Course Overview

Polishing the actor's skills through analysis and class performances of scenes from plays.
Continuation of 252a (from the course catalogue)

Course Description:

Focusing on specific acting exercises and approaches, and the work of American playwrights of 1920-1940, we will expand and refine the actor's skills.

Course Objectives:

To broaden your experience and understanding of the craft of acting.
To introduce you to the work of American playwrights of 1920-1940
To learn an effective way to engage in productive actionable "Actors Homework"
To learn and practice a specific and productive rehearsal technique
To learn how to effectively incorporate the Actors Homework into rehearsals
To build an ensemble of like-minded, supportive actors who can work and grow together.
To work for and with our partners onstage and in the classroom.
Honesty, clarity, and inspiration in each moment of each scene.

Course Requirements:

Proper attire (see below)

Regular attendance and vigorous courageous participation

Journal/Prompt Book : Maintain a clean organized readable "prompt book/journal" throughout the course handed in at end of course for grading, adhering specifically to guidelines provided

Homework: You must complete all homework assignments on time.

Rehearsal: You Must Rehearse Outside Class.

In Class Presentations: In-class rehearsals and scene presentations, research

Grading

In order to succeed in this class you need to do the following.

- . Show up on time ready to work.
- . Rehearse outside of class with passion and a collaborative generous creative spirit.
- . Execute assignments outside of class such as actor prompt book homework, rehearsals, reading assignments, research and reading plays
- . Participate in all class activities with an open mind and heart.
- . Demonstrate improvement in your ability
- . Maintain a clean organized readable "prompt book/journal" throughout the course handed in at the end of course for grading, adhering specifically to guidelines provided

More on Grading *

In Class Rehearsals – 15%

Scene Performances – midterm (20%) and final (20%) = 40% of your grade

Studio Exercise - 15 %

Actor Prompt Book/ Journal – 15%

Class Participation - 15%*

For all assignments points will be determined as follows:

100% - Excellent: clear understanding of the class material is coupled with original and creative insight and confident preparation

75% - Good: class material has been understood clearly and performed competently

50% - Average: class material has been generally understood, but gaps in understanding and performance remain

25% - Poor: there are identifiable gaps in the understanding of class material, as well as deficiencies in basic requirements such as memorization, blocking, etc.

0% - Unacceptable: work was not completed on time, with no communication with professor or student partners

When the GPA falls between two grades, the final grade will be weighted toward the positive end of the scale for students whose attendance and participation in class have been excellent or good and toward the negative end of the scale for those with average or poor attendance and participation.

GRADING SCALE

A = 96-100 points

A- = 91-95 points

B+ = 88-90 points

B = 85-87 points

B- = 81-84 points

C+ = 78-80 points

C = 75-77 points

C- = 71-74 points

D+ = 68-70 points

D = 65-67 points

D- = 61-64 points

F = 60 or below

The final course grade is articulated as a Letter Grade. This grade is translated into a G.P.A using the following scale: A = 4; A- = 3.7; B+ = 3.3; B = 3; B- = 2.7; C+ = 2.3; C = 2; C- = 1.7; D = 1; F = 0. When the average falls between two grades, the final grade will be weighted toward the positive end of the scale for students whose attendance and participation in class has been good, but will be weighted toward the negative end of the scale for those with poor attendance and participation.

ATTENDANCE:

Absences/Tardiness:

Learning in class depends on the layering of intellectual and emotional discovery resulting from the consistent active exploration of 100% of the Ensemble No absences or tardies are allowed.

Cumulative active class participation points will be lost. Attendance is weighted at no more than 15% as per University Guidelines

GRADING POLICY:

Grades are not dictated by the success of acting presentations or the instructor's subjective opinion of talent and artistic preference.

Grades are dictated by

- Participation, preparation, attendance
- Constructive feedback of classmates' acting presentations
- Willingness to experiment and apply the constructive feedback of instructor and students on one's own scenes, presentations, and exercises
- Meeting all assignment deadlines: reading, writing, acting
- Maintaining a clean organized readable "prompt book/journal" throughout the course handed in at end of course for grading, adhering specifically to guidelines provided
- Application and understanding of methods being explored in class and in reading, to scene work and exercises
- Scene and acting exercise preparation and presentation and memorization of lines
- Availability to fellow classmates to rehearse scenes

Note: If a deadline is missed because of a classmate/ project partner's unavailability, the available partner/s will not be penalized. If problems arise, a discussion with the professor with all involved must be arranged before the day of the scheduled scene or everyone will be held equally accountable. BEFORE ANY SCENE MAY BE REHEARSED ON ITS FEET IN CLASS, THERE MUST BE A MINIMUM OF 2 HOURS OF OUTSIDE REHEARSAL. LINES MUST BE ACCURATELY MEMORIZED BY SECOND IN CLASS REHEARSAL.

Assessment of "Participation" 15% of the final grade is earned through class participation. This will be defined as:

- Students are required to be on time for all scheduled sessions unless they are genuinely too ill to attend or affected by unavoidable personal or external circumstances. If the student has more than 2 absences or late arrivals during the course they will not be able to fulfill their ability to fully participate in class. Additionally, students must keep the teacher informed of any absence or late arrival IN ADVANCE. Failure to do so also constitutes a lack of participation and points will be deducted.
- Printed copies of all scenes, monologues and play scripts must be brought to every class meeting. No electronic copies (laptops, tablets, phones) may be used in class. NO EXCEPTIONS.
- Appropriate rehearsal clothing and props for ALL EXERCISES AND IN CLASS REHEARSALS.
- Openness to new methods of working and eagerness to attempt them.
- In class active student analysis and commentary on text.
- Constructive feedback on classmates' acting presentations.
- Energized support of all classmates' work.

- Willingness to experiment and apply the constructive feedback of professor and fellow students on ones own work.
- Meeting all assignment deadlines.
- Memorization of assigned material.
- Availability to fellow classmates to rehearse outside class.

Statement on Academic Conduct and Support Systems

Academic Conduct:

Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Part B, Section 11, “Behavior Violating University Standards” policy.usc.edu/scampus-part-b. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, <http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct>.

Statement for Students with Disabilities

Any student requesting academic accommodations based on a disability is required to register with Disability Services and Programs (DSP) each semester. A letter of verification for approved accommodations can be obtained from DSP. Please be sure the letter is delivered to me (or to TA) as early in the semester as possible. DSP is located in STU 301 and is open 8:30 a.m.–5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.
