Prerequisite: Introductory accounting course (GSBA 510 for MBA’s)
Corequisite: None

Course Description

We cover financial accounting for investment activities of businesses, including mergers and acquisitions. We also examine how financial accounting reports and their analysis are impacted by the relevant detailed financial accounting rules. The first half of the course covers tax aspect of mergers and acquisitions and has its own syllabus.

Learning Objectives

By the time student’s finish 532, they should be able to:

- Explain and apply the rules used to prepare and report the financial statement information related to business combinations by solving problems and analyzing transactions.
- Explain and apply the accounting requirements as they relate to consolidation and equity basis accounting.
- Explain and apply the rules for fair value accounting as they relate to business combinations by solving problems and analyzing transactions.
- Explain disclosure and filing requirements for public companies related to a business combination.
Required Course Materials

Students need to purchase the electronic edition of the above referenced text book and access to the McGraw Hill LearnSmart and Connect technology platform. Marshall/Leventhal has negotiated a package price of $80 with McGraw Hill for the electronic text book, LearnSmart and Connect. Information on how to purchase directly from the publisher is available in the “Content” section of Blackboard. The e-text book and access to LearnSmart and Connect can also be purchased through the USC Bookstore but the pricing may vary from $80.

Grading

Student will be based upon 1,000 points determined by their performance on examinations, homework and a semester assignment weighted as follows:

Homework: Homework must be completed via McGraw Hill “Connect”. Students have 2 attempts to complete each homework problem. The score on the last attempt will be used for grading. Assigned Homework is Due by 2:00 pm on the day noted of the syllabus.

Semester Assignment #1: Assignment will be made on the first day of class and posted on Blackboard. Students will have until the 11:59 pm on Wednesday November 11, 2020 to complete and submit the assignment on Blackboard via Turnitin.

Semester Assignment #1 Submission Policy: The assignment must be submitted as a PDF on Blackboard via Turnitin on or before the due date and time listed herein. If the assignment is turned in late it will not receive full credit. Late work will be accepted only at the discretion of the professor, depending on the circumstances.

Examinations: Calculators will be acceptable for the midterm and final but no notes or textbooks will be allowed. The final will be cumulative. Questions for the midterm will be multiple choice. The final exam will include a combination of multiple choice and problem solving questions.

No late work will be accepted. There are no make-ups for exams; students should arrange their interview schedule appropriately. Refer to “Can’t Miss Dates” on page 1 of this syllabus to see the dates involved.
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Graduate Program Student Learning Outcomes

Below are the five Student Learning Outcomes developed by the USC Leventhal faculty and administration and filed with the AACSB, the accrediting body for accounting and business schools: also indicated is the emphasis on each learning objective in the first half of ACCT 532:

1. Technical, Conceptual, Problem-Solving
   Students will be competent in and be able to apply discipline-specific knowledge and skills in the fields of accounting and auditing. This learning outcome includes the development of critical thinking and problem-solving skills, as well as an understanding of the strategic role of accounting and auditing in business organizations and society.

2. Professional Development
   Students will be able to communicate clearly and strategically after considering the relevant audience, situation, and purpose of the communication. Students will demonstrate the ability to work productively with others to accomplish established goals.

3. Research/Life-Long Learning
   Students will be able to use relevant research databases and academic/professional literature to gain new knowledge and analyze business situations.

4. Ethical Principles and Professional Standards
   Students will be able to apply ethical principles and professional standards in analyzing situations and making informed decisions.

5. Globalization and Diversity
   Students will be able to demonstrate an international perspective and appreciation for diversity and cultural differences, along with their significance in global business.

GRADING POLICY

We adhere to the USC Leventhal School of Accounting and Marshall School of Business grading standards for graduate programs. In general, final course grades at the graduate level in a core course average approximately B+ (3.3), but may vary based on class performance. For elective courses, the class average is usually higher--approximating 3.5, which is between a B+ and an A-. Students must receive a C or better to pass a required class, and must have an overall B average (3.0 minimum) in order to graduate from USC. The graded elements of this course are listed in this syllabus along with information on how they will be evaluated.

ACADEMIC CONDUCT

Students enrolled in any class offered by the Leventhal School of Accounting are expected to uphold and adhere to the standards of academic integrity established by the Leventhal School of Accounting Student Honor Code. Students are responsible for obtaining, reading, and understanding the Honor Code System handbook. Students who are found to have violated the Code will be subject to disciplinary action as described in the handbook. For more specific information, please refer to the Student Honor Code System handbook, available in class or from the receptionist in ACC 101.

Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as a student's own, either verbatim or recast in a student's own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Students should familiarize themselves with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Section 11 Behavior Violating University Standards https://scampus.usc.edu/1100-behavior-violating-university-standards-and-appropriate-sanctions/. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct/.
