CLASS OVERVIEW:

This course will provide a comprehensive overview of the world of producing. It is designed to provide the skills for producing a CTPR 480 project and projects produced outside of USC.

We will look at how projects are conceived, developed, packaged, financed and marketed.

Who are you as a producer? What kind of projects do you want to make? How do you get them made?

We'll cover the nuts and bolts of short and long form projects. By the end of the semester, each student should have the practical skills to pitch a project, develop a script, package the talent, schedule and budget a screenplay and manage a production.

The course will consist of lecture, discussion, audiovisual presentations and if possible given schedules, guest speakers from within the industry.

PROJECTS:

1. Production Company Name and Logo: Each student will create a name and a logo for their production company. Due September 3rd.
2. Movie Release Report: Each student will report on a movie released during the term, presenting to the class its box office, per screen average, and Rotten Tomatoes score. Due date per release date of your movie .
3. Individual Project Pitch: Each student will pitch a feature idea to the class. The pitch should last no longer than 5 minutes. The class will respond and discuss. Due September 17th. Using this input, students will adjust their pitch, and add the creative package of writer, director and cast. Due October 22nd.
4. Final Exam: “Production Slate” Pitch: Each student will create a slate of three projects. The centerpiece will be the project they’ve been pitching, but with a budget figure, a production plan, and a distribution plan with a poster and a tag line. The other two projects will be ideas for projects in a medium of your choice. The slate as a whole should have a cohesive “personality” that reflects the identity of the producer and their production company. Final projects should be handed in on a digital file as well as a hard copy. Due December 3rd.

GRADING:

Class Participation	15%
Production Company and Logo	5%
Movie Release Presentation	5%
Individual Project Pitch	25%
Exercise Schedule	10%

Students are expected to be on time and prepared for each class.

Three unexcused absences will result in your grade being lowered by one full point (ex: A >B).

A fourth unexcused absence will result in your grade being lowered another full point (B>C).

Your grade will be lowered by a point for every subsequent absence.

Two late arrivals equals one full absence.

In order for an absence to be excused, the student must have approval from the professor and provide documentation at the next attended class session.

If you have an emergency and must miss class, please contact your professor prior to class (also please contact, and copy, the class Student Assistant).
