I. COURSE PREREQUISITES

SOWK 503, SOWK 534, SOWK 535, SOWK 543, AND SOWK 562

II. CATALOGUE DESCRIPTION

This course focuses on research and evaluation skills, critical analysis in understanding different types of data, and utilizing data information systems to inform decision making and improve effectiveness of social work practice in community, organization, and business environments.

III. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course builds on the Social Work Research course in the first semester of the MSW program. The course is designed to provide students with the skills necessary to critically analyze and apply research evidence to inform and enhance social work practice within community, organization and business environments. Specifically, students will develop skills in: 1) collecting data to not only determine if something worked, but more importantly, know what works, for whom, and under what conditions; 2) systematically analyzing various types of data (e.g., empirical data, databases, technical reports) to conduct rigorous program evaluations; 3) identifying and utilizing research based assessments; and 4) developing evidence to inform decision-making and enhance the impact of social work practice.

IV. COURSE OBJECTIVES

The Research and Evaluation for Community, Organization, and Business Environments course (SOWK 629) will focus on the following objectives:

Objective #	Objectives
1	Create a learning environment that provides opportunities to increase awareness of how scientific research and social work practice are interdependent and serve as a basis for enhancing their professional identity as social workers.
2	Provide instruction in the practices of professional social work, basic research methods and data analysis in order to prepare students to conduct a organization data analysis, needs assessment, and program evaluation.

Objective #	Objectives
3	Prepare students to critically assess the quality and utility of evidenced-based practices.
4	Emphasize the utilization of publicly available databases so that students are able to access basic research evidence to inform practice-based questions and communicate this information to organizational leaders and key stakeholders.
5	Prepare students to engage in the process of evidence-informed decision-making to enhance the effectiveness of their social work practice. This includes the identification and critical evaluation of assessments, conceptual frameworks and evidence-based interventions. Emphasis will be placed on context and diversity, as well as ethical and political considerations of how research evidence is developed and may affect their decision-making.

V. COURSE FORMAT / INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS

Delivery of this course will be learner-centered. As such, students' field and class experiences will be geared towards discovery through applied learning. The COPA learning experience will include lectures, class discussions, case studies/guest speakers, presentations and small group activities. Students will be grouped based on similar areas of interest and/or service settings (e.g., community, organization, business environments). Group members will have shared responsibility for the completion of weekly group exercises. But, each student is responsible for completing his/her own assignments. Data-based reports, examples and materials from the field will be used to illustrate key concepts and provide an integration of theory into practice. Through group interactions, students will gradually assume more independent responsibilities for learning, while the role of the instructor will shift toward that of consultant, facilitator and resource person.

The online teaching and learning environment will be provided by the University's Blackboard Academic Suite (OTG) or the Virtual Academic Center (VAC). It will support and facilitate student learning, communication and interaction, as well as access to instructor support.

VI. STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students' learning for this course relates to one or more of the following nine social work competencies as established in March, 2015 by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE):

VII. COURSE ASSIGNMENTS, DUE DATES & GRADING

Assignment	Due Date	% Of Final Grade
Assignment 1: Organizational Data Analysis	Unit 4	15%
Assignment 2: Needs Assessment	Unit 8	30%
Assignment 3: Process Evaluation	Unit 14	30%
Assignment 4: Agency Presentations	Units 14 & 15	15%
Class Participation	Ongoing	10%

Each of the four assignments described below will be based on a semester-long, group project (teams should be no more than 4 students) that focuses on the context in which social workers are working. Each team will be partnered with the same collaborating agency assigned in SOWK 648.

Collaborating agencies will go through a Request for Proposals (RFP) and selection process prior to the Spring Semester. Agencies will have a clear understanding of student outcomes and products. Students and agencies will receive more detailed information on each assignment during class.

Assignment 1: Organizational Data Analysis (15% of Course Grade)

This assignment requires students to analyze: 1) an organization’s data environment, 2) how data influences the organization, and 3) the data collection and storage processes that are used by the organization. The 3-5 page paper should answer the following questions

- How are data collected?
- Who collects the data?
- What is the frequency and timing of data collection?
- Where are the data stored?
- Who enters the data?
- How are people trained?
- Are there policies associated with data entry?
- What databases does the agency enter data into, etc.?
- What are the data used for?
- What are the data influences on the organization?
- What is the culture around data?
- Are there power/control issues?

More details will be provided in a separate document.

Due: Unit 4

Assignment 2: Needs Assessment (30% of Course Grade)

In this assignment students design and execute a needs assessment for an existing program in the collaborating agency. For this assignment, identify and select a problem in the program and develop a plan to conduct an in-depth evaluation of the program using or collecting program data. Your evaluation should include the following steps 1) defining the social problem; 2) developing a needs assessment survey; 3) identifying target intervention; 4) develop data collection plan; 5) analyzing and displaying data; and 6) communicating and disseminating findings of needs. Each team is expected to present to the class the steps they will be taking to carry out their needs assessment. More details will be provided in a separate document.

Due: Unit 8

Assignment 3: Process Evaluation (30% of Course Grade)

Building upon the previous two assignments, each team will prepare a process evaluation that examines how a program delivers services, and what administrative mechanisms exist within the program and agency that support the services it offers. Each team is required to complete a summary report of their process evaluation. This comprehensive final paper will include: 1) developing questions for the process evaluation; 2) developing data collecting instruments; 3) developing a data collection monitoring system; 4) scoring and analyzing data and 5) developing a feedback system disseminating and communicating results. This final report should also discuss the implications of the findings for the agency/program. Recommendations to the agency should also include a program innovation component with high potential to enhance, support and sustain the evaluated program. Details on this assignment will be provided in class

Due: Unit 14

Assignment 4: Agency Presentation (15% of Course Grade)

Students will be asked to present their process evaluation findings, organizational assessment, and implementation plan to their partner agency. The audience for the presentation will be up to each student group and partner agency and may include (but are not limited to): Agency Administration, Board of Directors, Constituency, Stakeholders, and/or Community Members. Presentations will be evaluated on level of professionalism, clarity, impact, and insights.

Due: Presentations are expected to be completed by Unit 15.

Student class participation is worth 10% of the grade. This will be based on student participation in class discussion, in-class exercises, and group activities. 5% of your grade will be based on your participation in the CommLab that will be part of this course.

Class grades will be based on the following:

Class Grades		Final Grade
3.85 – 4	A	93 – 100	A
3.60 – 3.84	A-	90 – 92	A-
3.25 – 3.59	B+	87 – 89	B+
2.90 – 3.24	B	83 – 86	B
2.60 – 2.89	B-	80 – 82	B-
2.25 – 2.59	C+	77 – 79	C+
1.90 – 2.24	C	73 – 76	C
		70 – 72	C-

Within the School of Social Work, grades are determined in each class based on the following standards which have been established by the faculty of the School:

Grades of A or A- are reserved for student work which not only demonstrates very good mastery of content but which also shows that the student has undertaken a complex task, has applied critical thinking skills to the assignment, and/or has demonstrated creativity in her or his approach to the assignment. The difference between these two grades would be determined by the degree to which these skills have demonstrated by the student.

A grade of B+ is given to work which is judged to be very good. This grade denotes that a student has demonstrated a more-than-competent understanding of the material being tested in the assignment.

A grade of B is given to student work which meets the basic requirements of the assignment. It denotes that the student has done adequate work on the assignment and meets basic course expectations.

A grade of B- denotes that a student's performance was less than adequate on an assignment, reflecting only moderate grasp of content and/or expectations.

A grade of C reflects a minimal grasp of the assignments, poor organization of ideas and/or several significant areas requiring improvement.

Grades between C- and F denote a failure to meet minimum standards, reflecting serious deficiencies in all aspects of a student's performance on the assignment.*

University Policies and Guidelines

IX. ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to attend every class and to remain in class for the duration of the unit. Failure to attend class or arriving late may impact your ability to achieve course objectives which could affect your course grade. Students are expected to notify the instructor by email at araque@usc.edu of any anticipated absence or reason for tardiness.

University of Southern California policy permits students to be excused from class for the observance of religious holy days. This policy also covers scheduled final examinations which conflict with students' observance of a holy day. Students must make arrangements in advance to complete class work which will be missed, or to reschedule an examination, due to holy days observance.

Please refer to Scampus and to the USC School of Social Work Student Handbook for additional information on attendance policies.

X. STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC CONDUCT

Plagiarism – presenting someone else's ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Section 11, Behavior Violating University Standards <https://scampus.usc.edu/1100-behavior-violating-university-standards-and-appropriate-sanctions/>. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, <http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct/>.

Discrimination, sexual assault, and harassment are not tolerated by the university. You are encouraged to report any incidents to the Office of Equity and Diversity <http://equity.usc.edu/> or to the Department of Public Safety <http://capsnet.usc.edu/department/department-public-safety/online-forms/contact-us>. This is important for the safety whole USC community. Another member of the university community – such as a friend, classmate, advisor, or faculty member – can help initiate the report, or can initiate the report on behalf of another person. The Center for Women and Men <http://www.usc.edu/student-affairs/cwm/> provides 24/7 confidential support, and the sexual assault resource center webpage sarc@usc.edu describes reporting options and other resources.

XI. SUPPORT SYSTEMS

A number of USC's schools provide support for students who need help with scholarly writing. Check with your advisor or program staff to find out more. Students whose primary language is not English should check with the American Language Institute <http://dornsife.usc.edu/ali>, which sponsors courses and workshops specifically for international graduate students. The Office of Disability Services and Programs http://sait.usc.edu/academicsupport/centerprograms/dsp/home_index.html provides certification for students with disabilities and helps arrange the relevant accommodations. If an officially declared emergency makes travel to campus infeasible, USC Emergency Information <http://emergency.usc.edu/> will provide safety and other updates, including ways in which instruction will be continued by means of blackboard, teleconferencing, and other technology.

XII. EMERGENCY RESPONSE INFORMATION

Note: The following Emergency Response Information pertains to students on campus, but please note its importance should you be on campus for a temporary or extended period. When not on campus: Call the 911 listing in your local community for any emergency.

To receive information, call the main number (213) 740-2711, press #2. "For recorded announcements, events, emergency communications or critical incident information."

XVI. CODE OF ETHICS OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF SOCIAL WORKERS

Approved by the 1996 NASW Delegate Assembly and revised by the 2008 NASW Delegate Assembly [http://www.socialworkers.org/pubs/Code/code.asp]

Preamble

The primary mission of the social work profession is to enhance human wellbeing and help meet the basic human needs of all people, with particular attention to the needs and empowerment of people who are vulnerable, oppressed, and living in poverty. A historic and defining feature of social work is the profession's focus on individual wellbeing in a social context and the wellbeing of society. Fundamental to social work is attention to the environmental forces that create, contribute to, and address problems in living.

Social workers promote social justice and social change with and on behalf of clients. “Clients” is used inclusively to refer to individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers are sensitive to cultural and ethnic diversity and strive to end discrimination, oppression, poverty, and other forms of social injustice. These activities may be in the form of direct practice, community organizing, supervision, consultation administration, advocacy, social and political action, policy development and implementation, education, and research and evaluation. Social workers seek to enhance the capacity of people to address their own needs. Social workers also seek to promote the responsiveness of organizations, communities, and other social institutions to individuals’ needs and social problems.

The mission of the social work profession is rooted in a set of core values. These core values, embraced by social workers throughout the profession’s history, are the foundation of social work’s unique purpose and perspective:

- Service
- Social justice
- Dignity and worth of the person
- Importance of human relationships
- Integrity
- Competence

This constellation of core values reflects what is unique to the social work profession. Core values, and the principles that flow from them, must be balanced within the context and complexity of the human experience.
