

Advanced Writing in the Health Sciences

Description:

Writing 340 begins with the assumption that you have already acquired fundamental competencies in college-level essay writing. In this class we will further hone your expository writing skills by focusing our assignments on writing for professional audiences in the Health Sciences.

Texts

- The Social Medicine Reader, Vol. 1: Patients, Doctors, and Illness (second edition). Ed. King, Strauss et al. Duke University Press: 2005.
- Multiple readings within the Health Sciences to be distributed in class and/or located by you.
