The aim of this course is to give a comprehensive introduction to the Hebrew Bible, concentrating on the most central theological issues in all three subdivisions of the scriptures, according to Jewish tradition: the Torah, the Prophets and the Writings. Students will be introduced to the wider context of the ancient Near East, and to examples of the material culture that have come to light in the last two hundred years.

Spring 2017
Tue, Thu 9:30 - 10:50 AM, SGM 124
Instructor Marilyn Lundberg Melzian
mlundber@usc.edu