I. COURSE PREREQUISITES:

SOWK 506, SOWK 536, SOWK 544, AND SOWK 546

II. CATALOGUE DESCRIPTION

This course focuses on developing research and evaluation skills, critical analysis in understanding different types of data, and utilizing data information systems to inform decision making and improve effectiveness of social work practice in community, organization, and business environments.

III. COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course is designed to provide students with the skills necessary to critically analyze and apply research evidence to inform and enhance social work practice within community, organization and business environments. Specifically, students will develop skills in: 1) collecting data to not only determine if something worked, but more importantly, know what works, for whom, and under what conditions; 2) systematically analyzing various types of data (e.g., empirical data, databases, technical reports) to conduct rigorous program evaluations; 3) identifying and utilizing research based assessments; and 4) developing evidence to inform decision-making and enhance the impact of social work practice.

IV. COURSE OBJECTIVES

The Research and Evaluation for Social Change and Innovation course (SOWK 629) will focus on the following objectives:

#	Objective
1	Create a learning environment that provides opportunities to increase awareness of how scientific research and social work practice are interdependent and serve as a basis for enhancing students' professional identity as social workers.
2	Provide instruction in the practices of professional social work, basic research methods and data analysis in order to prepare students to conduct an organization data analysis, needs assessment, and program evaluation.
3	Prepare students to critically assess the quality and utility of evidenced-based practices.
4	Emphasize the utilization of publicly available databases so that students are able to access basic research evidence to inform practice-based questions and communicate this information to organizational leaders and key stakeholders.
5	Prepare students to engage in the process of evidence-informed decision-making to enhance the effectiveness of their social work practice. This includes the identification and critical evaluation of assessments, conceptual frameworks and evidence-based interventions. Emphasis will be placed on context and diversity, as well as ethical and political considerations of how research evidence is developed and may affect decision-making.

V. COURSE FORMAT / INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS

Delivery of this course will be learner-centered. As such, students' field and class experiences will be geared towards discovery through applied learning. The learning experience will include lectures, class discussions, case studies/guest speakers, presentations and small group activities. For the majority of the assignments, students will be grouped based on similar areas of interest and/or service settings (e.g., community, organization, business environments). Group members will develop a workplan and have shared responsibility for the completion of the assignments and exercises. Peer evaluations will be requested by the instructor; the format of these peer evaluations are at the instructor's discretion. Reports, research studies, readings, and web-based materials from the field will be used to illustrate key concepts and provide an integration of theory into practice. Through group interactions, students will gradually assume more independent responsibilities for their learning, while the role of the instructor will shift toward that of a facilitator.

The learning environment will be supported by the University's Blackboard Learning Management System. It will facilitate student learning, communication and interaction, as well as access to instructor. All assignments should be posted to the Blackboard LMS.

VI. STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The following table lists the nine Social Work core competencies as defined by the Council on Social Work Education’s 2015 Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards:

Social Work Core Competencies
1	Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior
2	Engage in Diversity and Difference in Practice
3	Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice
4	Engage in Practice-informed Research and Research-informed Practice
5	Engage in Policy Practice
6	Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
7	Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities*
8	Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
9	Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations and Communities*

* Highlighted in this course

See https://www.cswe.org/getattachment/Accreditation/Accreditation-Process/2015-EPAS/2015EPAS_Web_FINAL.pdf.aspx for additional details about the CSWE Competencies. The following tables shows the detailed competencies highlighted in this course, the related course objectives, student learning outcomes, and dimensions of each competency measured. The final column provides the location of course content and assessments related to the competency.

Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
Competency 7: Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities Social workers understand that assessment is an ongoing component of the dynamic and interactive process of social work practice with, and on behalf of, diverse communities, organizations, and businesses. Social workers understand and utilize theoretical and culturally relevant frameworks in the assessment of diverse community, organization, and business environments. Social workers recognize and value the importance of inter-professional collaboration in this process. Social workers are mindful of how their personal experiences, affective reactions, and biases may affect their assessment and decision-making.	3. Prepare students to critically assess the quality and utility of evidenced-based practices. 4. Emphasize the utilization of publicly available databases so that students are able to access basic research evidence to inform practice-based questions and communicate this information to organizational leaders and key stakeholders 5. Prepare students to engage in the process of evidence-informed decision-making to enhance the effectiveness of their social work practice. This includes the identification and critical evaluation of assessments, conceptual frameworks and evidence-based interventions. Emphasis will be placed on context and diversity, as well as ethical and political considerations of how research evidence is developed and may affect decision-making.	7b. Based upon knowledge of human and organizational behaviors, develop mutually agreed-upon intervention goals and objectives.	Skills	Unit 3: Types of Evaluations Unit 6: Data Collection Processes Unit 11: Using Data for Capacity Building Unit 12: Knowledge Transfer in Social Work Assignment 3: Process or Outcome Evaluation

Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
Competency 9: Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities Social workers understand that evaluation is an ongoing component of the dynamic and interactive process of social work practice with, and on behalf of, diverse individuals, groups, communities and organizations locally and globally. Social workers recognize the importance of evaluating processes and outcomes to advance practice, policy, and service delivery systems, as well as to inform their decision-making. Social workers use their knowledge of qualitative and quantitative methods to evaluate programs in community, organization, and business environments.	3. Prepare students to critically assess the quality and utility of evidenced-based practices. 4. Emphasize the utilization of publicly available databases so that students are able to access basic research evidence to inform practice-based questions and communicate this information to organizational leaders and key stakeholders 5. Prepare students to engage in the process of evidence-informed decision-making to enhance the effectiveness of their social work practice. This includes the identification and critical evaluation of assessments, conceptual frameworks and evidence-based interventions. Emphasis will be placed on context and diversity, as well as ethical and political considerations of how research evidence is developed and may affect decision-making.	9a. Apply critical thinking to design a systematic process of collecting useful, ethical, culturally sensitive, valid and reliable data about programs and outcomes that aid in case level and program level decision making. 9b. Critically analyze, monitor, and evaluate evidence-based interventions to improve policy, practice, and delivery systems.	Cognitive and Affective Processes	Unit 2: Building on the Science of Social Work Research Unit 4: Introduction to the Evaluation Toolkit Unit 5: Trends and Innovations in Data Driven Decision Making Unit 7: Making Decisions with Data Unit 8: Designing a Process Evaluation Plan Units 9 & 10: Designing an Outcome Evaluation Plan Units 14 -15: Presentations Assignment 3: Team & Agency Presentations

VII. COURSE ASSIGNMENTS, DUE DATES & GRADING

Assignment	Due Date	% Of Final Grade
Assignment 1: Analysis of Evaluation Study	Unit 4	20%
Assignment 2: Organizational Data Analysis	Unit 8	20%
Assignment 3: Outcome Evaluation	Unit 14	30%
Assignment 4: Agency Presentations	By Unit 15	20%
Meaningful Class Participation	Ongoing	10%

Assignments 2 - 4, described below, will be based on a semester-long, group project. Each consultant team will have no more than 4 students that focus on the organizational context, and as partners, will work with the same collaborating community based agency (assigned in SOWK 648). Collaborating agencies are selected each semester based on submitted proposals and a selection and orientation process. Agencies have a clear understanding of course requirements and deliverables.

Assignment 1: Analysis of an Evaluation Study (20% of Course Grade)

In this assignment, each individual student will submit a 4 to 6 page paper that describes and analyzes the research methodology of the following evaluation study:

Leake, R., Marquez, C., Vandeburg, J., Guillaume, S., & Gardner, V.A. (2007).

Evaluating the capacity of faith-based programs in Colorado. Research on Social Work Practice, 17, 216-228. doi.org/10.1177/1049731506296408

Due: Unit 4

Details of the assignment are provided in a separate document.

Assignments 2 – 4: Agency Consultancy Projects

Assignment 2, 3 and 4 will be conducted by the assigned group (assigned in SOWK 648), and will focus on a collaborating community based agency. For these group assignments, 75% of each student’s grade will be determined by the grade assigned by the instructor for the group’s response to the assignment (the written document and/or presentation). A separate individual score worth 25% of the overall grade will be based on the Peer Participation Rubric (provided by the instructor) and faculty observation of the groups’ collaborative process. All students must participate and contribute to the development and completion of the group assignments based on Work Plans agreed upon by the group. It is part of the groups’ responsibility to manage the group process and output, and, to request assistance from the instructor when needed.

Assignment 2: Organizational Data Analysis (20% of Course Grade)

In a 3 – 5 page paper, this assignment requires students to analyze: 1) an organization’s data environment; 2) the data collection and storage processes that are used by the organization; and 2) how data influences the organization, and informs data-driven decision-making. More details are provided in a separate document.

Due: Unit 8

Assignment 3: Outcome Evaluation (30% of Course Grade)

Building upon the previous two assignments, each team will prepare a plan for or implement an outcome evaluation that examines how well a program delivers services, and what administrative mechanisms exist within the program and agency that support the services it offers. More details on this assignment are provided in a separate document and in class.

Due: Unit 14

Assignment 4: Team Presentation (20% of Course Grade)

Teams will create a presentation for their partner agency. The presentation will include an evaluation or evaluation plan and key recommendations. Content will build upon their previous assignments in SOWK 629 and SOWK 648. Students will receive one grade for Assignment 4, determined jointly by both instructors.

Presentation:

- Approximately 30 minutes.
- PowerPoint or other presentation software.
- Content will include: introduction and background, methodology, findings, recommendations, and a conclusion.
- Each student must play a role in the live presentation.
- An electronic copy of the presentation must be provided to instructors and the partner agency.

Meaningful Class Participation (10% of Course Grade)

Students are expected to come to class prepared, contribute to the development of a positive learning environment, and demonstrate their learning through written and oral assignments and through active, oral class participation. Contributions should consist of meaningful, thoughtful, and respectful participation based on having completed required and independent readings and assignments prior to class.

Students are also expected to complete assignments on or before the due date and notify the instructor if they are having difficulty comprehending the course material or keeping up with the assignments. Failure to meet these expectations will result in the reduction of grades.

Class grades will be based on the following:

Class Grades		Final Grade
3.85 – 4	A	93 – 100	A
3.60 – 3.84	A-	90 – 92	A-
3.25 – 3.59	B+	87 – 89	B+
2.90 – 3.24	B	83 – 86	B
2.60 – 2.89	B-	80 – 82	B-
2.25 – 2.59	C+	77 – 79	C+
1.90 – 2.24	C	73 – 76	C
		70 – 72	C-

Within the USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work, grades are determined in each class based on the following standards, which have been established by the faculty of the School:

Grades of A or A- are reserved for student work which not only demonstrates very good mastery of content but which also shows that the student has undertaken a complex task, has applied critical thinking skills to the assignment, and/or has demonstrated creativity in her or his approach to the assignment. The difference between these two grades would be determined by the degree to which these skills have demonstrated by the student.

A grade of B+ is given to work, which is judged to be very good. This grade denotes that a student has demonstrated a more-than-competent understanding of the material being tested in the assignment.

A grade of B is given to student work, which meets the basic requirements of the assignment. It denotes that the student has done adequate work on the assignment and meets basic course expectations.

A grade of B- denotes that a student's performance was less than adequate on an assignment, reflecting only moderate grasp of content and/or expectations.

A grade of C reflects a minimal grasp of the assignments, poor organization of ideas and/or several significant areas requiring improvement.

Grades between C- and F denotes a failure to meet minimum standards, reflecting serious deficiencies in all aspects of a student's performance on the assignment.*

As a professional school, class attendance and participation is an essential part of your professional training and development at the USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work. You are expected to attend all classes and meaningfully participate. For Ground courses, having more than 2 unexcused absences in class may result in the lowering of your grade by a half grade. Additional absences can result in additional deductions. For VAC courses, meaningful participation requires active engagement in class discussions and maintaining an active screen. Having more than two unexcused absences in class may result in the lowering of your grade by a half grade. Additional absences in the live class can result in additional deductions. Furthermore, unless directed by your course instructor, you are expected to complete all asynchronous content and activities prior to the scheduled live class discussion. Failure to complete two asynchronous units before the live class without prior permission may also lower your final grade by a half grade. Not completing additional units can result in additional deductions.

VIII. REQUIRED AND SUPPLEMENTARY INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS & RESOURCES

This course requires two text books to address the breadth of content covered in this course and promote integration of knowledge gained from courses completed during graduate school. This course also recommends the use of texts that have been used in previous courses, and other resources, as identified below.

Required Textbooks

Grinnell Jr., R. M., Gabor, P. A., & Unrau, Y.A. (2017). Program evaluation for social workers: Foundations of evidence based programs. (Seventh Edition). New York, NY: Oxford University Press.

Rubin, A. & Babbie, E. (2016). Essential research methods for social work (Fourth Edition). Belmont, CA: Brooks/Cole. (The same text that was required for SOWK 546).

Note: Additional readings may be assigned by the instructor throughout the course.

University Policies and Guidelines

IX. ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to attend every class and to remain in class for the duration of the unit. Failure to attend class or arriving late may impact your ability to achieve course objectives which could affect your course grade. Students are expected to notify the instructor by email (xxx@usc.edu) of any anticipated absence or reason for tardiness.

University of Southern California policy permits students to be excused from class for the observance of religious holy days. This policy also covers scheduled final examinations which conflict with students' observance of a holy day. Students must make arrangements in advance to complete class work which will be missed, or to reschedule an examination, due to holy days observance.

Please refer to Scampus and to the USC School of Social Work Student Handbook for additional information on attendance policies.

X. STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC CONDUCT

Plagiarism – presenting someone else's ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Part B, Section 11, "Behavior Violating University Standards" <https://policy.usc.edu/scampus-part-b/>. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, <http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct>.

XII. ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

Students enrolled in the Virtual Academic Center can access support services for themselves and their families by contacting Perspectives, Ltd., an independent student assistance program offering crisis services, short-term counseling, and referral 24/7. To access Perspectives, Ltd., call 800-456-6327.

XIII. STATEMENT ABOUT INCOMPLETES

The Grade of Incomplete (IN) can be assigned only if there is work not completed because of a documented illness or some other emergency occurring after the 12th week of the semester. Students must NOT assume that the instructor will agree to the grade of IN. Removal of the grade of IN must be instituted by the student and agreed to be the instructor and reported on the official “Incomplete Completion Form.”

XIV. POLICY ON LATE OR MAKE-UP WORK

Papers are due on the day and time specified. Extensions will be granted only for extenuating circumstances. If the paper is late without permission, the grade will be affected.

XV. POLICY ON CHANGES TO THE SYLLABUS AND/OR COURSE REQUIREMENTS

It may be necessary to make some adjustments in the syllabus during the semester in order to respond to unforeseen or extenuating circumstances. Adjustments that are made will be communicated to students both verbally and in writing.

XVI. CODE OF ETHICS OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF SOCIAL WORKERS (OPTIONAL)

Approved by the 1996 NASW Delegate Assembly and revised by the 2017 NASW Delegate Assembly <https://www.socialworkers.org/About/Ethics/Code-of-Ethics/Code-of-Ethics-English>

Preamble

The primary mission of the social work profession is to enhance human well-being and help meet the basic human needs of all people, with particular attention to the needs and empowerment of people who are vulnerable, oppressed, and living in poverty. A historic and defining feature of social work is the profession's focus on individual well-being in a social context and the well-being of society. Fundamental to social work is attention to the environmental forces that create, contribute to, and address problems in living.

Social workers promote social justice and social change with and on behalf of clients. "Clients" is used inclusively to refer to individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers are sensitive to cultural and ethnic diversity and strive to end discrimination, oppression, poverty, and other forms of social injustice. These activities may be in the form of direct practice, community organizing, supervision, consultation, administration, advocacy, social and political action, policy development and implementation, education, and research and evaluation. Social workers seek to enhance the capacity of people to address their own needs. Social workers also seek to promote the responsiveness of organizations, communities, and other social institutions to individuals' needs and social problems.

The mission of the social work profession is rooted in a set of core values. These core values, embraced by social workers throughout the profession's history, are the foundation of social work's unique purpose and perspective:

- Service
- Social justice
- Dignity and worth of the person
- Importance of human relationships
- Integrity

- Competence

This constellation of core values reflects what is unique to the social work profession. Core values, and the principles that flow from them, must be balanced within the context and complexity of the human experience.

XVII. ACADEMIC DISHONESTY SANCTION GUIDELINES

Some lecture slides, notes, or exercises used in this course may be the property of the textbook publisher or other third parties. All other course material, including but not limited to slides developed by the instructor(s), the syllabus, assignments, course notes, course recordings (whether audio or video) and examinations or quizzes are the property of the University or of the individual instructor who developed them. Students are free to use this material for study and learning, and for discussion with others, including those who may not be in this class, unless the instructor imposes more stringent requirements. Republishing or redistributing this material, including uploading it to web sites or linking to it through services like iTunes, violates the rights of the copyright holder and is prohibited. There are civil and criminal penalties for copyright violation. Publishing or redistributing this material in a way that might give others an unfair advantage in this or future courses may subject you to penalties for academic misconduct.

XVIII. COMPLAINTS

If you have a complaint or concern about the course or the instructor, please discuss it first with the instructor. If you feel cannot discuss it with the instructor, contact the chair of the SCI Department. If you do not receive a satisfactory response or solution, contact your advisor and/or Vice Dean for further guidance.
