abide by these principles. SCampus, the Student Guidebook, (www.usc.edu/scampus or http://scampus.usc.edu) contains the University Student Conduct Code (see University Governance, Section 11.00), while the recommended sanctions are located in Appendix A.

Emergency Preparedness/Course Continuity in a Crisis

In case of a declared emergency if travel to campus is not feasible, USC executive leadership will announce an electronic way for instructors to teach students in their residence halls or homes using a combination of Blackboard, teleconferencing, and other technologies.

Statement on Academic Conduct and Support Systems

Academic Conduct

Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Section 11, Behavior Violating University Standardshttps://scampus.usc.edu/1100-behavior-violating-university-standards-and-appropriate-sanctions/. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct/.
Discrimination, sexual assault, and harassment are not tolerated by the university. You are encouraged to report any incidents to the Office of Equity and Diversity http://equity.usc.edu/ or to the Department of Public Safety http://capsnet.usc.edu/department/department-public-safety/online-forms/contact-us. This is important for the safety whole USC community. Another member of the university community – such as a friend, classmate, advisor, or faculty member – can help initiate the report, or can initiate the report on behalf of another person. The Center for Women and Men http://www.usc.edu/student-affairs/cwm/ provides 24/7 confidential support, and the sexual assault resource center webpage sarc@usc.edu describes reporting options and other resources.

Support Systems
A number of USC’s schools provide support for students who need help with scholarly writing. Check with your advisor or program staff to find out more. Students whose primary language is not English should check with the American Language Institute http://dornsife.usc.edu/ali, which sponsors courses and workshops specifically for international graduate students. The Office of Disability Services and Programs http://sait.usc.edu/academicsupport/centerprograms/dsp/home_index.html provides certification for students with disabilities and helps arrange the relevant accommodations. If an officially declared emergency makes travel to campus infeasible, USC Emergency Information http://emergency.usc.edu/will provide safety and other updates, including ways in which instruction will be continued by means of blackboard, teleconferencing, and other technology.
