I. COURSE PREREQUISITES

This is an advanced master’s level Field Education course. Students take this class concurrently with 698a. To participate in this course, students must successfully complete SOWK 589a, SOWK 588, and 589b.

II. CATALOGUE DESCRIPTION

Supervised field placement to develop depth of skill and practice in area of department focus. Graded CR/NC/IP/INC.

III. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is the third semester direct practice portion of the MSW program. It is a collaborative endeavor between the USC School of Social Work and agencies located throughout the world. This advanced course provides students the opportunity to practice social work skills and apply evidence-based interventions (EBIs) in their work with individuals, families, groups, organizations, communities and businesses with higher competency expectations than the first two semesters of the MSW program. Each student receives continual support provided by a Field Faculty Liaison who serves as an educator, consultant and coach for the field education internship experience to emphasize the Four C's of Field Education at USC: 1) collaboration, 2) communication, 3) creativity, and 4) critical thinking. Students utilize critical thinking and creativity through application of EBIs on the micro, mezzo and macro level of practice. Students utilize effective communication techniques in working with clients, agency employees and USC faculty to enhance their professional development as social workers.

In collaboration with the School, agencies provide learning opportunities and resources for an effective educational experience for students. Field Instructors are professional masters' level social workers who guide and teach students how to apply social work practice, values and ethics in a professional setting. Field Instructors also collaborate with students and preceptors, if applicable, to create and approve learning agreements, discuss and give feedback on Reflective Learning Tools, complete and sign end-of-semester evaluations, and ensure paperwork is completed on time.

SCI students will intentionally apply specialized practice coursework concepts, while practicing social work and developing competencies in their specialized area of practice in organizations, business and community settings. AMHW students will intentionally apply specialized practice coursework concepts, while practicing social work and developing competencies in their specialized area of practice in agencies serving adults. CYF students will intentionally apply specialized practice coursework concepts, while practicing social work and developing competencies in their specialized area of practice in agencies serving children, youth and families.

Students are expected to take an active role in their experiences through the use of three core learning processes: self-reflection, interaction, and risk-taking. This teaching method draws on Transformative Learning Theory which asserts that students develop integrative knowledge about self and others in a dynamic, multicultural society from multiple perspectives. A primary goal is to help students understand their own and others' cultural experiences, to challenge their preconceptions and stereotypes, and to develop an attitude of openness and flexibility in cross-cultural interactions.

This course provides an opportunity for School departments to implement research-influenced practices in multidisciplinary settings, thereby, contributing to the direct application of EBIs and influencing the capacity of organizations to provide EBIs. Infusing field education internships with EBIs provides a translational link between research and practice, further solidifying a developing science of social work, and underscores Field Education as the "signature pedagogy" of social work.

At semester end, the Field Faculty Liaison is responsible for assigning students a grade of Credit, In Progress, or No Credit.

IV. COURSE OBJECTIVES

Objective #	Objectives
1	Intentionally integrate AMHW, CYF and SCI classroom theories and specialized concepts with micro, mezzo, and macro social work practice in a variety of community settings that address the effects of poverty, discrimination and oppression; influence changes at the individual, family and group level; and bring about organizational and societal change.
2	Connect the developing science of social work to practice by intentionally applying specific AMHW, CYF and SCI evidence-based interventions (EBIs) through internship placements.
3	Enhance skills across the spectrum of culturally appropriate social work services, may include direct practice skills such as engagement, assessment, goal-setting, intervention, evaluation, and termination; mezzo practice skills such as case management, resource/referral, family work, and support system engagement; and macro practice skills such as community organizing, fund development and grant writing, policy analysis, and program development, implementation, and evaluation.
4	Develop professional use of self through observation of professional social workers, self-reflection, understanding of social work values, and implementation of those values in internship placements.
5	Increase proficiency in the required Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Core Competencies as indicated in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation related to departmental (AMHW, CYF and SCI) specialized behaviors.
6	Intentionally develop and expand effective communication skills demonstrating critical thinking and creativity for intra/interdisciplinary collaboration, service delivery, oral presentation and written documentation within the specialized field education internship setting.

V. COURSE FORMAT / INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS

Field Education is systematically designed, supervised, coordinated, and evaluated based on criteria by which students demonstrate the achievement of program competencies (Brooks, 2010). These competencies are articulated in the CSWE EPAs and make up the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation for field education internship. To prepare students for successfully achieving those competencies, a variety of instructional methods are utilized by both USC Field Faculty and agency Field Instructors.

Instructional methods consist of university-led trainings, activities, and guidance combined with community agency activities under the supervision of a designated Field Instructor, including hands-on interactions with clients, shadowing opportunities, trainings, individual supervision, group supervision, guidance on proper documentation, crisis management responses, didactic instruction, and experiential exercises. Students may also develop a working relationship with site-based employees, known as Preceptors, who help guide them in day-to-day operations and many of the activities listed above.

USC Field Faculty Liaisons are assigned to oversee the progress of the students in their field placements, including consultation for students' field education internship assignments. Working on behalf of the School of Social Work, the Liaisons meet with students as needed to facilitate their placement experiences and schedule Field Instructor and student contacts each semester to ensure the quality of students' learning opportunities. The Liaisons also clarify School expectations and serve as consultant and mediator for student and internship-related conflicts.

Reflective Learning Tools are teaching tools that reflect student interactions with clients, systems that impact clients, and agency or community decision-makers. They also provide opportunities for Field Instructors' input and can influence future interventions. A teaching plan known as the Learning Agreement will be developed and/or revisited collaboratively between students and their Field Instructors. At the end of the first semester, Field Instructors will complete the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation and recommend a grade to the Field Faculty Liaison.

As discussion and participation are an integral part of the learning process, students are expected to prepare for supervision and to come to internship ready to apply the best practices of social work with clients and systems. Internship days are generally on Monday and Wednesday with a half-day on Friday, although some variations may occur. The number of hours required in the field (20 hrs/week) includes at least one eight-hour day.

VI. STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The following table lists the nine Social Work core competencies as defined by the Council on Social Work Education's 2015 Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards:

Social Work Core Competencies
1	Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior
2	Engage in Diversity and Difference in Practice
3	Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice
4	Engage in Practice-informed Research and Research-informed Practice
5	Engage in Policy Practice
6	Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
7	Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
8	Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
9	Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations and Communities

* Highlighted in this course

The following table shows the competencies highlighted in this course, the related course objectives, student learning outcomes, and dimensions of each competency measured. The final column provides the location of course content related to the competency.

Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
1. Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior Social workers practicing in health, behavioral health and integrated care settings understand the value base of the profession and its ethical standards, as well as relevant laws and regulations and shifting societal mores that may affect the therapeutic relationship. Social workers understand frameworks of ethical decision-making and routinely apply strategies of ethical reasoning to arrive at principled decisions. Social workers are able to tolerate ambiguity in resolving ethical conflict. Social workers who work with adults and older adults apply ethical principles to decisions on behalf of all clients with special attention to those who have limited decisional capacity. Social workers recognize and manage personal values and biases as they affect the therapeutic relationship in the service of the client's well-being. They identify and use knowledge of relationship dynamics, including power differentials. Social workers who work with adults and older adults understand the profession's history, its mission, and the roles and responsibilities and readily identify as social workers. They also understand the role of other professionals when engaged in inter-professional teams. Social workers working with adults and older adults recognize the importance of life-long learning and are committed to continually updating their skills to ensure they are relevant and effective. Social workers incorporate ethical approaches to the use of technology in meeting the needs of their clients in health, behavioral health, integrated care, and other settings serving adults and older adults.	4. Develop professional use of self through observation of professional social workers, self-reflection, understanding of social work values, and implementation of those values in internship placements. 5. Increase proficiency in the required Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Core Competencies as indicated in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation. 6. Develop and expand effective communication skills, demonstrating critical thinking and creativity for intra/interdisciplinary collaboration, service delivery, oral presentation and written documentation within the field practicum setting.	a. Understand the value base and ethical standards of the profession, as well as relevant laws and regulations and shifting societal mores that may affect the social worker/client relationship when addressing the mental and physical health and well-being of adults of all ages and their families within agencies, institutions, and communities across various contexts. b. Recognize and manage personal values and biases as they affect the social worker/client relationship in the service of client and family well-being when addressing the mental and physical health and well-being of adults of all ages adults and their families within agencies, institutions, and communities across various contexts. c. Select and use formal or informal written and oral communication as appropriate to clients, families, instructors, interdisciplinary team members, organizations, and community stakeholders. d. Consult and incorporate feedback from clients, instructors, interdisciplinary team members and other stakeholders to enhance practice outcomes that address the mental and physical health and well-being of adults of all ages and their families within agencies, institutions, and communities across various contexts.	Values and Reflection	Units 1-2 Module 1: Orientation Units 3-6 Module 2: Engagement Units 7-9 Module 3: Assessment Units 10-13 Module 4: Intervention Units 14-15 Module 5: Evaluation Assignment #2 Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation Assignment #3 Development of Competencies and Field Hours

Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
2. Engage in Diversity and Difference in Practice Using research, social workers understand how diversity and difference characterize and shape the human experience and are critical to the formation of identity and are able to apply this knowledge to work empathically and effectively with diverse populations. The dimensions of diversity are understood as the intersectionality of multiple factors including but not limited to age, class, color, culture, disability and ability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity and expression, immigration status, marital status, political ideology, race, religion/spirituality, sex, sexual orientation, and tribal sovereign status. Social workers understand that, as a consequence of difference, a person's life experiences may include oppression, poverty, marginalization, and alienation as well as privilege, power and acclaim. Social workers also understand the forms and mechanisms of oppression and discrimination and recognize the extent which a culture's structures and values, including social, economic, political and cultural exclusions may oppress, marginalize, and/or alienate adults and older adults or create privilege and power. Social workers through self-reflection, continue to assess and address their ageist values, building knowledge to dispel myths regarding aging and stereotyping of older persons. Social workers are able to consistently identify and use practitioner/client differences from a strengths perspective. Social workers view themselves as learners and engage those with whom they work as informants.	1. Integrate classroom theories and concepts with social work practice in vulnerable community settings where the effects of poverty, discrimination and oppression are pervasive in an effort to bring about change at individual, community, organizational and societal levels. 3. Enhance skills across the spectrum of culturally appropriate social work services, from engagement to assessment, goal-setting, intervention, evaluation, and termination. 5. Increase proficiency in the required Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Core Competencies as indicated in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation.	a. Recognize and communicate understanding of how diversity and difference characterize and shape human experience and identity for adults of all ages when addressing the mental and physical health and well-being. b. Evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of multiple theoretical perspectives through an intersectionality framework. c. Consistently apply an intersectional framework with individuals, groups and families that considers multiple factors, including age, class, color, culture, disability and ability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity and expression, immigration status, marital status, political ideology, race, religion/spirituality, sex, sexual orientation, and tribal sovereign status when addressing the mental and physical health and well-being of adults of all ages and their families.	Values and Exercise of Judgement	Units 3-6 Module 2: Engagement Units 7-9 Module 3: Assessment Units 10-13 Module 4: Intervention Assignment #2 Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation Assignment #3 Development of Competencies and Field Hours

Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
3. Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice Social workers understand that every individual, regardless of position in society, has fundamental rights such as freedom, safety, privacy, an adequate standard of living, healthcare and education. Social workers understand the global interconnections of oppression and human rights violations, and are knowledgeable about theories of human need, social justice and strategies to promote social and economic justice and human rights. Social workers practicing in health, behavioral health and integrated care settings understand the potentially challenging effects of economic, social and cultural factors in the lives of clients and client systems. They also understand stigma and shame on an individual, community and society-wide basis. Social workers use knowledge of the effects of oppression, discrimination, and historical trauma on client and client systems to guide treatment planning and intervention; and advocate at multiple levels for mental and physical healthcare parity and reduction of disparities for diverse populations.	1. Integrate classroom theories and concepts with social work practice in vulnerable community settings where the effects of poverty, discrimination and oppression are pervasive in an effort to bring about change at individual, community, organizational and societal levels. 5. Increase proficiency in the required Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Core Competencies as indicated in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation.	a. Integrate theory, research, and economic, social and cultural factors when engaging in advocacy strategies to promote social justice, economic justice, and human rights for adults of all ages and their families. b. Use advocacy and policy analysis skills to inform advocacy efforts at multiple levels for mental and physical healthcare parity and reduction of parity and disparities for diverse populations. c. 4. Engage in Practice-informed Research and Research-informed Practice Social workers practicing in health, behavioral health, and integrated care settings understand quantitative and qualitative research methods and their respective roles in advancing a science of social work and in evaluating their practice. Social workers know the principles of logic, scientific inquiry, and culturally informed and ethical approaches to building knowledge. Social workers understand that evidence that informs practice derives from multi-disciplinary sources and multiple ways of knowing. Social workers use the evidence-based practice process in clinical assessment and intervention with clients. Social workers use research methodology to evaluate practice effectiveness and/or outcomes. They also understand the processes for translating research findings into effective practice and participate in the generation of new clinical knowledge through research and practice.	2. Connect behavioral science to practice by learning and applying evidence-based interventions (EBIs) in internship placements.	a. Critically assess the range of information and research regarding effective practices with individuals, groups and families in when addressing the mental and physical health and well-being of adults of all ages and their families. b. Critically assess the range of information based on research for the development of evidence informed decision-making for effective clinical practice. c. Gather, translate and utilize existing research evidence to bridge the gap between research and practice. d. Identify and apply relevant evidence informed practices when on addressing the mental and physical health and well-being of adults of all ages and their families.	Critical Thinking and Skills	Units 7-9 Module 3: Assessment Units 10-13 Module 4: Intervention Assignment #2 Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation Assignment #3 Development of Competencies and Field Hours

5. Engage in Policy Practice Social workers practicing in health, behavioral health and integrated care settings recognize the connection between clients, practice, and both public and organizational policy. They understand that human rights and social justice, as well as social welfare and services are mediated by policy and its implementation at the federal, state, and local levels. Social workers have knowledge of advocacy methods that contribute to the development, implementation and improvement of social policies that support persons throughout the lifespan. Social workers recognize and understand the historical, social, cultural, economic, organizational, environmental, and global influences that affect social policy as well as have knowledge about factors that influence the development of legislation, policies, program services, and funding at all system levels.	5. Increase proficiency in the required Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Core Competencies as indicated in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation. 6. Develop and expand effective communication skills, demonstrating critical thinking and creativity for intra/interdisciplinary collaboration, service delivery, oral presentation and written documentation within the field practicum setting.	a. Use their understanding of how policy informs practice and how practice informs policy at organizational, community and legislative levels to engage in advocacy when developing, implementing and improving social policies that support persons throughout the lifespan. b. Demonstrate an understanding of how agencies and social welfare policies affect access to and delivery of services related to the mental and physical health and well-being of adults of all ages and their families. c. Use policy advocacy strategies and actions to engage in policy analysis and policy proposal writing in health, behavioral health, and integrated care contexts. d. Advocate for adults of all ages and their families within agencies, institutions, and communities for social welfare policies that positively impact mental and physical health and overall well-being.	Knowledge and Skills	Units 10-13 Module 4: Intervention Assignment #3 Development of Competencies and Field Hours

6. Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities Social workers in health, behavioral health and integrated care settings value and understand the primacy of relationships in the engagement process. Social workers practicing with adults and older adults understand that engagement involves the dynamic, interactive, and reciprocal processes. Social workers understand theories of human behavior and the social environment, and critically evaluate and apply this knowledge along with knowledge of practice theories (models, strategies, techniques, and approaches) to facilitate engagement with individuals, families and groups. Social workers understand strategies to engage diverse clients and constituencies to advance practice effectiveness. Social workers understand how their personal experiences and affective reactions may impact their ability to effectively engage with diverse clients and constituencies.	3. Enhance skills across the spectrum of culturally appropriate social work services, from engagement to assessment, goal-setting, intervention, evaluation, and termination.	a. Recognize the primacy of the relationship when engaging with others adults of all ages and their families integrated care settings related to their mental and physical health and well-being. b. Use empathy and other interpersonal skills to engage and intervene with adults of all ages and their families using evidence-based interventions that address mental and physical health and well-being.	Values and Affective Reaction	Units 3-6 Module 2: Engagement Assignment #1 Learning Agreement Assignment #2 Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation Assignment #3 Development of Competencies and Field Hours

8. Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities Social workers understand that intervention is an ongoing component of the dynamic and interactive process of social work practice with and on behalf of diverse individuals, families and groups in health, behavioral health and integrated care settings. Social workers working with adults and older adults identify issues related to losses, changes, and transitions over their life cycle in designing intervention. Social workers understand methods of identifying, analyzing, modifying and implementing evidence-informed interventions to achieve client goals, taking into account influences such as cultural preferences, strengths and desires. Social workers in working with adults and older adults value and readily negotiate, mediate, and advocate for clients. Social workers value the importance of inter- professional teamwork and communication in interventions, recognizing that beneficial outcomes may require interdisciplinary, inter-professional, and inter-organizational collaboration.	2. Connect behavioral science to practice by learning and applying evidence-based interventions (EBIs) in internship placements. 3. Enhance skills across the spectrum of culturally appropriate social work services, from engagement to assessment, goal-setting, intervention, evaluation, and termination.	a. Skillfully choose and implement culturally competent interventions to achieve practice goals and enhance capacities of clients. b. Are self-reflective in understanding transference and countertransference in client interactions as well as practice self-care in the face of disturbing personal reactions. c. Utilize self-reflection in order to enhance the working relationship with adults of all ages, families, groups, organizations, and communities to address mental and physical health and well-being. d. Practice self-care to enhance the applications of interventions with adults of all ages, families, groups, organizations, and communities that address mental and physical health and well-being. Utilize inter-professional and inter-organizational collaboration to improve client outcomes for adults of all ages and their families.	Exercise of Judgment and Reflection	Units 10-13 Module 4: Intervention Assignment #2 Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation Assignment #3 Development of Competencies and Field Hours

9. Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations and Communities Social workers practicing in health, behavioral health and integrated care settings understand that evaluation is an ongoing component of the dynamic and interactive process of social work practice with and on behalf of diverse individuals, families, and groups. Social workers understand theories of human behavior and the social environment, and critically evaluate and apply this knowledge in evaluating outcomes. Social workers continually use clinical evaluation of their processes and/or outcomes to develop best practice interventions for a range of bio-psycho-social-spiritual conditions. Social workers working with adults and older adults strive to contribute to the theoretical knowledge base of the social work profession through practice-based research.	3. Enhance skills across the spectrum of culturally appropriate social work services, from engagement to assessment, goal-setting, intervention, evaluation, and termination.	a. Choose appropriate prevention targets for their clients and provide education on how clients can integrate prevention into their lifestyles. b. Use clinical evaluation in monitoring outcomes of intervention. c. Consistently monitor intervention outcomes to improve mental and physical health and well-being of adults of all ages, families and groups. d. Critically evaluate and use intervention outcomes data to guide further practice related to the mental and physical health and well-being of adults of all ages and their families within agencies, institutions, and communities across various contexts.	Critical Thinking and Skills	Units 14-15 Module 5: Evaluation Assignment #2 Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation Assignment #3 Development of Competencies and Field Hours

VII. COURSE ASSIGNMENTS, DUE DATES & GRADING

Assignment	Due Date	% of Final Grade
1. Learning Agreement	Unit 5	35%
2a. Ten Reflective Learning Tools	Weekly	30% (50% completed by week 9)
2b. Field Documentation	Unit 15
3. Development of Competencies and Field Hours	Unit 15	35%

*All field hours must be completed to pass this course. In order for students to receive credit (CR) they need to receive a minimum of 83% on assignments and must complete required field hours. (Partial credit for this requirement will not be given.)

Each of the major assignments is described below.

Assignment 1: Learning Agreement

On the ground (OTG) students: Review education goals in the Learning Agreement and revise to incorporate department-specific competencies through collaboration with your Field Instructor and Preceptor (if applicable). Submit confirmation of review form to the Field Faculty Liaison.

VAC students: Complete and ensure that the Learning Agreement portion of the Three Semester Learning Agreement and Comprehensive Skills Evaluation form is submitted to the Field Faculty Instructor/ Field Liaison. Completed in collaboration with the Field Instructor/ Preceptor (if applicable)/Field Liaison, the Learning Agreement requires the student to:

- Describe the agency and the community
- Develop a time management plan
- Clarify Field Education assignments
- Assess self-awareness
- Address expectations for supervision with Field Instructor
- Ensure that the Field Instructor teaching plan is filled out by Field Instructor
- Complete, sign and date the Orientation Checklist
- Develop learning activities for the Core Competencies (in collaboration with Field Instructor)
- Sign and date the agreement

Due: Unit 5

This assignment relates to student learning outcome 6.

Assignment 2a/b: Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation

Complete and submit weekly Reflective Learning Tools (RLT) (a minimum of 10/semester) to the Field Instructor. The Reflective Learning Tool Log needs to be completed on a regular basis and signed by the Field Instructor as verification that the requirements have been met. There are multiple Reflective Learning Tool forms to include:

- Individual
- Group
- Educational Meeting
- Macro Focused

For OTG students, the RLT Log needs to be completed on a regular basis and signed as verification that the requirements have been met. The log is due on the last date of field.

For VAC students, the Field Practicum Log needs to be signed by the agency field instructor or preceptor (if applicable) during weekly supervision to document the number of field hours completed and to verify that RLTs were completed and reviewed. The log is due weekly and uploaded to the LMS platform.

Due 2a: Reflective Learning Tools are due weekly to the Field Instructor and the signed Reflective Learning Tool Log. Field Liaison will do a monthly check-in with student reviewing Reflective Learning Tool Log.

Due 2b: Unit 15 – Reflective Learning Tool Log is due Field Liaison

This assignment relates to student learning outcomes 1-4 and 6-9..

Assignment 3: Development of Competencies and Field Hours

For Credit in this assignment, students will:

- Demonstrate advanced skills in the CSWE Core Competencies as listed in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation portion of the Learning Agreement and Comprehensive Skills Evaluation.
- Complete a self-assessment (suggested activity) by rating themselves on the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation and submitting it to the Field Instructor.
- Review and discuss the semester Evaluation completed by the Field Instructor, who makes the grade recommendation. If satisfied that the content accurately reflects progress, students sign in the space indicated.*
- Ensure that the completed Evaluation is submitted electronically to the Field Liaison.
- Complete required number of Field placement hours (20/week). **

Due: Student and Field Instructor will complete the Mid-Year Evaluation and submit electronically along with the signed Reflective Learning Tool Log to Field Liaison by Unit 15.

This assignment relates to student learning outcomes 1-9..

If there are issues that are unresolved, discuss with your Field Instructor and, if needed, contact your Field Liaison.*

Required hours in field education internship for the semester include a minimum of four hours of Department Immersion, with the remaining hours gained at the field placement. Students will not receive a Credit in this course if they do not complete the required hours. If discussed in advance and arranged with the Field Instructor, students are allowed eight (8) hours per semester for religious holidays. Students may take the equivalent of one eight (8) hour sick day per semester as long as they notify the Field Instructor in a timely manner. Make-up hours for time missed must also be discussed with the Field Instructor. Any attendance issues that arise should be addressed with the student's Field Liaison. Record keeping of required field hours is a joint responsibility of the student and the Field Instructor. To the fullest extent possible, students are expected to observe the site attendance and time schedule policies. However, Advanced Applied Learning in Field Education is a class and students must adhere to the course start and end dates as well as important Field Education activities and events in the USC Field Calendar. If the site is closed on a non-University holiday, the student is expected to make up this time.*

Course grades will be based on the following:

*All field hours must be completed to pass this course. In order for students to receive credit (CR) they need to receive a minimum of 83% on assignments and must complete required field hours. (Partial credit for this requirement will not be given.)

Assignment Grades		Final Grade
Credit	83% or above	Credit	83% or above
No Credit	82% or below	No Credit	82% or below

Recommended readings are available online through electronic reserve (ARES) or through the links provided in the unit descriptions.

Course Overview Course Schedule—Detailed Description

Guidelines for SOWK 699a: Advanced Applied Learning in Field Education

The USC School of Social Work places MSW students in thousands of internships nationally and internationally in a variety of different settings: health, mental health, public child welfare, schools, in-person or virtual, etc. This syllabus serves as a general set of expectations for our students and their instructors. However, given the challenges of standardizing direct social work practice, a variety of experiences within these guidelines is expected. Therefore, all stakeholders involved in field education activities should view this document as best practice guidelines.

University Policies and Guidelines

VI. ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to attend every class and to remain in class for the duration of the unit. Failure to attend class or arriving late may impact your ability to achieve course objectives which could affect your course grade. Students are expected to notify the instructor by email (heit@usc.edu) of any anticipated absence or reason for tardiness.

University of Southern California policy permits students to be excused from class for the observance of religious holy days. This policy also covers scheduled final examinations which conflict with students' observance of a holy day. Students must make arrangements in advance to complete class work which will be missed, or to reschedule an examination, due to holy days observance.

Please refer to Scampus and to the USC School of Social Work Student Handbook for additional information on attendance policies.

VII. ACADEMIC CONDUCT

Plagiarism – presenting someone else's ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Part B, Section 11, "Behavior Violating University Standards" <https://policy.usc.edu/scampus-part-b/>. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, <http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct>.

IX. STATEMENT ABOUT INCOMPLETES

The Grade of Incomplete (IN) can be assigned only if there is work not completed because of a documented illness or some other emergency occurring after the 12th week of the semester. Students must NOT assume that the instructor will agree to the grade of IN. Removal of the grade of IN must be instituted by the student and agreed to be the instructor and reported on the official “Incomplete Completion Form.”

X. POLICY ON LATE OR MAKE-UP WORK

Papers are due on the day and time specified. Extensions will be granted only for extenuating circumstances. If the paper is late without permission, the grade will be affected.

XI. POLICY ON CHANGES TO THE SYLLABUS AND/OR COURSE REQUIREMENTS

It may be necessary to make some adjustments in the syllabus during the semester in order to respond to unforeseen or extenuating circumstances. Adjustments that are made will be communicated to students both verbally and in writing.

XII. CODE OF ETHICS OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF SOCIAL WORKERS (OPTIONAL)

Approved by the 1996 NASW Delegate Assembly and revised by the 2008 NASW Delegate Assembly [http://www.socialworkers.org/pubs/Code/code.asp]

Preamble

The primary mission of the social work profession is to enhance human wellbeing and help meet the basic human needs of all people, with particular attention to the needs and empowerment of people who are vulnerable, oppressed, and living in poverty. A historic and defining feature of social work is the profession's focus on individual wellbeing in a social context and the wellbeing of society. Fundamental to social work is attention to the environmental forces that create, contribute to, and address problems in living.

Social workers promote social justice and social change with and on behalf of clients. "Clients" is used inclusively to refer to individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers are sensitive to cultural and ethnic diversity and strive to end discrimination, oppression, poverty, and other forms of social injustice. These activities may be in the form of direct practice, community organizing, supervision, consultation administration, advocacy, social and political action, policy development and implementation, education, and research and evaluation. Social workers seek to enhance the capacity of people to address their own needs. Social workers also seek to promote the responsiveness of organizations, communities, and other social institutions to individuals' needs and social problems.

The mission of the social work profession is rooted in a set of core values. These core values, embraced by social workers throughout the profession's history, are the foundation of social work's unique purpose and perspective:

- Service
- Social justice
- Dignity and worth of the person
- Importance of human relationships
- Integrity
- Competence

This constellation of core values reflects what is unique to the social work profession. Core values, and the principles that flow from them, must be balanced within the context and complexity of the human experience.

XIII. COMPLAINTS

If you have a complaint or concern about the course or the instructor, please discuss it first with the instructor. If you feel cannot discuss it with the instructor, contact the 699a Lead Instructor (VAC students contact vacfield@usc.edu and Ground students contact sswfield@usc.edu for the Lead Instructor's contact information). If you do not receive a satisfactory response or solution, contact Senior Associate Dean Dr. Marleen Wong and MSW Chair Dr. Leslie Wind for further guidance.

XIV. TIPS FOR MAXIMIZING YOUR LEARNING EXPERIENCE IN THIS COURSE (OPTIONAL)

- ✓ Be mindful of getting proper nutrition, exercise, rest and sleep!
- ✓ Come to class.
- ✓ Complete required readings and assignments BEFORE coming to class.
- ✓ BEFORE coming to class, review the materials from the previous Unit AND the current Unit, AND scan the topics to be covered in the next Unit.
- ✓ Come to class prepared to ask any questions you might have.
- ✓ Participate in class discussions.
- ✓ AFTER you leave class, review the materials assigned for that Unit again, along with your notes from that Unit.
- ✓ If you don't understand something, ask questions! Ask questions in class, during office hours, and/or through email!
- ✓ Keep up with the assigned readings.

Don't procrastinate or postpone working on assignments.
