Course Description
Problems of achieving proper balance, blend, intonation, diction, precision, etc. in choral groups; criteria for selection of repertoire for particular groups.

Learning Objectives
This course is designed to provide the choral conductor with a thorough look at the rehearsal process in working with choral ensembles. Topics covered will include the following: various choral schools, choral warm-ups, vocal/choral approaches, rehearsal pacing, audition procedures, seating arrangements, stylistic interpretation, intonation and tone building.

This course is designed with lecture/discussion (seminar style) on topics encountered in extensive readings as a core component of the class. Students prepare individual projects and discuss their projects in class. Extensive guest lectures are provided delving more deeply into critical topics such as diction, vocal/choral dynamics, marketing and entrepreneurship and programming.

Prerequisite(s): Junior standing in music

Course Notes
This Course is considered a seminar and as such functions only when all the members of the class have completed the readings. If it is determined that not enough members are keeping up with the readings, an occasional quiz will be given. The reading load fluctuates from week to week.

Description and Assessment of Assignments

IPA Project – 15% of Grade
- Prepare typed IPA for assigned music. Use online IPA keyboard (http://ipa.typeit.org/full/) or similar).
- Bring at least two hard copies (one to turn in to instructor, one to turn in to guest lecturer).
- Provide copies for each of your classmates (either hardcopies or digital files sent prior to class start).

Los Angeles Master Chorale Rehearsal Reflection – 15% of Grade
- Attend one rehearsal of the Los Angeles Master Chorale on either of the approved dates: Sept. 13, 2017 or Sept. 17, 2017. Contact Dr. Scheibe immediately if you have a conflict.
- Type up a minimum two page reflection (12-point font, double-spaced) of what you observed during the rehearsal. Address the following aspects:
  - REHEARSAL STRUCTURE: How is the rehearsal structured? Is there a progression in difficulty as the rehearsal runs or is there another aspect that has guided the rehearsal order?
  - ROOM SET-UP / CHOIR FORMATION: What is the choir formation? What benefits or difficulties will the choir experience with this formation? Why did the conductors use this set-up?
  - INTONATION / PHONATION: What do you hear? What is the conductor fixing and how are they making adjustments?
  - CONDUCTOR’S DEMEANOR: How is the conductor addressing the choir throughout the rehearsal? How is the choir responding? What traits of a leader are you observing in the conductor and are those traits effective or helpful?

Mid-Term Exam – 30% of Grade

Final Project – 30% of Grade
- UNDERGRADUATE
  - Analyze three assigned octavos following the Hillis method.
  - Submit your marked scores with an attached explanation of your analysis method and discoveries you made (musical, practical, etc.). Include possible difficulties (including conducting or choral/vocal issues) that might be encountered by a high school ensemble preparing for an ACDA performance with these octavos.
  - Type up IPA for each octavo. Use an online IPA keyboard (http://ipa.typeit.org/full/) or similar). Include a word-for-word translation beneath each word for any text.
  - Please staple or use a binder clip to keep all of your materials together.
  - Due by 8am on December 6, 2017 turned in to MUS 416. No late projects will be considered.

- MASTERS
  - Analyze assigned movement from a choral work following the Somerville method.
  - Submit your marked scores with an attached explanation of your analysis method and discoveries you made (musical, practical, harmonic movement, etc.). Include possible difficulties (including conducting or choral/vocal issues) that might be encountered by a college-level ensemble similar to USC Thornton Concert Choir preparing for an ACDA performance with this music.
  - Type up IPA for all text. Use an online IPA keyboard (http://ipa.typeit.org/full/) or similar). Include a word-for-word translation beneath each word.
  - Please staple or use a binder clip to keep all of your materials together.
  - Due by 8am on December 6, 2017 turned in to MUS 416. No late projects will be considered.
Classroom Participation – 10% of Grade
- Regular and on-time attendance is expected in this course.
- Readings and video viewing, as assigned, are part of the classroom discussions.

Additional Policies

Attendance Policy: In keeping with the professional objectives of the program, the Department of Choral and Sacred Music at the University of Southern California enforces a strict policy regarding participation and punctuality.

Since punctuality is important to musical professionalism, a strict punctuality policy is in place and will affect the participation portion of the grade.

Do not schedule voice lessons, meetings with faculty members or other organizations, make-up classes or exams, USC registration, doctor/dental appointments, job interviews, or any personal obligations during class times, as these will not serve as sufficient excuses to miss class.

Unavoidable emergencies will be handled on an individual basis. If an emergency occurs, (including acute, but brief, illness) the student must contact the instructor in a timely manner, followed with written notification within three days. The instructor will determine whether the emergency is acceptable for excuse. If the instructor does not recognize the reason as acceptable, the student may appeal.

Absences for the following reasons are considered EXCUSED:
- Institutional excuses given five days in advance.
- Extended illness with doctor’s verification.
- Death in the immediate family.

If you are unable to attend either of the listed LAMC rehearsals on September 13th, 2017, or September 17th, 2017, due to an existing conflict (such as a scheduled class), contact Dr. Scheibe immediately to discuss. He will assign an alternate rehearsal date you must attend or he will assign an activity to replace the rehearsal attendance requirement.

Religious Observance
University policy grants students excused absences from class for observance of religious holy days. Faculty are asked to be responsive to requests when students contact them IN ADVANCE to request such an excused absence. The student should be given an opportunity to make up missed work because of religious observance. Students are advised to scan their syllabi at the beginning of each course to detect potential conflicts with their religious observances. Please note that this applies only to the sort of holy day that necessitates absence from class and/or whose religious requirements clearly conflict with aspects of academic performance.

Academic Conduct:
Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Part B, Section 11, “Behavior Violating University Standards” https://policy.usc.edu/scampus-part-b/. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct.
