Syllabus

The goal of this course is to provide a course in family wealth preservation such that students become proficient in the area and are able to spot issues, provide solutions and citations, and explain their reasoning in excellent English prose.

RECOMMENDED PREPARATION: None

COURSE STRUCTURE:

This course is being offered simultaneously as both an on-campus lecture-based course and as an online course. Both courses will have access to the same materials, recordings, exercises, and lectures. Students are asked not to switch sections after the semester has started so that each section may function as a cohesive unit.

Graduate Program Student Learning Outcomes

Below are the five Student Learning Outcomes developed for this program by the USC Leventhal faculty and administration and filed with the AACSB, the accrediting body for accounting and business schools. This course will deal primarily with Outcomes #1 and #2. To a lesser extent, this course will help you meet Learning Outcomes #3, #4 and #5.

1. Technical, Conceptual, Problem-Solving

Students will be competent in and be able to apply discipline-specific knowledge and skills in the fields of accounting or taxation. This learning outcome includes the development of critical thinking and problem-solving skills, as well as an understanding of the strategic role of accounting and taxation in business organizations and society.

- MBT specific—Apply critical thinking and problem-solving skills related to taxation of individuals, flow-through entities, and corporations. Recognize potential opportunities for tax savings and tax planning.

2. Professional Development

Students will be able to communicate clearly and strategically, after considering the relevant audience, situation, and purpose of the communication. Students will demonstrate the ability to work productively with others to accomplish established goals.

- MBT specific—Convert complex and technical tax terminology into language that translates to non-technical audiences. Demonstrate strong interpersonal communication skills that build relationships with clients over time. Document exchanges with careful attention to word choice, tone, and accuracy.

3. Research/Life-Long Learning

Students will be able to use relevant research databases and academic/professional literature to gain new knowledge and analyze business situations.

- MBT specific—Use computer-based and paper-based systems to thoroughly research tax codes, tax law, rulings and interpretations. Use knowledge to be able to adjust to changes in tax law over time.

4. Ethical Principles and Professional Standards

Students will be able to apply ethical principles and professional standards in analyzing situations and making informed decisions.

- MBT specific—Demonstrate understanding of and apply consistently the ethical principles and professional standards related to the profession. Show the ability to express and follow rules of independence and the highest sense of professional ethics.

5. Globalization and Diversity

Students will be able to demonstrate an international perspective and appreciation for diversity and cultural differences, along with their significance in global business.

- MBT specific—Explain key differences in taxing policies related to expatriates and the countries they live and work in. Reflect on cultural and ethnic differences in approaches to business and taxation policies.

GRADES:

Quizzes/Assigned Problems/Written Assignments	20%
Exams	70%
Participation	10%

Total	100%

- Course is taught with the recognition that a tax season does exist which affects a tax practitioner's work load
- No mid-term is planned - only a final
- Actual documents - Will, Living Trust, Insurance Trust - will be used in class for discussion
- Class will consist of lectures and class discussion on the assigned documents

GRADING POLICIES:

This course adheres to the USC Leventhal School of Accounting and Marshall School of Business grading Standards for graduate programs. In general, final course grades at the graduate level in a core course average approximately B+ (3.3) but may vary based on class performance. For elective courses, the class average is usually higher (approximately 3.5), which is between a B+ and an A-. You must receive a C or better to pass a required class, and you must have an overall B average (3.0 minimum) in order to graduate from USC. The graded elements of this course are listed in this syllabus along with information about how they will be evaluated.

1. Participation in class is expected, and students should be present and prepared to engage with the class at the date and time indicated each week in order to earn participation credit for this activity.
2. Exams/quizzes are to be determined. Make up exams/quizzes will be given only if a student has received pre-approval from the instructor or has a doctor's excuse.

RETENTION OF GRADED PAPERS:

Final exams and other graded work that affected the course grade will be kept for one year. Other papers or work that are handed back but that students fail to pick up will be held for one month. Discussion forums and other online work, if any, will be deleted at the end of the course.

ACADEMIC CONDUCT

Students enrolled in any class offered by the Leventhal School of Accounting are expected to uphold and adhere to the standards of academic integrity established by the Leventhal School of Accounting Student Honor Code. Students are responsible for obtaining, reading, and understanding the Honor Code System handbook. Students who are found to have violated the Code will be subject to disciplinary action as described in the handbook. For more specific information, please refer to the Student Honor Code System handbook, available in class or from the receptionist in ACC 101.

Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Part B, Section 11, “Behavior Violating University Standards”

<https://policy.usc.edu/scampus-part-b/>. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, <http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct>.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:

USC is committed to making reasonable accommodations to assist individuals with disabilities in reaching their academic potential. If you have a disability which may impact your performance, attendance, or grades in this course and require accommodations, you must first register with the Office of Disability Services and Programs (www.usc.edu/disability). DSP provides certification for students with disabilities and helps arrange the relevant accommodations. Any student requesting academic accommodations based on a disability is required to register with Disability Services and Programs (DSP) each semester. A letter of verification for approved accommodations can be obtained from DSP. Please be sure the letter is delivered to me (or to your TA) as early in the semester as possible. DSP is located in GFS (Grace Ford Salvatori Hall) 120 and is open 8:30 a.m.–5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. The phone number for DSP is (213) 740-0776. Email: ability@usc.edu.
