Syllabus

Course Objectives

After completing this course, I would like you to understand:

- the differences between the various forms of business entities;
- some of the practical aspects of being a business lawyer; and
- how to read and apply a statute or provision in a contract or governing document

Course Description

This course will examine the laws governing business organizations, with an emphasis on corporations. We will cover agency, partnerships and the structure and function of a corporation.

The subject matter will be taught using the “problem method” to promote a practical understanding of business organizational law. Additionally, students will be required to read and interpret the core statutory provisions that govern each business organization. We will focus on Delaware law, with a secondary focus on other important states.

The course is a four (4) unit course. Grades will be awarded primarily based on an in-class final exam. However, class participation and in-class exercises may be considered as well. Students will be permitted to use computers on the exam. This course may be taken for a grade or CR/D/F.

Business Organizations (Law 603) is a mandatory course for the Business Law Certificate and is a prerequisite or co-requisite for many other business law courses

Required Reading

The casebook is required for this course. The statutory supplement is strongly recommended. You will need to consult statutes on a regular basis, but you can obtain statutory information from sources other than the statutory supplement and print relevant provisions to use for the exam. The statutory supplement will not necessarily have all of the statutes we will cover. One source of the statutory material is the volume listed below. I will post free PDFs of statutes to the course website, and this syllabus contains links to free statutory materials. These books have been ordered by the bookstore.

- Required: Sjostrom, Business Organizations: A Transactional Approach (2nd ed. 2016) (ISBN: 978-1-4548-6838-5)
- Strongly Recommended: Corporations And Other Business Associations Selected Statutes, Rules, And Forms: 2017 Supplement (compiled by Charles R. T. O'Kelley and Robert B. Thompson)
- Optional:
 - Hornbook supplement: Bainbridge, Corporate Law
 - Historical Context
 - Micklethwait & Wooldridge, The Company: A Short History of a Revolutionary Idea (2005)
 - Brands, American Colossus (2011)

The law relating to business entities is frequently determined by statute. Every state has its own “corporate code,” “partnership act,” and “LLC act.” Nevertheless, most states base their statutes on “model acts” that were developed by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. For this reason, we will study the “model acts” that relate to the different forms of business entity. For example, we’ll study the Model Business Corporation Act to learn the rules governing corporations; the Uniform Limited Liability Company Act to learn the general rules relating to LLCs, etc. Specific state acts can be found online, and at some of the sites listed below—you may wish to pay particular attention to the laws of Delaware, California, and New York.

Throughout the casebook, the authors frequently refer to provisions from state statutes and the model acts. You are responsible for reading those provisions. To stress the importance of this point, let me repeat it: Read the statutory provisions referenced in the casebook. This takes some time and effort, but will pay dividends when it comes to (1) your understanding of the law; and (2) your performance on the exam. If you ignore the statutory supplement, you will have a very limited understanding of the law governing business entities (and you probably won’t do very well in this course).

Free versions of many of the statutes may be available online. Some links are provided below. Note that free online resources may be out of date or contain errors, and may not have the official comments. Electronic versions may also be available online through Lexis or Westlaw. You will want to bring print copies of the statutes to class and for the exam.

Course Work & Grading

Your grade in the class will be based primarily on an open book final examination. I will announce the format of the exam during the last week of class.

It is essential that you attempt to read the statutes and answer the questions and complete the exercises in the text, as well as working any supplemental problems I may assign through the course website. The questions and exercises will help you learn the material.

I encourage you to form study groups to work the questions and problems before class. I recommend forming a small study group (2-4 students) and meeting before class to discuss the problems, and at the end of each week to review.

Class Participation & Class Attendance

Class attendance, participation, and preparation are expected. I strongly recommend you attend class every day. I reserve the right to reward exceptional class participation or penalize exceptionally poor class participation in determining the final grade.

During class, you may be connected to the Internet only for purposes related to class. This would include, for example, looking at a court opinion or statute we are discussing or searching for information relevant to a point we are discussing. This does not include, for example, reading the news, e-mailing classmates, or sending instant messages. I very much encourage the use of computers in the classroom and encourage you to be active learners. Like any technology, however, computers can be misused. Please do not let your computer become a distraction to you or your classmates.

Class Cancellations

TBA. Any cancelled classes will be made up.

Office Hours:

I will stay after class to answer any questions. If you cannot meet at the end of class, please email me or contact my assistant to set up an appointment. If you schedule an appointment, I will usually be available to meet on Tuesday or Wednesday afternoons. If it is inconvenient to meet in person, we can also schedule remote office hours by phone or through video conferencing, using Google Hangouts.

We can also schedule group dinners or coffee on class days if students are interested (2 to 4 students per dinner/coffee).

Name Placards and Seating

Please bring a name placard to class and place it in front of you. If you have lost your name placard, you may obtain a free replacement from Shirly Kennedy, skennedy@law.usc.edu. Please keep the back row empty for guests and visitors.

Guest Lectures

There may be guest lectures from USC alumni or others in business law or finance. Students should attend these guest lectures, the same as any other class, and the material may be tested.

Syllabus Revisions

I may post revisions to the syllabus or announce changes in class. Please check the course website regularly!

Class recordings

Class recordings will be available during the semester to students who miss class because of illness, death of a family member or other serious family emergencies, or a job interview that could not be scheduled to avoid missing class. If one of these situations arises, to request the recording please email me, Shirly Kennedy, and IT with the name of the class, the room number, day and times, and the reason for the absence. Class recordings will be made available to all students during the last week of class to be used for exam review purposes.

Thank you very much. I look forward to a great semester together!

USC Statement on Academic Conduct and Support Systems

Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences.
