Course Objective:
Our objective is to write a feature film draft and rewrite that will make you proud.

Course Description:
This is a workshop in which we will learn as much from each other as from individual work. Discussion of each other's work is a vital part of class, so part of your homework each week will be reading each other's outlines and treatments. Preparation is essential to productive class time.

You will turn your outlines from 206a into a film script. We will also pay attention to our internal processes as you write.

Course Reading:
"The War of Art" by Steven Pressfield

WRITE!: FIND THE TRUTH IN YOUR FICTION" by Gerald DiPego

Grading Criteria:
Students will present their work in class or email written work no later than 6pm on each Tuesday. This allows time for professor and classmates to read the work before the classes on Thursdays. Late work will be penalized in grading.

Expectation of Professionalism:
We will be using the web app https://zoodiker.com/ to submit and view each others work, which will be explained in the first class. All material is expected to be turned in on time and in the proper format. Outlines and treatments should be submitted as PDFs on https://zoodiker.com and in PDF or FDX (Final Draft) format for script pages. A backup submission should be made via email in case of technical problems.

Assignments may be penalized for grammatical mistakes, spelling errors, format mistakes, and typos. We have an expectation of professionalism, and such errors are distracting to the reader. Please proof your assignment prior to submission. Spell check is the first step, but will not catch all errors. The best proofreading is to read your work aloud, even to yourself.

Writing Division Attendance Policy:
Students are expected to be on time and prepared for each class. Two unexcused absences will result in your grade being lowered by one full point (ex: A to a (A-)). A third unexcused absence will result in your grade being lowered another full point (ex: B to a (B-)). Your grade will be lowered by one point for every absence after. Two late arrivals equates to one full absence.

In order for absence to be excused the student must have approval from the professor and provide documentation at the next attended class session.

Please note that if you are a Writing for Screen and Television major/minor you must receive a grade of a C or better in order to receive degree credit. If you have any questions about the minimum grade required for credit please check with your home department.

If you have an emergency and must miss class please contact your professor prior to class or contact the Writing Division at 213-740-3303.

Laptop and Cell Phone Policy:
Students should bring a laptop (if available) to class for work on in-class exercises. No web surfing, checking email or texts during class unless specifically asked to do so. Legible printing on a lined pad is acceptable for in-class work. Laptops will be opened only for specific in-class purposes. Cell phones should be off or silenced and kept out of sight during class time unless specifically cleared by the professor prior to class.

Class Schedule:

Writing Division: Curriculum: Syllabus: Syllabus Template.doc
Please note that all dates, assignments and subjects are subject to change at the discretion of the professor. It may be necessary to split the class into two groups in order to have time for full discussion of all stories.

YOU ARE EXPECTED TO READ EACH OTHERS’ MATERIAL FOR EVERY CLASS.
