I. Course Description
This is the first course of a three-part journey that includes PR 351a and 351b.

PR 209 is an intensive, skills-based writing course designed focused on preparing and writing press materials for use in media relations. It also provide students with the following:
1. Familiarity with proper writing styles with sensitivity to the requirements of media and publications.
2. Competence in writing mechanics and grammar, headlines, labels, structure and the ability to express information clearly to the intended audience(s).
3. Familiarity with the Inverted Pyramid and prioritizing facts.
4. Ability to judge what constitutes news and the nuances of how it is defined by a wide variety of media.

II. Overall Learning Objectives and Assessment
By the end of this course, students should be able to:
- Write with clarity, insight and skill.
- Judge the importance of information, set priorities and tailor writing to meet the needs of different media and reporters.
- Edit and proofread material so it is publishable.

Through in-class assignments and homework, students will learn to organize and plan their writing both with and without deadline pressure. Some assignments will cover the essentials of news and the basic building blocks of providing information; others will include elements designed to provide insight for working with the news media.

Students will be expected to take on their assignments with a professional attitude and a willingness to learn new techniques. Writing solid press materials take practice and hard work.

 Based on the progress of each student, certain exercises and/or assignments may be changed. ***
Classes include quizzes, writing exercises, and when possible guest speakers. Some exercises take place in class and are in addition to take-home assignments. Some writing will be on deadline, which is an essential skill for public relations. Quizzes will be given regularly; some will be announced, most will not.

III. Course Notes
Copies of lecture slides are typically uploaded to Blackboard but may vary weekly.

IV. Description and Assessment of Assignments

Homework: Various readings, writing assignment press materials, and/or research.

Quizzes: Based on readings, AP Stylebook, grammar, proofreading and current news events.

Writing (in-class and homework): An array of writing assignment press materials.

Midterm exam: Take-home and in-class; take-home is a writing assignment: news release and detailed fact sheet; in-class is a series of drills to test spelling, grammar, AP Style, proofreading and writing TBD documents.

Class participation: Response to readings, posing questions and comments.

Final project: See final project description attached to syllabus

Grading Standards

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade Range</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A Range</td>
<td>Writing near professional quality; one or no mistakes; clearly proofread and edited material. All required elements included (catchy headline, solid lead, varied vocabulary; supporting facts/figures; quote as required.) Excellent organization and flow; original thinking. Showed creativity in packaging/distribution method. High end of scale: publishable today as is. Made me want to keep reading! You will not get in the A range if you have any misspelled words.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B Range</td>
<td>Two to five spelling, grammar or AP Style mistakes. One or more required elements missing or poorly displayed (i.e. boring headline, confusing lead, etc.). Shows potential as a good writer. Adhered to inverted pyramid. High end of scale will have at least one extraordinary element such as astonishing lead or little-known facts or pithy quote. Some creativity shown.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C Range</td>
<td>More than 5 errors (spelling, grammar, AP style). Poorly edited and/or proofread. May have adhered to inverted pyramid but strayed at beginning or end. Hackneyed elements such as trite headline or uninteresting lead. Little or no facts/figures included. Passive rather than active verbs become the norm. Little or no creativity shown.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D Range</td>
<td>More than 10 errors (spelling, grammar). Needs to be completely rewritten. Poorly organized with little or no understanding or journalistic style/standards. Needs to work with writing coach.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Failing (F = 59 or below)</td>
<td>Late, not re writable or no assignment turned in.</td>
</tr>

VI. Assignment Submission Policy
Assignments will be due via email or BlackBoard, as I designate each week. All assignments will be complete and typed, with no handwritten edits. Assignments not following directions will be graded lower. If you are absent, you are responsible for getting me your homework when it is due. No late assignments are accepted.

VII. Required Readings and Supplementary Materials
1. You must have access to a laptop computer for participating in this class. If you can’t participate in class or complete assignments due to lack of a computer, you will not receive credit.
4. Dictionaries and other writing references are indispensable.
5. It’s impossible to learn about writing and improve your writing skills without reading topical news and feature writing, and watching quality news broadcasts. Be regular readers of newspapers, magazines, trade publications, websites and other publications as required by assignment or your own interest. You should be familiar with http://www.prnewswire.com and http://www.businesswire.com and other news release services.

VIII. Laptop Policy
All undergraduate and graduate Annenberg majors and minors are required to have a PC or Apple laptop that can be used in Annenberg classes. Please refer to the Annenberg Digital Lounge for more information. To connect to USC’s Secure Wireless network, please visit USC’s Information Technology Services website.

USC technology rental program
We realize that attending classes online and completing coursework remotely requires access to technology that not all students possess. If you need resources to successfully participate in your classes, such as a laptop or internet hotspot, you may be eligible for the university’s equipment rental program. To apply, please submit an application. The Student Basic Needs team will contact all applicants in early August and distribute equipment to eligible applicants prior to the start of the fall semester.

IX. Add/Drop Dates for Session 001 (13 weeks: 8/17/20 – 11/13/20)
Friday, September 4: Last day to register and add classes for Session 001
Friday, September 4: Last day to change enrollment option to Pass/No Pass or Audit for Session 001
Friday, September 4: Last day to drop a class and receive a refund to avoid a mark of “W” on student record and STARS report

Friday, September 4: Last day to purchase or waive tuition refund insurance for fall

Friday, October 2: Last day to drop a course without a mark of “W” on the transcript only. Mark of “W” will still appear on student record and STARS report and tuition charges still apply. [Please drop any course by the end of week three for session 001 (or the 20 percent mark of the session in which the course is offered) to avoid tuition charges.]

Friday, October 2: Last day to change a Pass/No Pass course to letter grade

Friday, November 6: Last day to drop a class with a mark of “W” for Session 001

XI. Course Schedule: A Weekly Breakdown

Important note to students: Please check Blackboard for announcements on homework, quizzes, writing assignments or tests. Be advised that this syllabus is subject to change - and probably will change - based on the progress of the class, news events, and/or guest speaker availability.

WEEK 1: INTRODUCTIONS – FUNDAMENTALS OF PUBLIC RELATIONS WRITING

- Introductions, detailed review of syllabus, texts, policies, and components of press materials. Review the PESO model, AP style and the Inverted Pyramid.

In-Class Assignment:
- Interview a classmate and write a one-page bio and submit by the end of this class.

Homework:
- Bring two (2) news releases to class. Be prepared to come to class to talk about the key messages being conveyed.
- Readings: AP Style Punctuation Guide, A, B.

WEEK 2: INVERTED PYRAMID, KEY MESSAGES, HEADLINES, LEADS, SUBJECT LINES

- AP Style QUIZ
- Review news releases. Discuss the Inverted Pyramid and why we use it. Where do third-party sources fit in to news releases? Citations, formatting documents, etc.

In-Class Assignment:
- Using a fictitious concept, write four key messages.

Homework:
- Using the two news releases you found, identify what you believe to be the intended key messages. Write a brief report with your summary.
- Watch three separate morning, afternoon, and evening newscasts. Listen to one AM radio news show. Be prepared to identify the news anchors. Try to figure out which was a PR-generated news story.
- Review Gallery of Award Winning Headlines
- Readings: AP Style C, D, E, F.

WEEK 3: UNDERSTANDING THE MEDIA LANDSCAPE AND PITCHING
- An immersive discussion to understand how the media operates, what types of stories they look for, and how stories get chosen and created. Guest speaker: ANN media or a local editor/assignment desk editor.

In-Class Assignment:
- Write an email subject line

Homework:
- Readings: AP Style G, H, I, J, K

WEEK 4: WRITING A NEWS RELEASE
- Discuss messaging and how it connects to audiences. What is the client trying to achieve?

In-Class Assignment:
- Write a news release based on the previous class lesson.

Homework:
- Finish your news release.
- Collect three quotations from different organizations (Non profit, Corporate, Entertainment)
- Readings: AP Style L, M, N, O, P

WEEK 5: QUOTES AND STATEMENTS
- No fluff allowed. We’ll practice writing quotes for news releases and corporate statements in a variety of settings.

In-Class Assignment:
- Revise the quote you included in your last news release.

Homework:
- Readings: AP Style Q, R, S, T, U, V

WEEK 6: NEWS RELEASES, PART TWO
- We will continue to review examples and practice writing news releases. Discuss boilerplates.

In-Class Assignment:
- Write a news release.

Homework:
- Finish your news release and write the boilerplate that would be attached to it.
- Readings: AP Style W, X, Y, Z
- Bring Two fact sheets: corporate websites good place to look

WEEK 7: FACT SHEET
- Review examples. Overview of press kits. How does a journalist use a kit? Which components are imperative and which are just nice to have?

In-Class Assignment:
- Write a fact sheet.

Homework:
• Write the take-home portion of the midterm. Prepare for in-class portions. The take-home portion is due at the beginning of class. No late submissions will be accepted. Ask your questions before class ends because the instructor will not field any questions after the take-home is handed out.

WEEK 8: MIDTERM
• Bring to class the take-home portion that you’ve already completed. I do not allow makeups for the midterm so plan accordingly.
• Look at FAQ page from favorite brand, share 5 “questions” from the FAQ

WEEK 9: FAQ and Q&A
• What’s the difference between the two and how are they used? We’ll review examples.
  In-Class Assignment:
  • Using key messages, write FAQ and Q&A documents.
  o No “Yes/No” questions, be sure to put them in the correct order
  Homework:
  • Finish your FAQ and Q&A documents.

WEEK 10: TALKING POINTS
• Create an executive “talk track” based on your key messages and press materials.
  Brainstorm anticipated interview questions as a class.
  In-Class Assignment:
  • Answer the questions we collectively come up with.
  Homework:
  • Finish your talking points.

WEEK 11: ATTRACTING THE MEDIA
• Review examples of pitch letters and email subject lines.
  In-Class Assignment:
  • Write a pitch letter.
  Homework:
  • TBD

WEEK 12: BIOS
• Formal, fun and hybrid versions will be reviewed and written.
  In-Class Assignment:
  • Write a formal official bio.
  Homework:
  • TBD

WEEK 13: MEDIA ADVISORY
• Discuss essential information that must be included and how reporters/editors use advisories.
In-Class Assignment:
- Write a media advisory and other interactions with the journalists (email, calls)

Homework:
- Work on your final project.

WEEK 14: GUEST SPEAKERS
- A panel of experts who work in public relations, marketing, and human resources. They answer all your burning questions about internships, jobs, networking, salaries, and more.

Homework:
- Work on your final project

FINAL EXAM PERIOD: PARTING WORDS/PRESENTATIONS OF FINAL PROJECTS
- Final project due. You will proudly show your classmates your completed kits.

XII. Policies and Procedures
Additional Policies
What I Expect From You
- Class starts on time. You don’t have to ask me for permission to come to class, leave early or come late, or provide a written excuse. I leave those decisions to you. You receive no credit for in-class work that day. There is no make-up for material we cover in a class you miss.
- Assignments are due to me at the time I designate. All assignments must be complete and typed, with no handwritten edits. Assignments completed not following directions will be graded lower. If you are absent, you are responsible for getting me your homework by the due date/time. No late assignments are accepted.
- There will be no make-ups for the midterm. There will be no extensions for the final project. You must complete the midterm and final project to pass the class.
- If you miss class, you are responsible for getting notes and assignments from a fellow student. I do not email notes or handouts.
- Class participation is expected and will help your final grade. Everyone is expected to contribute. Lack of participation will reduce your participation grade.
- No texting or any use of cell phones or other forms of electronic communication during class. Doing so will have a negative impact on your grade. Computers are for class work only. If I have to stop class to ask you to stop using your cell phone or other device, you will lose participation points for that class.
- There should only be one discussion going on at a time in class. Paying attention to the speaker, whether it is the instructor, fellow student or guest, is a sign of respect and professionalism. Disruptive behavior, such as talking out of turn and carrying on side conversations, will negatively impact your grade.
- The syllabus is our guideline and will change during the course of the semester to accommodate current events and speaker schedules.
• You are expected to check BlackBoard every week for updates on homework and assignments. You are also responsible for checking your USC email account, which is how I will communicate with you.

What You Can Expect From Me
1. I am open to your questions and welcome the opportunity to discuss any issues concerning you. Reach out to me. I am here for you. beyahc@usc.edu
2. I am fair. When you get an assignment back from me, you should have a good idea why you earned the grade you did and what can be done to improve your writing. However, if things are not clear, let’s talk. The more discussion, the better the understanding.
3. This syllabus is a general guideline for what we will cover during the semester. There will be in-class writing, homework and other assignments. Please suggest topics that are of interest to you and I will do my best to incorporate those ideas into assignments so that we can broaden our horizons into more diverse writing.
4. I’ll guide you along to improve your writing, but feel free to help guide our discussions. Bring to class your questions, observations and opinions about how you see the role of public relations at work in the real world. Our most pertinent and interesting class time will come from what’s happening in our world today.
5. I am available for questions and conversations by appointment. Ready access is through email. I will respond to all messages, unless my message service indicates otherwise.

Communication
I am always available to speak or meet with students to answer questions, review assignments, or share career advice. Please feel free to contact me by email to set up a time to meet. I do my best to reply to all emails within 48 hours.

Internships
The value of professional internships as part of the overall educational experience of our students has long been recognized by the School of Journalism. Accordingly, while internships are not required for successful completion of this course, any student enrolled in this course that undertakes and completes an approved, non-paid internship during this semester shall earn academic extra credit herein of an amount equal to 1 percent of the total available semester points for this course. To receive instructor approval, a student must request an internship letter from the Annenberg Career Development Office and bring it to the instructor to sign by the end of the third week of classes. The student must submit the signed letter to the media organization, along with the evaluation form provided by the Career Development Office. The form should be filled out by the intern supervisor and returned to the instructor at the end of the semester. No credit will be given if an evaluation form is not turned into the instructor by the last day of class. Note: The internship must by unpaid and can only be applied to one journalism or public relations class.

Statement on Academic Conduct and Support Systems
a. Academic Conduct

Plagiarism
Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Part B, Section 11, “Behavior Violating University Standards” policy.usc.edu/scampus-part-b. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct.

USC School of Journalism Policy on Academic Integrity
The following is the USC Annenberg School of Journalism’s policy on academic integrity and repeated in the syllabus for every course in the school:

“Since its founding, the USC School of Journalism has maintained a commitment to the highest standards of ethical conduct and academic excellence. Any student found plagiarizing, fabricating, cheating on examinations, and/or purchasing papers or other assignments faces sanctions ranging from an ‘F’ on the assignment to dismissal from the School of Journalism. All academic integrity violations will be reported to the office of Student Judicial Affairs & Community Standards (SJACS), as per university policy, as well as journalism school administrators.”

In addition, it is assumed that the work you submit for this course is work you have produced entirely by yourself, and has not been previously produced by you for submission in another course or Learning Lab, without approval of the instructor.

Breaking Bread Program [undergraduate students only]
https://undergrad.usc.edu/faculty/bread/

The Breaking Bread Program is designed to provide individual undergraduate students with an opportunity to meet and have scholarly discussions with faculty members outside of the normal classroom setting. Through this program, students and faculty enjoy good company and great conversation by literally “breaking bread” over a meal together and USC will pick up the tab! Your meal event can take place anywhere outside of the normal classroom setting. Your venue can be a restaurant or eatery on or off-campus.

XIII. About Your Instructor

Clarissa Beyah is currently the Chief Communications Officer of Union Pacific railroad and a Professor of Professional Practice at USC.

Clarissa’s expertise spans professional services, healthcare, technology, transportation and utilities sectors. Clarissa is the President and Founder of the Writer's Block Ink – a nonprofit organization dedicated to cultivating and launching diverse young leaders using the arts. Since its inception 17 years ago, the Writer’s Block has helped more than 1,000 at-risk youth use the arts to transform their lives.

Clarissa has led teams on nearly every continent and served as a chief communication advisor for numerous Fortune 50 companies. Some of her prior roles include Vice President, Global Communications, Aon; Vice President, Pepco Holdings Communications, Exelon; Chief Communications Officer, GE Transportation; Global Communications Leader GE Healthcare IT; and Vice President, Corporate Communications, Northwestern Mutual. Clarissa spent a decade at Pfizer and held several roles including head of Communications for Europe and of Pfizer’s first generics business unit, which grew from $2B to $18B in four years.

Clarissa is an educator with a passion for engaging and empowering youth. She founded the Writer’s Block Ink to help at-risk youth ignite social change on the page and stage. Writer’s Block productions address social issues ranging from domestic abuse to genocide. Youth enter as artists and rise to become leaders. Past Writer’s Block participants hold community leadership roles across the nation.
PR 209 FINAL PROJECT: Detailed information kit

You will prepare a detailed information kit on an organization or person of your choice. You are responsible for researching and writing all the material. All content must be original.

The topic may reflect the type of public relations you think you might be interested in. For example, if you’re interested in corporate social responsibility, Tom’s Shoes or Ben & Jerry’s might be interesting organizations for you to examine. However, your kit should not be a mirror reflection of materials and strategies already employed by an existing company. Unless you select or create a brand-new organization, you should not plan to prepare a corporate information kit. Rather, you should select some new aspect of that organization to highlight. For example, Starbucks’ new philanthropy initiative (not real), or Lush Cosmetics’ partnership with Time’s Up (also not real).

While this is primarily a writing course, we also expect you to begin thinking creatively about how you would package and distribute your kit. To earn an A on this project, you must show some evidence of your intent to package/distribute it.

Writing should be your own. Your materials should not be a repackaging of information already created by another company. Please, no organizations or persons that are USC and/or campus-related.

Required Elements – All kits must include:

1. Strategic-style memo to the client/boss/instructor explaining the purpose of the kit and how it fits your overall public relations strategy. The memo should outline the details of your strategy, tactics, audience and distribution. Tell me what each piece is meant to accomplish, for whom and how that audience is meant to get your information. Maximum length: three pages.
   a. Include in your memo a list of all the other materials you would include if you were doing a complete kit. This list would include additional written sections, photos or graphics, etc. Include a sentence or two of description as needed. This is where you would demonstrate your grasp of strategy and how you would create a plan that goes beyond the basic requirements of the project.
2. An FAQ or Q&A that could be published as a printed document or posted on a website. Choose the option that most fits your topic. Minimum: eight questions.
3. A fact sheet of some kind, either about the organization, about the specific purpose or a topic that enhances your subject. Minimum: two pages.
5. A PowerPoint or Keynote deck that you will use to present to the class. The deck should provide contextual information to help your audience (your classmates) understand why you chose this topic, how it relates to the “bigger picture” of world news, and why it’s newsworthy. It should be a maximum of 10 slides. You should plan to speak for about 10 minutes on Zoom.
Additional Elements

In addition, the kit must include two additional elements. Among your options:

1. Pitch letter. Maximum: one page
2. A formal bio. Maximum: two pages
3. An additional fact sheet. It must be completely different than #3 in the required elements. Do not have any duplicate information from your required fact sheet. This could include a Q&A if you are doing an FAQ as a required element, or vice versa.

Important!

- Clean copy is a must. Your grade will be lowered if your copy is sloppy.
- Showcase substance. Visuals are an important element, but don’t try to hide a lack of substantive copy with overuse of visuals. Visuals should complement the story, not overpower it.
- When I say one page or two pages, they must be FULL pages.
- Documents should be single-spaced, with one-inch margins on all sides.
- Please do not plagiarize. Acceptable: You may borrow basic template language about an organization like the company boilerplate. Unacceptable: You may not copy and paste an interview that exists online and pass it off as your own.
