Description  This course addresses technology project management from a management perspective, the project manager in particular with a basic exposure to the tasks and challenges which affect most projects. Increasingly, technology is a vital part of the business. Given limited resources, the businesses depend on technology and use of project management in order to accomplish unique outcomes under critical time, budget, and scope of the business constraints. Students will execute a group project in this class, managing major cornerstone tasks using project management tools and methods. This course will provide students the fundamental technology management techniques as well as the behavioral skills to systematically manage projects for all types of projects, be they government, private business, engineering, information technology, or other.

Objectives  The main concentration of this course is to equip students to understand and be focused on maintaining the triple constraint of the project from beginning to end. Students will be exposed to manage the life cycle of project: the initialization, planning, monitoring and controlling, executing as well as the crashing the project, and through successful closure.

At the completion of the course, students will:

- Gain and fine-tune the skills and techniques for the life cycle of a typical project: initiating, planning, executing and closing
- Gain an understanding of essential principles associated with effective project management and how to apply these principles in the day-to-day business environment
- Gain knowledge and know-how with commonly available project management computer software tools
- Gain experience and demonstrate methods for solving and avoiding common difficulties associated with project management

Notable consideration will be given for class participation and behavior.

Project

The class project consists of a group project where project management skills will be exercised. The students will be provided with a project where the elements of project objective and requirement are outlined. Each week will include a lecture on the subject matter and assignment in conjunction with

- A team presentation on a selected project management tool
- A team presentation of PDR at mid-point of semester and CDR at the latter part of the semester

The class project will be graded based on the weekly assignment, group presentation, project report and a 360° group evaluation.

Presentations should be prepared in PowerPoint and should be delivered in time allotted.
Assignment

The assignments will be posted on D2L under the “My Tools > Assignments” module. All assignments will be digitally submitted through D2L except where specifically specified.

All assignments and presentations should be completed with the upmost professionalism. This means that all the homework, project, papers and other materials must be prepared using a word processor, spreadsheet, PowerPoint or any other relevant computer software (e.g. MS Project).

All work shall have cover page with:
1. Your full name
2. Your group member names with last names in alphabetical order
3. Document title and date
4. File name must conform to the following: group# _assignment#.ext (doc, xls. mpp, ppt, etc.)

Policies

No make-up exams (except for documented medical or family emergencies) will be offered. Final projects must be submitted on or before the due date, any late assignments will not be accepted (except for documented medical or family emergencies)

ITP offers open lab use for all students enrolled in ITP classes. These open labs are held beginning the second week of classes through the last week of classes. Hours are listed at http://itp.usc.edu/labs/. The open labs will not have a lab assistant for this specific class. These lab times are there in case you do not have a computer or need extra time to complete an assignment.

ITP reserves the right to record classroom spaces and to use recorded material if necessary for academic integrity cases.

Quote from the USC Guidebook:

“Behavior that persistently or grossly interferes with classroom activities is considered disruptive behavior, and may be subject to disciplinary action. Such behavior inhibits other students’ ability to learn and an instructor’s ability to teach. A student responsible for disruptive behavior may be required to leave class pending discussion and resolution of the problem, and may be reported to the Office of Student Judicial Affairs for disciplinary action.”

Viterbi School of Engineering Honor Code:

“Engineering enables and empowers our ambitions and is integral to our identities. In the Viterbi community, accountability is reflected in all our endeavors.

Engineering + Integrity.
Engineering + Responsibility.
Engineering + Community.
Think good. Do better. Be great.

These are the pillars we stand upon as we address the challenges of society and enrich lives.”
