

Course Description and Overview

This course will examine the use of fight and violence in a theatrical context for the stage and for the camera.

Learning Objectives

Topics that will be covered include:

1. Safety: How to create the illusion of violence without causing harm to self, acting partner, audience or scenery to create a safe working environment in the classroom and in a professional setting.
2. The need for violence: Discussion of the artist's responsibility to reflect violence safely and accurately so that the actor can deeply explore violence in the service of a given character and text.
3. Basic unarmed stage combat: Punches, blocks, kicks, falls, rolls, slaps, found objects as weapons. These are all tools that the professional actor will encounter throughout the course of their career.
4. Theatrical blank-firing weapons: Practice & Safety – A introduction to basic blank-firing theatrical fire arms handling and safety practices.
5. Fights and violence for the camera – Basic camera and editing techniques for shooting action.

Principles covered:

1. Making your partner look good
2. Eye contact
3. Action-Reaction-Completion (ARC) Principle
4. Receiver in control
5. Reversal of energy
6. Lines of attack
7. Diffusing energy
8. Stacking & Other Fight Techniques for the Camera
