FREN-315: Inside the Courts: the French Legal Language and Culture

Maymester course: May 15 – June 16, 2017

Fren-315 is a four-week introduction to the French legal system. The program begins with one week of classes at the USC campus followed by three weeks in the city of Tours, in the Loire Valley, France. Taught in French.

Pre-requisite:
Fren-300 or equivalent

Information Sessions:
Wednesday, January 11, 3-4pm, in THH-120
Thursday, January 12, 12-1pm, in THH-120

For further information, contact:
Atiyeh Showrai, THH-342, showrai@usc.edu