COURSE SUMMARY

This is a 15-week course in Directing the Comedy Sketch Show using the techniques of live multi camera television. Sketches are written by the writing class and acted by the acting class, same for the short comedic pre-shot interstitial films. The Sketch Comedy class will work with Trojan Vision students to create 3 live shows to air on Friday evenings in front of a live audience. Directors will be assigned sketches each week and will rehearse sketches with actors. Sketches will be shown at the end of class for review and critique. Directors will work with actors as well as collaborate with the writers. Students will learn the role of the director through prep, sketch/script analysis, production meetings, rehearsals and run thrus. Students are responsible for finalizing the details for each sketch in the live show including set design, set placement in studio, graphics, roll-ins for film shorts, props, costumes, and make-up. The directorial role as production team leader and visionary is emphasized.

INTERSTITIALS - Directors will also create at least one interstitial for the show to be assigned by the instructor.

PRE-REQUISITES

Although enrollment in 464 is open, suggested preparation includes CTPR 371, CTPR 523, CTPR 476, CTPR 484, participation in Trojan Vision or outside television production training or experience. Preference for admission may be given to students who have such preparation.

Instructors Statement

This is a fast paced class. The ability to communicate with actors and work a scene quickly to it's comedic best is essential. Translating the scene through a multi camera format is the unique opportunity this class offers! When 9pm hits, we go LIVE. Anything can and WILL happen despite our prep and rehearsal. It is the excitement of live TV in front of a live studio audience. No reshoot, or pick ups!! There is not another production class like it!

Class Philosophy

If you can collaborate and execute your directoral ability Live, you can do any genre or format in the world of TV production. Hands on learning by doing in a collaborative professional atmosphere. High level of enthusiasm, adrenaline and quick thinking is required

Production Division Attendance Policy

Students are expected to be on time and prepared for each class. Two unexcused absences will result in a student's grade being lowered by one full letter (IE: A becomes B). A third unexcused absence will result in a student's grade being lowered by one, additional full letter (IE: B becomes C). A student's grade will be lowered by one full letter for each additional unexcused absence. Two late class arrivals equate to one full absence.

In order for an absence to be excused, the student must have approval from the professor and provide documentation at the next attended class session.

If a student misses class due to an emergency, the student must contact the professor prior to class or contact the Production Office at 213-740-3317.

Late Arrival:

15 minutes late constitutes an official late arrival. In cases where petty tardiness - i.e. of less than 15 minutes becomes chronic, I will give one "warning", and then I will assign penalties. Your SA will keep track of late arrivals.

Cell phones, tablets, lap tops:

I do not permit the use of cell phones on my professional sets, except in emergencies or usage directly related to the production or permissible promotion of the product.

I hold that same standard in my classroom. Cell phone usage during class is disrespectful to me, your fellow classmates, and the professional standards you are all striving for. If you use any of your devices for note taking or taking video of scenes, please inform me ahead of time. Violation of this policy is subject to a discretionary 5 point grade deduction.

Unforeseen Circumstances:

If you have life problems or circumstances that might affect your work, please let me know in advance. I want to be understanding and helpful if I can. See me to make arrangements for deadline extensions.

Grading Feedback:

You may ask me for feedback about how you are doing at any time. If I notice that a student is at risk of falling below a B, I will reach out and bring this to the student's attention.

Be aware, however, that the majority of grade value is earned after mid-semester. This can make it difficult for me to give precise warnings early on. I urge you to take responsibility for your work and your grade and stay on top of things.

Safety:

All students are expected to abide by USC School of Cinematic Arts Safety Guidelines. Violations of any of the safety guidelines may result in disciplinary action ranging from confiscation of footage to expulsion from the University.

Students with Disabilities:

Students requesting academic accommodations based on a disability are required to register with Disability Services and Programs (DSP) each semester. A letter of verification for approved accommodations can be obtained from DSP. Please be sure the letter is delivered to the Instructor as early in the semester as possible. DSP is open Monday-Friday, 8:30 am to 5:00 pm. The office is in Student Union 301, and their phone number is (213)740-0776.
