ALI 252
Advanced Pronunciation

Instructor: Barry Griner  Office: The ZOOM Cloud
Email: griner@usc.edu  Office hours: Arranged via ZOOM

PREREQUISITES: Students are placed into ALI 252 based on the results of a previous ALI oral skills course, the International Student English (ISE) Exam\(^1\), or the International Teaching Assistant (ITA) Exam\(^2\). In addition, international students who want to fine-tune their pronunciation, modify their accent, or develop accent fluidity are welcomed to enroll in this course as “volunteers.”

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is designed to help you improve your comprehension of American English, as well as help you to improve your intelligibility to American and others. In other words, we want your English pronunciation to be easy for others to understand, so that they do not have to put much effort into deciphering what you are saying to them and can enjoy conversation with you.

We will be working on the following areas of pronunciation:
- Segmentals (vowels and consonants)
- Syllables (combinations of vowels and consonants)
- Word stress
- Intonational units or “thought groups”
- Prominence (sentence stress)
- Intonation
- Rhythm
- Connected speech

These language areas will be addressed and practiced primarily through various drilling exercises and other practice activities, leading to more communicative activities in which you will have the opportunity to demonstrate automaticity with accurate pronunciation.

Accurate, fluent pronunciation will be addressed in four stages:
1. Knowledge: understanding how sounds and patterns of sounds are made (both physical and non-physical features)
2. Comprehension: being able to decipher the difference between similar sounds and patterns
3. Production: producing accurate sounds and patterns while concentrating on the physical and non-physical features necessary to produce them
4. Automaticity: comprehension and production of sounds and patterns without thought, as a fluent second language speaker (or native speaker with a modified accent).

COURSE MATERIALS: All handouts will be made available on Blackboard.

ALI ATTENDANCE POLICY: More than 1 class of absence will be reported to the ALI Student Advisor. More than 2 classes of absence will result in a course grade of NC (no credit).

TARDINESS POLICY: Attending class on time is important since tardiness is an inconvenience to your classmates. Coming to class late will count as a fraction of a class missed.

ASSESSMENT:
- Participation: 20%
- Quizzes: 20%
- Class projects: 60%

Quizzes, covering various pronunciation topics, will periodically be given and graded in class. These are designed to check your knowledge, comprehension, and production.

Class projects can include presentations and skits. These are a chance for you to demonstrate automaticity in the areas of pronunciation. More detailed information on the projects are forthcoming.

Please note: This is a credit/no credit (CR/NC) class, which means that you will not receive a final letter grade (A/B/C/F) on your USC transcript. Since this is a proficiency-based course designed to help improve your oral skills, your proficiency in these oral skills at the end of the course or the ITA exam determines whether you will be advised to take an additional class or not.

CONSULTATIONS AND OFFICE HOURS: During the summer session I will be meeting with you individually for consultations to listen to your production of sounds, discuss your progress, and strategize with you to help you reach your personal goals in English communication. In addition, please feel free to stop by during my office hours to practice your pronunciation. You are also very welcome to arrange additional time during virtual office hours via ZOOM.

CLASSROOM COURTESY:
- Since we will be using ZOOM during the summer session, there will be times when we will need to mute/unmute our microphones.
- Please have your video on during class. This is very helpful in a pronunciation class because it allows me to see your lip positions. Of course, you are welcome to use a virtual background or blank wall behind you for privacy.
- Please be a courteous audience member. When others are presenting, please pay attention and be an active listener by asking questions when possible.
- Finally, in goes without saying: please use only English during class.
Statement on Academic Conduct and Support Systems

Academic Conduct:
- Plagiarism—presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words—is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Part B, Section 11, “Behavior Violating University Standards” policy.usc.edu/scampus-part-b. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct.
