I. COURSE PREREQUISITES

This is an advanced master’s level Field Education course. Students take this class concurrently with 698b. To participate in this course, students must successfully complete SOWK 589a, SOWK 588, 589b, 698a, and 699a.

II. CATALOGUE DESCRIPTION

Supervised field placement to develop depth of skill and practice in area of department focus. Graded CR/NC/IP/INC.

III. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is the fourth semester direct practice portion of the MSW program. It is a collaborative endeavor between the USC School of Social Work agencies located throughout the world. This advanced course provides students the opportunity to practice social work skills and apply evidence-based interventions (EBIs) in their work with individuals, families, groups, organizations, communities and businesses with higher competency expectations than the first two semesters of the MSW program. Each student receives continual support provided by a Field Faculty Liaison who serves as an educator, consultant and coach for the field education internship experience to emphasize the Four C's of Field Education at USC: 1) collaboration, 2) communication, 3) creativity, and 4) critical thinking. Students utilize critical thinking and creativity through application of EBIs on the micro, mezzo and macro level of practice. Students utilize effective communication techniques in working with clients, agency employees and USC faculty to enhance their professional development as social workers.

In the final semester of field education, students will demonstrate an increase in the quality of micro, mezzo, and macro social work services. MSW students are expected to build on their knowledge, skills, and values learned in their first three semesters of field education internships. Through continued collaboration with the School, agencies will continue to provide learning opportunities and resources for an effective educational experience for students. Field Instructors are professional masters' level social workers who guide and teach students how to apply social work practice, values, and ethics in a professional setting. Field Instructors also collaborate with students and preceptors, if applicable, to create and approve learning agreements, discuss and give feedback on Reflective Learning Tools, complete and sign end-of-semester evaluations, and ensure paperwork is finished on time.

COBI students will effectively demonstrate specialized practice coursework concepts, while practicing social work and developing competencies in their specialized area of practice in organizations, business and community settings. AHA students will effectively demonstrate specialized practice coursework concepts, while practicing social work and developing competencies in their specialized area of practice in agencies serving adults. CYF students will effectively demonstrate specialized practice coursework concepts, while practicing social work and developing competencies in their specialized area of practice in agencies serving children, youth and families.

Students are expected to continue to take an active role in their experiences through the use of three core learning processes: self-reflection, interaction, and risk-taking. This teaching method draws on Transformative Learning Theory which asserts that students develop integrative knowledge about self and others in a dynamic, multicultural society from multiple perspectives. A primary goal is to help students understand their own and others' cultural experiences, to challenge their preconceptions and stereotypes, and to develop an attitude of openness and flexibility in cross-cultural interactions.

This course provides an opportunity for School departments to implement research-influenced practices in multidisciplinary settings, thereby, contributing to the direct application of EBIs and influencing the capacity of organizations to provide EBIs. Infusing field education internship with EBIs provides a translational link between research and practice, further solidifying a developing science of social work, and underscores Field Education as the "signature pedagogy" of social work.

At semester ends, the Field Faculty Liaison is responsible for assigning students a grade of Credit, In Progress, or No Credit.

IV. COURSE OBJECTIVES

Objective #	Objectives
1	Effectively integrate AHA, CYF and COBI classroom theories and specialized concepts with micro, mezzo, and macro social work practice in a variety of community settings that address the effects of poverty, discrimination and oppression; influence changes at the individual, family and group level; and bring about organizational and societal change.
2	Connect the developing science of social work to practice by demonstrating specific AHA, CYF and COBI evidence-based interventions (EBIs) in internship placements.
3	Enhance and extend skills across the spectrum of culturally appropriate social work services, may include direct practice skills such as engagement, assessment, goal-setting, intervention, termination, and evaluation; mezzo practice skills such as case management, resource/referral, family work, and support system; and macro practice skills such as community organizing, fund development and grant writing, policy analysis, and program development, implementation, and evaluation.
4	Cultivate professional use of self through observation of professional social workers, self-reflection, understanding of social work values, and implementation of those values in internship placements.
5	Demonstrate proficiency in the required Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Core Competencies as indicated in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation related to departmental (AHA, CYF and COBI) specialized behaviors.
6	Effectively develop and expand effective communication skills demonstrating critical thinking and creativity for intra/interdisciplinary collaboration, service delivery, oral presentation and written documentation within the specialized field education internship setting.

V. COURSE FORMAT / INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS

Field Education is systematically designed, supervised, coordinated, and evaluated based on criteria by which students demonstrate the achievement of program competencies (Brooks, 2010). These competencies are articulated in the CSWE EPAs and make up the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation for field education internship. To prepare students for successfully achieving those competencies, a variety of instructional methods are utilized by both USC Field Faculty and agency Field Instructors.

Instructional methods consist of university-led trainings, activities, and guidance combined with community agency activities under the supervision of a designated Field Instructor, including hands-on interactions with clients, shadowing opportunities, trainings, individual supervision, group supervision, guidance on proper documentation, crisis management responses, didactic instruction, and experiential exercises. Students may also develop a working relationship with site-based employees, known as Preceptors, who help guide them in day-to-day operations and many of the activities listed above.

USC Field Faculty Liaisons are assigned to oversee the progress of the students in their field placements, including consultation for students' field education internship assignments. Working on behalf of the School of Social Work, the Liaisons meet with students as needed to facilitate their placement experiences and schedule Field Instructor and student contacts each semester to ensure the quality of students' learning opportunities. The Liaisons also clarify School expectations and serve as consultant and mediator for student and internship-related conflicts.

Reflective Learning Tools are teaching tools that reflect student interactions with clients, systems that impact clients, and agency or community decision-makers. They also provide opportunities for Field Instructors' input and can influence future interventions. A teaching plan known as the Learning Agreement will be developed and/or revisited collaboratively between students and their Field Instructors. At the end of the first semester, Field Instructors will complete the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation and recommend a grade to the Field Faculty Liaison.

As discussion and participation are an integral part of the learning process, students are expected to prepare for supervision and to come to internship ready to apply the best practices of social work with clients and systems. Internship days are generally on Monday and Wednesday with a half-day on Friday, although some variations may occur. The number of hours required in the field (20 hrs/week) includes at least one eight-hour day.

VI. STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The following table lists the nine Social Work core competencies as defined by the Council on Social Work Education's 2015 Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards:

Social Work Core Competencies
1	Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior
2	Engage in Diversity and Difference in Practice
3	Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice
4	Engage in Practice-informed Research and Research-informed Practice
5	Engage in Policy Practice
6	Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
7	Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
8	Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
9	Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations and Communities

* Highlighted in this course

The following table shows the competencies highlighted in this course, the related course objectives, student learning outcomes, and dimensions of each competency measured. The final column provides the location of course content related to the competency.

Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
1. Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior Social workers understand the value base of the profession and its ethical standards, as well as relevant laws and regulations that impact children, youth, and families at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels. Social workers employ ethical decision-making and critical thinking when working with children, youth, and families. Social workers understand the distinctions between personal and professional values and apply rigorous self-reflection to monitor the influence of personal experiences and affective reactions as they make professional judgments and decisions in their work with children, youth, and families. Social workers understand social work roles and the roles of other professionals involved in the lives of children and families, and use collaboration to positively impact the lives of their clients in a variety of contexts. Social workers specializing in work with children, youth, and families recognize the importance of life-long learning and continual updating of knowledge and skills for effective and responsible practice. Social workers use technology ethically and responsibly in their work with children, youth, and families.	4. Develop professional use of self through observation of professional social workers, self-reflection, understanding of social work values, and implementation of those values in internship placements.	a. Demonstrate understanding of social work role and interdisciplinary team roles within and across family service sectors.	Knowledge	Unit 1 Module 1: Course Introduction

2. Engage in Diversity and Difference in Practice Social workers seek to further their comprehension as to how diversity and difference characterize and shape the human experience in relation to the critical formation of identity as families develop and children grow physically and emotionally. The dimensions of diversity are understood as the intersectionality of multiple factors including but not limited to age, class, color, culture, disability and ability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity and expression, immigration status, marital status, political ideology, race, religion/spirituality, sex, sexual orientation, and tribal sovereign status. Social workers are aware of their own intersectionality of differences and how this may impact their practice with the children, youth and families they serve. Social workers who work with children, youth, and families seek to understand how life experiences arising from oppression, poverty, marginalization, or privilege and power, can affect family culture and identity, as well as individual growth and development. Social workers recognize the extent to which social structures, social service delivery systems, values and cultural systems may oppress, marginalize, alienate, exclude, or create or enhance privilege and power among children youth, and families.	1. 3. Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice Social workers understand that every child, young person, and family member, regardless of position in society, has fundamental human rights such as freedom, safety, privacy, an adequate standard of living, health care, and education. Social workers understand the global interconnections of oppression and human rights violations and employ social justice strategies promote social and economic justice and human rights for children and families and the communities in which they live. Social workers use strategies designed to eliminate oppressive structural barriers in order to ensure more equitable distribution of social goods, rights, services, and responsibilities and to protect the civil, political, environmental, economic, social, and cultural rights of children, youth, and families. Social workers are aware of the historical and current impact of colonization and globalization on children, youth and families, and incorporate social justice practices to bear witness to and actively dismantle oppression and foster liberation.	1. Integrate classroom theories and concepts with social work practice in vulnerable community settings where the effects of poverty, discrimination and oppression are pervasive in an effort to bring about change at individual, community, organizational and societal levels. 5. Increase proficiency in the required Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Core Competencies as indicated in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation.	a. Incorporate social justice practices in advocating for policies that promote empowerment in vulnerable children, youth and families. b. Analyze and consider the human rights and social justice aspects of interventions with children, youth, and families. c. 7. Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities Social workers use their knowledge of theories of human behavior and the social environment to inform ongoing assessment as they work with diverse children, youth, and families, as well as with the groups, organizations, and institutions that play important parts in their lives. Social workers use culturally informed and varied assessment methods to capture the diverse strengths, resources, and needs of children, youth and families, which in turn advances the effectiveness of their practice. Social workers work collaboratively with other service providers involved in the family's life in order to obtain a comprehensive understanding of the family system to enhance the assessment process. Social workers are mindful of the potential influence of their personal experiences and affective reactions on the processes of assessment with children, youth, and families.	3. Enhance skills across the spectrum of culturally appropriate social work services, from engagement to assessment, goal-setting, intervention, evaluation, and termination.	a. Create developmentally and culturally appropriate intervention strategies based on an ecological assessment, research knowledge, and values and preferences of children, youth and families. b. Select appropriate intervention strategies based on the assessment, research knowledge, and values and preferences of children, youth and families and the communities in which they live. c. Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
8. Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities Social workers are knowledgeable about the evidence-informed interventions for children, youth, and families that can best help them to achieve the goals of their diverse clients. Social workers are able to critically evaluate and apply theories of human behavior and the social environment to intervene effectively with their clients in child and family practice settings. Social workers understand methods of identifying, analyzing and implementing evidence-informed interventions to achieve family and agency goals. Social workers understand the importance of inter- professional teamwork and communication in interventions, and employ strategies of interdisciplinary, inter- professional, and inter-organizational collaboration to achieve beneficial outcomes for children, youth, and families.	2. Connect behavioral science to practice by learning and applying evidence-based interventions (EBIs) in internship placements. 3. Enhance skills across the spectrum of culturally appropriate social work services, from engagement to assessment, goal-setting, intervention, evaluation, and termination.	a. Negotiate, mediate, and advocate with and on behalf of diverse clients and constituencies. b. Critically select and apply interventions for their practice with children, youth, and families, based on thoughtful assessment of needs and the quality of available evidence. VII. COURSE ASSIGNMENTS, DUE DATES & GRADING

Assignment	Due Date	% of Final Grade
1. Review Educational Goals in Learning Agreement with Field Instructor	Unit 5	30%
2a. Ten Reflective Learning Tools	Weekly	35% (50% completed by week 9)
2b. Field Documentation	Unit 15
3. Development of Competencies and Field Hours	Unit 15	35%

*All field hours must be completed to pass this course. In order for students to receive credit (CR) they need to receive a minimum of 83% on assignments and must complete a minimum of 310 hours of internship. (Partial credit for this requirement will not be given.)

Each of the major assignments is described below.

Assignment 1: Review Educational Goals in Learning Agreement with Field Instructor

Review education goals in the Learning Agreement and revise to incorporate department-specific competencies through collaboration with your Field Instructor and Preceptor (if applicable). Submit confirmation of review form to the Field Faculty Liaison.

Due: Unit 5

This assignment relates to student learning outcome 6.

Assignment 2a/b: Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation

Complete and submit weekly Reflective Learning Tools (a minimum of 10/semester) to the Field Instructor. The Reflective Learning Tool Log needs to be completed on a regular basis and signed by the Field Instructor as verification that the requirements have been met. There are multiple Reflective Learning Tool forms to include:

- Individual
- Group
- Educational Meeting
- Macro Focused

The Reflective Learning Tool Log needs to be completed on a regular basis and signed by the Field Instructor as verification that the requirements have been met. Upon completion Reflective Learning Tool Log will be turned into the Field Liaison.

Due 2a: Reflective Learning Tools are due weekly to the Field Instructor and the signed Reflective Learning Tool Log. Field Liaison will do a monthly check-in with student reviewing Reflective Learning Tool Log.

Due 2b: Unit 15 – Reflective Learning Tool Log is due Field Liaison

This assignment relates to student learning outcomes 1-4 and 6-9.

Assignment 3: Development of Competencies and Field Hours

For Credit in this assignment, students will:

- Demonstrate advanced skills in the CSWE Core Competencies as listed in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation portion of the Learning Agreement and Comprehensive Skills Evaluation.
- Complete a self-assessment (suggested activity) by rating themselves on the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation and submitting it to the Field Instructor.
- Review and discuss the semester Evaluation completed by the Field Instructor, who makes the grade recommendation. If satisfied that the content accurately reflects progress, students sign in the space indicated.*
- Ensure that the completed Evaluation is submitted electronically to the Field Liaison.
- Complete required number of Field placement hours (20/week). **

Due: Student and Field Instructor will complete the Year-End Evaluation and submit electronically along with the signed Reflective Learning Tool Log to Field Liaison by Unit 15.

This assignment relates to student learning outcomes 1-9.

If there are issues that are unresolved, discuss with your Field Instructor and, if needed, contact your Field Liaison.*

Required hours in field education internship for the semester include a minimum of four hours of Department Immersion, with the remaining hours gained at the field placement. Students will not receive a Credit in this course if they do not complete the required hours. If discussed in advance and arranged with the Field Instructor, students are allowed eight (8) hours per semester for religious holidays. Students may take the equivalent of one eight (8) hour sick day per semester as long as they notify the Field Instructor in a timely manner. Make-up hours for time missed must also be discussed with the Field Instructor. Any attendance issues that arise should be addressed with the student's Field Liaison. Record keeping of required field hours is a joint responsibility of the student and the Field Instructor. To the fullest extent possible, students are expected to observe the site attendance and time schedule policies. However, Advanced Applied Learning in Field Education is a class and students must adhere to the course start and end dates as well as important Field Education activities and events in the USC Field Calendar. If the site is closed on a non-University holiday, the student is expected to make up this time.*

Course grades will be based on the following:

*All field hours must be completed to pass this course. In order for students to receive credit they need to receive a minimum of 83% on assignments and must complete a minimum of 310 hours of internship. (Partial credit for this requirement will not be given.)

Guidelines for SOWK 699b: Advanced Learning in Field Education

The USC School of Social Work places MSW students in thousands of internships nationally and internationally in a variety of different settings: health, mental health, public child welfare, schools, in-person or virtual, etc. This syllabus serves as a general set of expectations for our students and their instructors. However, given the challenges of standardizing direct social work practice, a variety of experiences within these guidelines is expected. Therefore, all stakeholders involved in field education activities should view this document as best practice guidelines.

Topics

Unit 5-7: Module 3: Assessment

Date

- Assess progress on project deliverables and/or clients' goals and develop timeline for meeting expectations
 - Assess progress on quantifiable projects or services to be completed by the end of the internship (deliverables) and develop a timeline for their completion
 - Develop an understanding of the community's practice models
 - Continue to observe the interplay between agency needs, client needs, and community resources including how information flows into and out of the organization
 - Anticipate risk factors and apply strategies for minimizing risks in carrying out agency functions both in agency and community settings
- Apply critical-thinking skills in the ongoing assessment of projects and/or clients' progress
 - In collaboration with the client and Field Instructor, evaluate the need to modify interventions
 - Increase familiarity with evidence-based intervention clearinghouses (such as SAMSHA and the California Evidence-Based Clearinghouse for Child Welfare)
 - Attend EBI training at field placement when offered
 - Increase awareness of how current agency policies impact direct service
- Expand knowledge of clients' and/or community's cultural contexts
 - Expand knowledge of community culture and how it impacts intervention receptivity and response
 - Recognize and validate the intersection of factors making up a client's life experiences, including gender, sexual orientation, age, race, culture, religion, immigration status and political ideology
 - Become adept at applying legal and ethical standards on child abuse and neglect, dependent adult abuse and neglect, danger to self, and danger to others in consultation with Field Instructor
 - Incorporate self-care strategies to maintain emotional and physical well-being, and balance competing demands on time inherent in the MSW program
- Tasks:

Unit 8-11: Module 4: Intervention

Date

Topics

- Strengthen micro, mezzo and macro skills
 - Continue to utilize a variety of level of skills sets in working with individuals, groups and communities/organizations
 - Utilize individual and/or group supervision as a time to discuss and enhance skills in working with specific populations
- Review current organizational policies that impact service delivery and discuss with Field Instructor
 - Incubate ideas for developing community programs to meet unmet needs
 - Incorporate advanced skills in micro work with clients, mezzo work with client systems, and macro work within the organization and/or the community
 - Reflect on cumulative caseload diversity and the impact that ethnicity, gender, socio-economic status, age, sexual orientation, religion, and/or treatment issues have had on skill development
 - Evaluate effectiveness of evidence-informed tools and techniques at the client, agency, and/or systems level and discuss with Field Instructor
 - Continue termination preparation with clients at all intervention levels
- Increase creativity in client and project work
 - Utilize understanding of agency's political relationships at the local, state, and national level to inform activities during optional NASW-CA Legislative Lobby Days
 - Identify agency marketing plan, including specific outreach efforts to potential clients, communities, volunteers, donors, and other stakeholders
 - Acquire a greater understanding of community resources available to impact client, family, group, community, and organizational well-being
 - Continue defining tasks and services to clients, groups, organizations and communities prior to conferences with Field Instructor
 - Discuss creative and meaningful termination rituals with Field Instructor for both individual and group clients
- Understand linkages between agency and programs
 - Explore these linkages with Field Instructor in individual supervision
 - Explore how the linkages impact services that are provided to client population, funding sources, and collaborative relationships in the community
- Continue to explore clinical and organizational complexities
 - Provide safe holding environment for client's emotional responses to trauma and stressful events
 - Continue to be aware of client's ambivalence toward change
 - Deepen the exploration of transference and countertransference issues in work with client systems, and discuss feelings and observations candidly with Field Instructor
 - Identify the agency's complex political relationships at the local, state, and national level, and how these impact the well-being of individuals
 - When appropriate, involve members of client's support system in long-term treatment planning
 - Revisit treatment timeline with clients and client systems, and begin preparing for termination
- Tasks:
 - ▼ Create and submit Reflective Learning Tools

Unit 12-15: Module 5: Evaluation

Topics

- Utilize and enhance clinical, program, and/or organizational evaluation processes
 - Continue to utilize critical thinking and judgment skills in evaluating clinical, program and/or organizational processes
 - Apply effective communication skills in discussing key evaluation processes with Field Instructor and/or other individuals at field placement
- Termination with identified client system, groups, organizations and community
 - Assist client and client systems in identifying and processing feelings regarding termination
 - As appropriate, disclose own feelings regarding termination with clients
 - Engage in termination discussion with Field Instructor regarding the ending of the student learner phase with the Field Instructor
 - Make plans for effective ways to terminate with other internship support systems, including Preceptors, agency staff, community members, and fellow interns
 - Review self-care strategies to maintain emotional and physical well-being and balance competing demands on time inherent in the MSW program
- Develop plan for completing documentation
 - Attend to agency-required documentation; make a plan to complete all necessary paperwork by end of placement
 - Meet with clients and client treatment teams to discuss progress and next steps, ensuring that clients and client systems are referred to appropriate supports
 - Analyze organization's public relations strategy, including activities and publicity materials designed to represent the organization to external stakeholders
 - As appropriate, assist with the development of public relations products and marketing packets
- Self-assessment and completion of 699b semester evaluation
 - Evaluate effectiveness of EBIs by measuring progress toward goals as identified in client treatment plans
 - Evaluate progress toward achieving learning objectives as outlined in the Learning Agreement
 - Review final Comprehensive Skills Evaluation with Field Instructor and, if applicable, Preceptor
 - Engage in termination process with Field Instructor
 - Ensure documentation, including client case file paperwork, and all agency-required items are successfully completed
- Tasks:
 - ▼ Create and submit Reflective Learning Tools
 - ▼ Complete hours required for second semester
 - ▼ Review, sign, and submit semester Final Comprehensive Skills Evaluation and Reflective Learning Tool Log to Field Liaison (Unit 15)

University Policies and Guidelines

IX. ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to attend every class and to remain in class for the duration of the unit. Failure to attend class or arriving late may impact your ability to achieve course objectives which could affect your course grade. Students are expected to notify the instructor by email (xxx@usc.edu) of any anticipated absence or reason for tardiness.

University of Southern California policy permits students to be excused from class for the observance of religious holy days. This policy also covers scheduled final examinations which conflict with students' observance of a holy day. Students must make arrangements in advance to complete class work which will be missed, or to reschedule an examination, due to holy days observance.

Please refer to Scampus and to the USC School of Social Work Student Handbook for additional information on attendance policies.

X. ACADEMIC CONDUCT

Plagiarism – presenting someone else's ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Section 11, Behavior Violating University Standards <https://scampus.usc.edu/1100-behavior-violating-university-standards-and-appropriate-sanctions/>. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, <http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct/>.

Discrimination, sexual assault, and harassment are not tolerated by the university. You are encouraged to report any incidents to the Office of Equity and Diversity <http://equity.usc.edu/> or to the Department of Public Safety <http://capsnet.usc.edu/departments/departments-public-safety/online-forms/contact-us>. This is important for the safety whole USC community. Another member of the university community – such as a friend, classmate, advisor, or faculty member – can help initiate the report, or can initiate the report on behalf of another person. The Center for Women and Men <http://www.usc.edu/student-affairs/cwm/> provides 24/7 confidential support, and the sexual assault resource center webpage sarc@usc.edu describes reporting options and other resources.

XI. SUPPORT SYSTEMS

A number of USC's schools provide support for students who need help with scholarly writing. Check with your advisor or program staff to find out more. Students whose primary language is not English should check with the American Language Institute <http://dornsife.usc.edu/ali>, which sponsors courses and workshops specifically for international graduate students. The Office of Disability Services and Programs http://sait.usc.edu/academicsupport/centerprograms/dsp/home_index.html provides certification for students with disabilities and helps arrange the relevant accommodations. If an officially declared emergency makes travel to campus infeasible, USC Emergency Information <http://emergency.usc.edu/> will provide safety and other updates, including ways in which instruction will be continued by means of blackboard, teleconferencing, and other technology.

XII. STATEMENT ABOUT INCOMPLETES

The Grade of Incomplete (IN) can be assigned only if there is work not completed because of a documented illness or some other emergency occurring after the 12th week of the semester. Students must NOT assume that the instructor will agree to the grade of IN. Removal of the grade of IN must be instituted by the student and agreed to be the instructor and reported on the official "Incomplete Completion Form."

XIII. POLICY ON LATE OR MAKE-UP WORK

Papers are due on the day and time specified. Extensions will be granted only for extenuating circumstances. If the paper is late without permission, the grade will be affected.

XIV. POLICY ON CHANGES TO THE SYLLABUS AND/OR COURSE REQUIREMENTS

It may be necessary to make some adjustments in the syllabus during the semester in order to respond to unforeseen or extenuating circumstances. Adjustments that are made will be communicated to students both verbally and in writing.

XV. CODE OF ETHICS OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF SOCIAL WORKERS

Approved by the 1996 NASW Delegate Assembly and revised by the 2008 NASW Delegate Assembly
[<http://www.socialworkers.org/pubs/Code/code.asp>]

Preamble

The primary mission of the social work profession is to enhance human wellbeing and help meet the basic human needs of all people, with particular attention to the needs and empowerment of people who are vulnerable, oppressed, and living in poverty. A historic and defining feature of social work is the profession's focus on individual wellbeing in a social context and the wellbeing of society. Fundamental to social work is attention to the environmental forces that create, contribute to, and address problems in living.

Social workers promote social justice and social change with and on behalf of clients. "Clients" is used inclusively to refer to individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers are sensitive to cultural and ethnic diversity and strive to end discrimination, oppression, poverty, and other forms of social injustice. These activities may be in the form of direct practice, community organizing, supervision, consultation administration, advocacy, social and political action, policy development and implementation, education, and research and evaluation. Social workers seek to enhance the capacity of people to address their own needs. Social workers also seek to promote the responsiveness of organizations, communities, and other social institutions to individuals' needs and social problems.

The mission of the social work profession is rooted in a set of core values. These core values, embraced by social workers throughout the profession's history, are the foundation of social work's unique purpose and perspective:

- Service
- Social justice
- Dignity and worth of the person
- Importance of human relationships
- Integrity
- Competence

This constellation of core values reflects what is unique to the social work profession. Core values, and the principles that flow from them, must be balanced within the context and complexity of the human experience.

XVI. COMPLAINTS

If you have a complaint or concern about your field experiences or your Field Instructor, please discuss it first with your Field Instructor. If you feel you cannot discuss it with your Field Instructor, please contact your Field Liaison. If you do not receive a satisfactory response or solution, contact Marleen Wong, Assistant Dean of Field Education, at marleenw@usc.edu and/or Associate Dean and MSW Chair Dr. Leslie Wind. Or, if you are a student of the VAC, contact June Wiley, Director of the Virtual Academic Center, at (213) 821-0901 or june.wiley@usc.edu for further guidance.

XVII. TIPS FOR MAXIMIZING YOUR LEARNING EXPERIENCE IN THIS COURSE

- ✓ Be mindful of getting proper nutrition, exercise, rest and sleep!
