

CTCS 587: Seminar in Television Theory

Dr.
Aniko
Imre

SCB 104

Tuesdays,
10:00am-
1:50pm

This course surveys the major theoretical and critical approaches to the study of television and its visual, dramatic and social conventions, with special attention to the historical development of TV genres; a comparison of network and post-network TV; audience subcultures, and industrial, technological and labor developments in contemporary TV production.