Communication:

Please make it a habit to use/check your USC E-mail account. Any E-mails I send to the class will use that account. In addition all course materials and class grades will be posted on BlackBoard (https://blackboard.usc.edu/). For example the course syllabus can be found under Course Information and class notes under Course Documentation.
Required Textbook:
Recording Music on Location: Capturing the Live Performance Paperback – May 22, 2014
by Bruce Bartlett (Author), Jenny Bartlett (Author)

Disabilities:
Any student requesting academic accommodations based on a disability is required to register with Disability Services and Programs (DSP) each semester. A letter of verification for approved accommodations can be obtained from DSP. Please be sure the letter is delivered to me as early in the semester as possible. DSP is located in STU 301 and is open 8:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The phone number for DSP is 213/740-0776.

Class Schedule

Final Exam Schedule:
Flights home and vacation plans are not considered valid reasons for scheduling a final early-so, take care when making your plans. This is a University Policy and there are no exceptions

Academic Integrity
Academic Integrity-Students are expected to adhere to the Academic Integrity Guidelines of USC as outlined in the current edition of SCampus. To ensure compliance, all papers and other work submitted for grading will be compared to an extensive database of past papers. Work found to contain plagiarized or uncited passages will be referred to the USC Office of Student Conduct for review. Academic Integrity violations will result in a failing grade for submitted material and for the course, and dismissal from the Music Industry Program for majors and minors.

Class Participation
Attendance in all class sessions will be monitored and will count towards your final grade. If you are not in class you cannot participate. Because of the specialized nature of this subject, attendance and participation are critical for understanding the material and concepts covered in this class. However, missing more than two classes can lower grades proportionately. Missing more than four classes qualifies you to be dropped from the course or you can receive a grade of FAIL. If you cannot attend a class, it is your responsibility to get notes from BlackBoard or a classmate, not me. If an extenuating circumstance arises that forces you to miss more than the allowed classes, contact the instructor immediately.
There is one mandatory recital recording and everyone must attend!

Academic Conduct:
Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Part B, Section 11, “Behavior Violating University Standards” https://policy.usc.edu/scampus-part-b/. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct.

Final Examination Policy for all Fall and Spring Courses Scheduled in Standard Sessions
For courses scheduled in a session that has a final examination week from December 7-14, a final examination or other final summative experience is required during the published final examination week.
Final examinations or other final summative experiences may not be scheduled during the Study Days period.

No deviations from the published examination period are permitted for courses scheduled in a standard session during the fall and spring semesters, unless faculty have authorization in advance from the Committee on Academic Policies and Procedures (CAPP). CAPP will not consider any faculty request for rescheduling a final examination without unanimous written consent of all students in the class. Contact the Registrar’s Office (213-740-4623 or registrar@usc.edu) for the request form and procedures.

Student Scheduling Conflicts
No student is permitted to omit or anticipate a final examination and no instructor is authorized to permit a student to do so.
Students should plan in advance to avoid scheduling conflicts in their final examinations. If a student is scheduled for two final examinations at the same time, the student should request to take one of the examinations on a different day or time. If a student is scheduled for more than two final examinations in one day, the student may request to take one of the exams on a different day or time. In either situation the student must contact the professors involved no later than two weeks prior to the scheduled examination date and request an accommodation. If an accommodation cannot be arranged, the student should contact USC Testing Services at testing@usc.edu or (213) 740-7166 for assistance.
