I. COURSE PREREQUISITES

This is an advanced master’s level Field Education course. Students take this class concurrently with 698b. To participate in this course, students must successfully complete SOWK 589a, SOWK 588, 589b, 698a, and 699a.

II. CATALOGUE DESCRIPTION

Supervised field placement to develop depth of skill and practice in area of department focus. Graded CR/NC/IP/INC.

III. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is the fourth semester practice portion of the MSW program. It is a collaborative endeavor between the USC School of Social Work agencies located throughout the world. This advanced course provides students the opportunity to practice social work skills and apply evidence-based interventions (EBIs) in their work with individuals, families, groups, organizations, communities and businesses with higher competency expectations than the first two semesters of the MSW program. Each student receives continual support provided by a Field Faculty Liaison who serves as an educator, consultant and coach for the field education internship experience to emphasize the Four C’s of Field Education at USC: 1) collaboration, 2) communication, 3) creativity, and 4) critical thinking. Students utilize critical thinking and creativity through application of EBIs on the micro, mezzo and macro level of practice. Students utilize effective communication techniques in working with clients, agency employees and USC faculty to enhance their professional development as social workers.

In the final semester of field education, students will demonstrate an increase in the quality of micro, mezzo, and macro social work services. MSW students are expected to build on their knowledge, skills, and values learned in their first three semesters of field education internships. Through continued collaboration with the School, agencies will continue to provide learning opportunities and resources for an effective educational experience for students. Field Instructors are professional masters' level social workers who guide and teach students how to apply social work practice, values, and ethics in a professional setting. Field Instructors also collaborate with students and preceptors, if applicable, to create and approve learning agreements, discuss and give feedback on Reflective Learning Tools, complete and sign end-of-semester evaluations, and ensure paperwork is finished on time.

SCI students will effectively demonstrate specialized practice coursework concepts, while practicing social work and developing competencies in their specialized area of practice in organizations, business and community settings. AMHW students will effectively demonstrate specialized practice coursework concepts, while practicing social work and developing competencies in their specialized area of practice in agencies serving adults. CYF students will effectively demonstrate specialized practice coursework concepts, while practicing social work and developing competencies in their specialized area of practice in agencies serving children, youth and families.

Students are expected to continue to take an active role in their experiences through the use of three core learning processes: self-reflection, interaction, and risk-taking. This teaching method draws on Transformative Learning Theory which asserts that students develop integrative knowledge about self and others in a dynamic, multicultural society from multiple perspectives. A primary goal is to help students understand their own and others' cultural experiences, to challenge their preconceptions and stereotypes, and to develop an attitude of openness and flexibility in cross-cultural interactions.

This course provides an opportunity for School departments to implement research-influenced practices in multidisciplinary settings, thereby, contributing to the direct application of EBIs and influencing the capacity of organizations to provide EBIs. Infusing field education internship with EBIs provides a translational link between research and practice, further solidifying a developing science of social work, and underscores Field Education as the "signature pedagogy" of social work. At semester ends, the Field Faculty Liaison is responsible for assigning students a grade of Credit, In Progress, or No Credit.

IV. COURSE OBJECTIVES

Objectives
1	Effectively integrate AMHW, CYF and SCI classroom theories and specialized concepts with micro, mezzo, and macro social work practice in a variety of community settings that address the effects of poverty, discrimination and oppression; influence changes at the individual, family and group level; and bring about organizational and societal change.
2	Connect the developing science of social work to practice by demonstrating specific AMHW, CYF and SCI evidence-based interventions (EBIs) in internship placements.
3	Enhance and extend skills across the spectrum of culturally appropriate social work services, may include direct practice skills such as engagement, assessment, goal-setting, intervention, termination, and evaluation; mezzo practice skills such as case management, resource/referral, family work, and support system; and macro practice skills such as community organizing, fund development and grant writing, policy analysis, and program development, implementation, and evaluation.
4	Cultivate professional use of self through observation of professional social workers, self-reflection, understanding of social work values, and implementation of those values in internship placements.
5	Demonstrate proficiency in the required Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Core Competencies as indicated in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation related to departmental (AMHW, CYF and SCI) specialized behaviors.
6	Effectively develop and expand effective communication skills demonstrating critical thinking and creativity for intra/interdisciplinary collaboration, service delivery, oral presentation and written documentation within the specialized field education internship setting.

V. COURSE FORMAT / INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS

Field Education is systematically designed, supervised, coordinated, and evaluated based on criteria by which students demonstrate the achievement of program competencies (Brooks, 2010). These competencies are articulated in the CSWE EPAs and make up the end of semester evaluation for field education internship. To prepare students for successfully achieving those competencies, a variety of instructional methods are utilized by both USC Field Faculty and agency Field Instructors.

Instructional methods consist of university-led trainings, activities, and guidance combined with community agency activities under the supervision of a designated Field Instructor, including hands-on interactions with clients, shadowing opportunities, trainings, individual supervision, group supervision, guidance on proper documentation, crisis management responses, didactic instruction, and experiential exercises. Students may also develop a working relationship with site-based employees, known as Preceptors, who help guide them in day-to-day operations and many of the activities listed above.

USC Field Faculty Liaisons are assigned to oversee the progress of the students in their field placements, including consultation for students' field education internship assignments. Working on behalf of the Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work, the Liaisons meet with students as needed to facilitate their placement experiences and schedule Field Instructor and student contacts each semester to ensure the quality of students' learning opportunities. The Liaisons also clarify School expectations and serve as consultant and mediator for student and internship-related conflicts.

Reflective Learning Tools are teaching tools that reflect student interactions with clients, systems that impact clients, and agency or community decision-makers. They also provide opportunities for Field Instructors' input and can influence future interventions. A teaching plan known as the Learning Agreement will be developed and/or revisited collaboratively between students and their Field Instructors. At the end of the first semester, Field Instructors will complete the end of semester evaluation and recommend a grade to the Field Faculty Liaison.

As discussion and participation are an integral part of the learning process, students are expected to prepare for supervision and to come to internship ready to apply the best practices of social work with clients and systems. Internship days are generally during the week Monday through Friday, although some variations may occur. The number of hours required this semester for 699b are at least 275 hours, approximately 20 hours per week, including at least one full eight-hour day each week.

VI. STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

The following table lists the nine Social Work Core Competencies as defined by the Council on Social Work Education's 2015 Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards:

Social Work Core Competencies
1	Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior
2	Engage in Diversity and Difference in Practice
3	Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice
4	Engage in Practice-informed Research and Research-informed Practice
5	Engage in Policy Practice
6	Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
7	Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
8	Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
9	Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations and Communities

The following table shows the competencies highlighted in this course, the related course objectives, student learning outcomes, and dimensions of each competency measured. The final column provides the location of course content related to the competency.

Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
1. Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior Social workers understand how the value base of the profession and its ethical standards, as well as relevant policies and regulations, may impact practice in community, organization, and business environments. Social workers apply their understanding of ethical decision-making and principles of critical thinking to workplace, community and organizational settings. Social workers recognize personal values and the distinction between personal and professional values. They also understand how their personal experiences, affective reactions, and biases influence their professional judgment and behavior. Social workers understand social work roles and the roles of other professionals involved in community, organizational, and business environments. Social workers use collaboration and advocacy skills to have a positive impact in a variety of contexts. Social workers recognize the importance of life-long learning and continual updating of knowledge and skills for effective and responsible practice. Social workers incorporate ethical approaches to the use of technology in meeting the needs of their clients in communities, organizations, and business environments. Social workers understand that work within complex systems can generate conflicting priorities and ambiguities that require professional value-based judgments.	4. Develop professional use of self through observation of professional social workers, self-reflection, understanding of social work values, and implementation of those values in internship placements. 5. Increase proficiency in the required Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Core Competencies as indicated in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation. 6. Develop and expand effective communication skills, demonstrating critical thinking and creativity for intra/interdisciplinary collaboration, service delivery, oral presentation and written documentation within the field practicum setting.	a. Understand ethical harm and risks inherent in practice (including decision-making and conflicting values), and use this knowledge to manage personal values and maintain professionalism in practice situations. b. Utilize ethical theories, principles, and guidelines in decision-making to address conflicting values to maximize and opportunities for change in community, organization and business environments. c. Effectively utilize professional judgment, critical thinking, knowledge of social work values and self-awareness to enhance practice with groups, communities and/or organizations.	Exercise of Judgement Values Skills and Critical Thinking	Unit 1 Module 1: Course Introduction Units 2-4 Module 2: Engagement Units 5-7 Module 3: Assessment Units 8-11 Module 4: Intervention Units 12-15 Module 5: Evaluation Assignment #2 Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation Assignment #3 Development of Competencies and Field Hours

Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
2. Engage in Diversity and Difference in Practice Social workers understand how diversity and difference characterize and shape the human experience and are critical to identity formation across one's life span and in a variety of settings. The dimensions of diversity are understood as the intersectionality of multiple factors including but not limited to age, class, color, culture, disability and ability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity and perspectives, immigration status, marital status, political ideology, race, religion/spirituality, sex, sexual orientation, and tribal sovereign status. Social workers understand how life experiences arising from oppression, poverty, marginalization, or privilege and power, can affect community and organizational culture and well-being. Social workers recognize the extent to which social structures, values and cultural systems, including those within communities, organizations, and businesses, may oppress, marginalize, alienate, exclude, or create or enhance privilege and power in arenas of intervention.	1. Integrate classroom theories and concepts with social work practice in vulnerable community settings where the effects of poverty, discrimination and oppression are pervasive in an effort to bring about change at individual, community, organizational and societal levels. 3. Enhance skills across the spectrum of culturally appropriate social work services, from engagement to assessment, goal-setting, intervention, evaluation, and termination. 5. Increase proficiency in the required Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Core Competencies as indicated in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation.	a. Understand the importance of diversity and difference in shaping one's own and others' life experiences and biases and their possible impact on practice across micro, mezzo, and macro levels, occurring in communities and organizations and business environments. b. Critically identify and select solutions that create inclusion and empowerment, based upon a scholarly understanding of human behaviors that drive exclusion, disengagement and conflict in diverse groups and organizations.	Skills and Affective Reactions Skills and Critical Thinking	Units 2-4 Module 2: Engagement Units 5-7 Module 3: Assessment Units 8-11 Module 4: Intervention Assignment #2 Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation Assignment #3 Development of Competencies and Field Hours

Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
3. Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice Social workers understand that every individual, regardless of position in society, has fundamental human rights such as freedom, safety, privacy, an adequate standard of living, health care, and education. Social workers understand the global interconnections of oppression and human rights violations, theories of human need and social justice and strategies to promote social and economic justice and human rights. Social workers use strategies designed to eliminate oppressive structural barriers in order to ensure more equitable distribution of resources, access to opportunities, social goods, and services. Social workers recognize their responsibility to protect the human rights and well-being of individuals in communities, organizations, and businesses across the globe.	1. Integrate classroom theories and concepts with social work practice in vulnerable community settings where the effects of poverty, discrimination and oppression are pervasive in an effort to bring about change at individual, community, organizational and societal levels. 5. Increase proficiency in the required Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Core Competencies as indicated in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation.	a. Understand and assess economic trends, business practices, social trends, and governmental actions nationally and globally to recognize the impact on the well-being of individuals, families and communities. b. Understand the tendency for human behaviors in communities, organizations, and businesses and for organizational structures and cultures to create oppressive, exclusive, or stressful environments. c. Identify and intervene effectively in oppressive, exclusive and/or stressful environments using knowledge of human behavior, culture, group dynamics, historical marginalization and other factors that impact the functioning of individuals, groups, communities, organizations and business environments.	Critical Thinking and Skills Knowledge Skills	Units 5-7 Module 3: Assessment Units 8-11 Module 4: Intervention Assignment #2 Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation Assignment #3 Development of Competencies and Field Hours

Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
4. Engage in Practice-informed Research and Research-informed Practice Social workers understand quantitative and qualitative research methods and their respective roles in advancing scientific knowledge regarding practice in community, organization, and business contexts. Social workers use scientific, ethical, and culturally informed approaches to build knowledge related to practice in order to professionally guide interventions designed to bring about change in community, organization, and/or policy arenas. They understand that evidence that informs practice derives from multiple domains and ways of knowing. They understand the processes for translating research findings into effective practice, and using practice knowledge to inform research, analyze the need for social change, and begin to develop interventions.	2. Connect behavioral science to practice by learning and applying evidence-based interventions (EBIs) in internship placements.	a. Use knowledge of evidenced based models, method or practices in work-related programs to critically evaluate the efficacy and fit of different models or interventions with the diverse needs of individuals, groups, and/or organizations. b. Identify, synthesize, and critically analyze the findings from research to inform the understanding of social issues and to guide the development of solutions for practice, policy, and/or social service delivery.	Knowledge Skills	Units 5-7 Module 3: Assessment Units 8-11 Module 4: Intervention Assignment #2 Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation Assignment #3 Development of Competencies and Field Hours

Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
5. Engage in Policy Practice Social workers understand that policy and its implementation at the federal, state, and local levels mediate human rights of individuals and social justice. Social workers understand the history and current structures of social policies and service delivery systems, the role of policy in service delivery, and the role of practice in policy development. Social workers actively engage in policy practice to effect change in communities, organizations and businesses. Social workers understand the historical, social, cultural, economic, organizational, environmental, and global influences that affect social policy, and are knowledgeable about policy formulation.	5. Increase proficiency in the required Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Core Competencies as indicated in the Comprehensive Skills Evaluation. 6. Develop and expand effective communication skills, demonstrating critical thinking and creativity for intra/interdisciplinary collaboration, service delivery, oral presentation and written documentation within the field practicum setting.	a. Analyze policies that advance human rights and protect vulnerable populations and work environments or enhance access to employment across the life span. b. Develop policies that advance human rights and protect vulnerable populations and work environments or enhance access to employment across the life span. c. Advocate for policies that advance human rights and protect vulnerable populations and work environment or enhance access to employment across the life span.	Critical Thinking Critical Thinking, Knowledge and Skill Skill	Units 8-11 Module 4: Intervention Assignment #3 Development of Competencies and Field Hours

Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
6. Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities Social workers understand that engagement is an ongoing component of the dynamic and interactive process of practice with, and on behalf of, diverse communities, their constituencies, and the organizations that serve them. Social workers understand and utilize varied strategies to facilitate engagement with individuals, groups, organizations, institutions, and communities. Social workers understand that their personal experiences, affective reactions, and biases may have an impact on their ability to effectively engage with diverse individuals, groups and communities. Social workers understand the role of relationship-building and inter-professional collaboration in facilitating engagement with individuals, groups, organizations, institutions, communities and other professionals, as appropriate.	3. Enhance skills across the spectrum of culturally appropriate social work services, from engagement to assessment, goal-setting, intervention, evaluation, and termination.	a. Apply theories of human behavior and the social environment to raise awareness of the impact work-related environments can have on outcomes and behaviors. b. Use reflection to enhance the use of interpersonal skills in engaging diverse clients across systems levels to develop a mutually agreed upon focus of work and desired outcomes. c. Skillfully select and apply individual, group, organizational and community theories of behavior to facilitate effective engagement with organizations and communities. d. Develop and/or implement strategies to facilitate engagement of stakeholders in program development.	Knowledge Reflection Knowledge Skills	Units 2-4 Module 2: Engagement Assignment #1 Review Learning Agreement and Goals with Field Instructor Assignment #2 Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation Assignment #3 Development of Competencies and Field Hours

Competency	Objectives	Behaviors	Dimensions	Content
8. Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities Social workers are knowledgeable about evidence-based interventions that help them best address the goals of their clients and the systems that serve them. Social workers are able to intervene effectively at individual, group, and system levels. Social workers understand methods of identifying, analyzing and implementing evidence-informed interventions to promote the well-being of individuals. Social workers value the importance of inter-professional teamwork and communication in interventions, recognizing that beneficial outcomes may require interdisciplinary, inter-professional, and inter-organizational collaboration.	2. Connect behavioral science to practice by learning and applying evidence-based interventions (EBIs) in internship placements. 3. Enhance skills across the spectrum of culturally appropriate social work services, from engagement to assessment, goal-setting, intervention, evaluation, and termination.	a. VII. COURSE ASSIGNMENTS, DUE DATES & GRADING

Assignment	Due Date	% of Final Grade
1. Review and Update Educational Goals in Learning Agreement with Field Instructor	See Field Calendar	30%
2a. Eight Reflective Learning Tools	Ongoing	35% (50% completed by week mid-point)
2b. Field Documentation	Unit 15
3. Development of Competencies and Field Hours*	Unit 15	35%

*All field hours and documentation must be completed to pass this course. In order for students to receive credit (CR), they need to receive a minimum of 83% on assignments and must complete the minimum required hours of field activities for the semester. (Partial credit for these requirements will not be given.)

Assignment 1: Review Educational Goals in Learning Agreement with Field Instructor

Review education goals in the Learning Agreement and revise to incorporate department-specific competencies through collaboration with your Field Instructor and Preceptor (if applicable).

Due: Unit 5 (exact date on Field Calendar)

This assignment relates to student learning outcome 6.

Assignment 2a/b: Reflective Learning Tools and Field Documentation

Complete and submit Reflective Learning Tool (RLT) (a minimum of 8/semester) to the Field Instructor. There are multiple Reflective Learning Tool forms to choose from based on the setting type:

- Individual (Micro)
 - Shadowing other social workers, individual interactions with assigned clients
- Group (Mezzo)
 - Psychoeducational groups, processing groups, co-facilitating groups
- Community (Macro)
 - Events, agency orientation, meetings, assigned projects, activities, trainings

On Campus Program (OCP): the RLT Log is accessible through the IPT system and needs to be completed electronically on a regular basis (approximately 2 RLTs per month). The log is due on the last date of field. Samples of RLTs are available through the USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work website at <https://dworakpeck.usc.edu/msw-on-campus/field-education/students-forms>.

Virtual Academic Center (VAC): the Field Practicum Log needs to be signed by the agency field instructor to verify hours, RLT, and weekly supervision ideally completed during weekly supervision. The preceptor can also sign to document to verify the number of field hours completed. The completed log is due monthly and uploaded to the platform. One log will be used for each semester.

Due 2a: Reflective Learning Tools are due on a continuous basis (at least 2 RLTs a month) to the Field Instructor. Your Field Liaison will check-in on your documentation and note their review verification on your IPT System (OCP Program) or Field Practicum Log (VAC Students).

Due 2b: Ongoing to last date of class and field – Final Reflective Learning Tool Log/Field Practicum Log is due to the Field Liaison

This assignment relates to student learning outcomes 1-4 and 6-9.

Assignment 3: Development of Competencies and Field Hours

For Credit in this assignment, students will:

- Demonstrate advanced skills in the CSWE Core Competencies as listed in the end of semester evaluation.
- Complete a self-assessment (suggested activity) by rating themselves on the end of semester evaluation.
- Review and discuss the end of semester evaluation completed by the Field Instructor, who makes the grade recommendation. If satisfied that the content accurately reflects progress, student and Field Instructor sign as instructed.*
- Ensure that the completed evaluation is received by the Field Liaison.
- Complete required number of Field placement hours (minimum of 275 hours). **

Due: completed and reviewed end of semester evaluation along with practicum hour documentation.

This assignment relates to student learning outcomes 1-9.

If there are issues that are unresolved, discuss with your Field Instructor and, if needed, contact your Field Liaison.*

 Students will not receive a Credit in this course if they do not complete the required hours. If discussed in advance and arranged with the Field Instructor, students are allowed eight (8) hours per semester for religious holidays. Students may take the equivalent of one eight (8) hour sick day per semester as long as they notify the Field Instructor in a timely manner. Make-up hours for time missed must also be discussed with the Field Instructor. Any attendance issues that arise should be addressed with the student's Field Liaison. Record keeping of required field hours is a joint responsibility of the student and the Field Instructor. To the fullest extent possible, students are expected to observe the site attendance and time schedule policies. However, Advanced Applied Learning in Field Education is a class and students must adhere to the course start and end dates as well as important Field Education activities and events in the USC Field Calendar. If the site is closed on a non-University holiday, the student is expected to make up this time.*

On Campus Programs (OCP): All field forms and information including the calendar can be found here: <http://sowkweb.usc.edu/master-of-social-work/MSW-degree/field-education/forms>

Virtual Academic Center (VAC): All field forms and information including the calendar can be found in your Toolbox and here: <https://msw.usc.edu/academic/field-experience/>

Course grades will be based on the following:

Assignment Grades		Final Grade
Credit	83% or above	Credit	83% or above
No Credit	82% or below	No Credit	82% or below

Within the USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work, grades are determined in each class based on the following standards which have been established by the faculty of the School: (1) Grades of A or A- are reserved for student work which not only demonstrates very good mastery of content but which also shows that the student has undertaken a complex task, has applied critical thinking skills to the assignment, and/or has demonstrated creativity in her or his approach to the assignment. The difference between these two grades would be determined by the degree to which these skills have been demonstrated by the student. (2) A grade of B+ will be given to work which is judged to be very good. This grade denotes that a student has demonstrated a more-than-competent understanding of the material being tested in the assignment. (3) A grade of B will be given to student work which meets the basic requirements of the assignment. It denotes that the student has done adequate work on the assignment and meets basic course expectations. (4) A grade of B- will denote that a student's performance was less than adequate on an assignment, reflecting only moderate grasp of content and/or expectations. (5) A grade of C would reflect a minimal grasp of the assignments, poor organization of ideas and/or several significant areas requiring improvement. (6) Grades between C- and F will be applied to denote a failure to meet minimum standards, reflecting serious deficiencies in all aspects of a student's performance on the assignment.

As a professional school, class attendance and participation is an essential part of your professional training and development at the USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work. You are expected to attend all classes and meaningfully participate. For Ground courses, having more than 2 unexcused absences in class may result in the lowering of your grade by a half grade. Additional absences can result in additional deductions. For VAC courses, meaningful participation requires active engagement in class discussions and maintaining an active screen. Having more than two unexcused absences in class may result in the lowering of your grade by a half grade. Additional absences in the live class can result in additional deductions. Furthermore, unless directed by your course instructor, you are expected to complete all asynchronous content and activities prior to the scheduled live class discussion. Failure to complete two asynchronous units before the live class without prior permission may also lower your final grade by a half grade. Not completing additional units can result in additional deductions.

Course Overview

The USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work places MSW students in thousands of internships nationally and internationally in a variety of different settings: health, mental health, public child welfare, schools, in-person or virtual, etc. This syllabus serves as a general set of expectations for our students and their instructors. However, given the challenges of standardizing direct social work practice with individuals, groups, or communities, a variety of experiences within these guidelines is expected. Therefore, all stakeholders involved in field education activities should view this document as best practice guidelines.

Course Schedule—Detailed Description

Unit 1: Module 1: Course Introduction

Topics

- Review second semester educational goals from Learning Agreement with Field Instructor
- Develop a time management plan with Field Instructor for final semester of Advance Applied Learning in Field Education
- Re-establish connection with agency and client, group, organization, and community systems
- Task
 - Create and submit Reflective Learning Tool

This Unit relates to student learning outcome 1.

Corresponding Asynchronous Course Material

Fall/Spring: Unit 1

Summer: Unit 1, Unit 2

Required Readings

University of Southern California. Academic Calendar

University of Southern California School of Social Work Field Manual

Unit 2-4: Module 2: Re-Engagement

Topics

- Reconnect and review goals with clients, groups, organizations, or communities and make adjustments
 - Define new treatment objectives and treatment plans with clients
 - Describe how agency interfaces with broader community
 - In collaboration with client(s) and Field Instructor, select and apply evidence-informed interventions
- Integrate department specific coursework into practice
 - Incorporate multi-modal practice skills and theories learned in department-specific courses
 - Examine agency's leadership in the community
 - Consult with Field Instructor on ways to manage increased assignments and expectations efficiently
- Tasks:
 - Create and submit Reflective Learning Tools

Unit relates to student learning outcomes 1, 2, and 6.

Corresponding Asynchronous Course Material

Fall/Spring: Unit 2, Unit 3, Unit 4

Summer: Unit 3, Unit 4, Unit 5, Unit 6

Unit 5-7: Module 3: Assessment

Topics

- Assess progress on project deliverables and/or clients' goals and develop timeline for meeting expectations

- Assess progress on quantifiable projects or services to be completed by the end of the internship (deliverables) and develop a timeline for their completion
- Develop an understanding of the community's practice models
- Continue to observe the interplay between agency needs, client needs, and community resources including how information flows into and out of the organization
- Anticipate risk factors and apply strategies for minimizing risks in carrying out agency functions both in agency and community settings

University Policies and Guidelines

IX. ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to attend every class and to remain in class for the duration of the unit. Failure to attend class or arriving late may impact your ability to achieve course objectives which could affect your course grade. Students are expected to notify the instructor by email of any anticipated absence or reason for tardiness.

University of Southern California policy permits students to be excused from class for the observance of religious holy days. This policy also covers scheduled final examinations which conflict with students' observance of a holy day. Students must make arrangements in advance to complete class work which will be missed, or to reschedule an examination, due to holy days observance.

Please refer to Scampus and to the USC School of Social Work Student Handbook for additional information on attendance policies.

X. ACADEMIC CONDUCT

Plagiarism – presenting someone else's ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Part B, Section 11, "Behavior Violating University Standards" <https://policy.usc.edu/scampus-part-b/>. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, <http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct>.

XII. ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

Students enrolled in the Virtual Academic Center can access support services for themselves and their families by contacting Perspectives, Ltd., an independent student assistance program offering crisis services, short-term counseling, and referral 24/7. To access Perspectives, Ltd., call 800-456-6327.

XIII. STATEMENT ABOUT INCOMPLETES

The Grade of Incomplete (IN) can be assigned only if there is work not completed because of a documented illness or some other emergency occurring after the 12th week of the semester. Students must NOT assume that the instructor will agree to the grade of IN. Removal of the grade of IN must be instituted by the student and agreed to be the instructor and reported on the official “Incomplete Completion Form.”

XIV. POLICY ON LATE OR MAKE-UP WORK

Papers are due on the day and time specified. Extensions will be granted only for extenuating circumstances. If the paper is late without permission, the grade will be affected.

XV. POLICY ON CHANGES TO THE SYLLABUS AND/OR COURSE REQUIREMENTS

It may be necessary to make some adjustments in the syllabus during the semester in order to respond to unforeseen or extenuating circumstances. Adjustments that are made will be communicated to students both verbally and in writing.

XVI. CODE OF ETHICS OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF SOCIAL WORKERS (OPTIONAL)

Approved by the 1996 NASW Delegate Assembly and revised by the 2017 NASW Delegate Assembly
<https://www.socialworkers.org/About/Ethics/Code-of-Ethics/Code-of-Ethics-English>

Preamble

The primary mission of the social work profession is to enhance human well-being and help meet the basic human needs of all people, with particular attention to the needs and empowerment of people who are vulnerable, oppressed, and living in poverty. A historic and defining feature of social work is the profession's focus on individual well-being in a social context and the well-being of society. Fundamental to social work is attention to the environmental forces that create, contribute to, and address problems in living.

Social workers promote social justice and social change with and on behalf of clients. "Clients" is used inclusively to refer to individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers are sensitive to cultural and ethnic diversity and strive to end discrimination, oppression, poverty, and other forms of social injustice. These activities may be in the form of direct practice, community organizing, supervision, consultation, administration, advocacy, social and political action, policy development and implementation, education, and research and evaluation. Social workers seek to enhance the capacity of people to address their own needs. Social workers also seek to promote the responsiveness of organizations, communities, and other social institutions to individuals' needs and social problems.

The mission of the social work profession is rooted in a set of core values. These core values, embraced by social workers throughout the profession's history, are the foundation of social work's unique purpose and perspective:

- Service
- Social justice
- Dignity and worth of the person
- Importance of human relationships
- Integrity
- Competence

This constellation of core values reflects what is unique to the social work profession. Core values, and the principles that flow from them, must be balanced within the context and complexity of the human experience.

XVII. ACADEMIC DISHONESTY SANCTION GUIDELINES

Some lecture slides, notes, or exercises used in this course may be the property of the textbook publisher or other third parties. All other course material, including but not limited to slides developed by the instructor(s), the syllabus, assignments, course notes, course recordings (whether audio or video) and examinations or quizzes are the property of the University or of the individual instructor who developed them. Students are free to use this material for study and learning, and for discussion with others, including those who may not be in this class, unless the instructor imposes more stringent requirements.
