

FREN 310 - Media French

Course description and objectives

FREN310 is a course designed to develop advanced verbal expression in French and to familiarize with the different communicative contexts and language registers of the French language. The main objective is to achieve advanced communication through interpersonal, interpretive and presentational skills orally and in written forms. In this regard, you will learn how to summarize, interpret, hypothesize and narrate selected readings from various media forms such as music, social media, film, literature, press, etc.

Themes covered: social media, the food industry, the French judiciary system, the French job market, the French educational system, housing, the covid-19 crisis, etc.

Important information

FREN310 will be taught online. We will meet on Zoom, Pacific Standard Time (invitations will be on Blackboard) Monday through Thursday from 10:00am to 12:20pm for 6 weeks.