

CTCS 201 - International Cinema since WW2

Professor Priya Jaikumar

Monday 2:00 - 5:00 in NCT

This course is a survey of international film history since the Second World War, with a focus on significant film styles and movements. We will see the world through cinema's history, and the world's history through cinema, to understand how cinematic practices, forms and industries are part of national and global socio-political and economic events.

