

EMBODIMENT DISABILITY GENDER

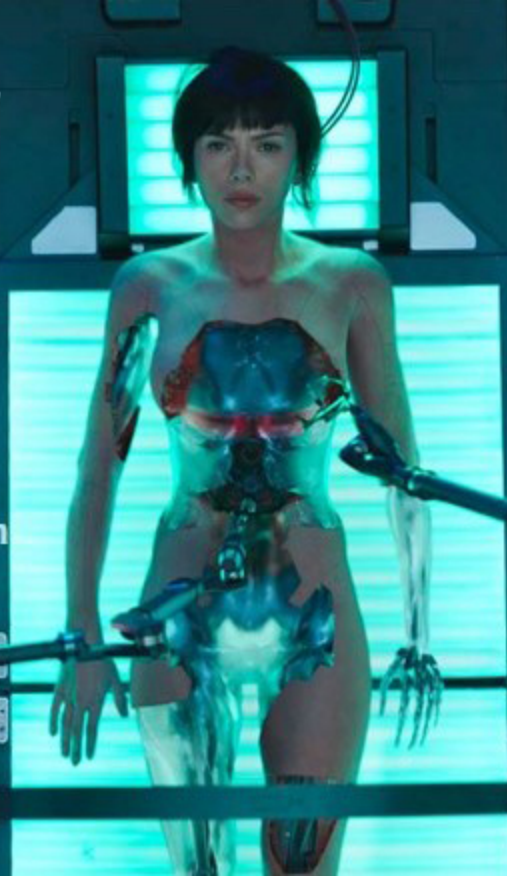

IML 420, Section 37438

Thursdays, 9:00 am - 12:50 pm

4 units

Professor Slava Greenberg

No D-Clearance Required

What are the bodies that we fear the most? Where does the body end and our devices begin? Can technology fix our bodies?

The course provides theoretical and analytical tools to tell the story of our own bodies and how they interact with the world through senses, skin, prosthetics, and technology.
