USC'S UNDERGRADUATE AND GRADUATE ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENT: According to the University, "[a]cademic success in the United States depends on your ability to communicate effectively in English,"¹ and the "ability to communicate effectively in English—to read, write and speak the language fluently—is vital to your success as a university student."²

PREREQUISITES: Students are placed into ALI 234 based on the results of the International Student English (ISE) Exam³ or a previous ALI oral skills course.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is designed to help you meet the above requirement by improving your oral communication skills. More specifically, you will work on

- fluency
- vocabulary use
- pronunciation
- listening comprehension
- cultural awareness

These language skills will be addressed in the process of doing various academic communicative activities, such as:

- leading and participating in discussions
- summarizing talks and discussions
- conducting a survey
- giving presentations

- Internet access to Blackboard and other online materials (any mobile electronic device that will allow you to access internet in class).
- Paper and pencil or pen for in-class exercises.
- Additional materials will be made available through Blackboard.

ALI ATTENDANCE POLICY: More than 3 hours of absence will be reported to the ALI student advisor. More than 6 hours of absence will result in a course grade of NC (no credit). Absence is counted for any reason, including illness, emergencies, and conference attendance. (Athletes, please note that a written excuse for absence due to competitions must be filed with the ALI Student Advisor.)

TARDINESS POLICY: Attending class on time is important since tardiness is an inconvenience to your classmates. Coming to class late will also count towards the number of hours missed, if more than 15 minutes late. Leaving class more than 15 minutes early will also be counted toward absences. Leaving class early or being late to class on a regular basis may result in a NC.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: ALI and USC are very diligent in keeping students honest about their work. Copying another writer's work, improperly paraphrasing or citing a source, and getting "editorial revision by another person that results in substantive changes in content or major alteration of writing style" constitute academic dishonesty and can have serious consequences on your status as a student at USC.⁴

Please note: This is a credit/no credit (CR/NC) class, which means that you will not receive a final letter grade (A/B/C/F) on your USC transcript. Since this is a proficiency-based course designed to help improve your oral skills, your proficiency in these oral skills at the end of the course determines whether you will be advised to take an additional class or not. Therefore, it is in your own interest to do your best to participate fully in every assignment.

GRADING: Attendance is a major and independent factor in determining your grade. Moreover, this is a skills-based course. Assessment grades throughout the semester are NOT cumulative and will serve to help you know what to focus on for the assessments at the end of the semester. Students should meet the course attendance requirement AND have a final minimum of 80% at the end of the semester in order to receive a CR.

GRADING (SHOULD AVERAGE A MINIMUM OF 80%):

- 10% -FINAL PRONUNCIATION LISTENING (LISTENING FOR THE SOUNDS OF ENGLISH)
- 10% -FINAL DICTATION LISTENING
- 10% -FINAL RAP OR SKIT PRESENTATION
- 10% -RAP AND SKIT PRESENTATIONS
- 50% -PRESENTATIONS
- 10% -PARTICIPATION

CONFERENCING AND OFFICE HOURS: During the semester, I will be meeting with you individually/in groups to discuss your progress and strategize with you to help you reach your personal goals in English communication. You will be signing up through signupgenius.com and will receive reminders from them as well.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: Any student requiring accommodation based on a disability is required to register with the Disability Services and Programs office (DSP) each semester. A letter of verification for approved recommendations can be obtained through DSP. Please be sure the letter is delivered to me as early in the semester as possible. For more information, see http://sait.usc.edu/academicsupport/centerprograms/dsp/home_index.html.

CLASSROOM COURTESY: As a courtesy to your classmates and teacher, please refrain from chit-chat when others are talking. Use of technology (e.g., smart phones, iPads) is permissible for in-class assignments; however, texting is distracting and takes your attention from class discussion, so it is forbidden during class. Also, while it is understandably easier to speak your native language to others from your home country, this can be uncomfortable to others in the class who don't speak your language and certainly defeats the purpose of being in an English class, so please use English only in the classroom.
