Course Description

This course continues the comprehensive actor training method employing voice, speech and acting anchored by rigorous and meticulous physical movement begun in 215A. While continuing specific focus on training the actor’s physical instrument emphasizing observation techniques, iconic gesture, alignment principles and minimizing the learned habits inhibiting physical choices, 215B expands into the areas of period and style. This class emphasizes the importance of time, place, and historical, environmental and spatial influences as essential elements in the actor’s movement choices and physical acting.

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of studies in 215b:

1. The student will have continued undertaking physically transformative characterization efforts. Through two different characterization exercises, they will have included period/different time/different place influences to have developed structural and behavioral traits of character.
2. The student will have researched, acquired objects and/or constructed the physical components of the environment for each text that is the source of their characterizations and performed excerpts in these environments.
3. The student will have, in written form, utilized the movement vocabulary introduced in 115a, b and 215a to observe, analyze and hypothesize the causal principles of physical communication that completes meaning when speaking text.

Learning Aspirations

1. To cultivate a pervasive “questioning” state of mind predicated on a commitment to taking responsibility for one self.
2. To continue development of a process through which breaks inhibiting habitual movement patterns in order to allow unencumbered choice, conscious control, and spontaneity in movement.
3. To recognize the importance of and exhibit competency in determining the necessary behavioral, environmental and spatial choices as they relate to:
 - a. The “reality of doing” principle with different time/different place givens.

- b. Making of “meaning” through period movement (story and relationship connotations).
- c. The active pursuit of character objective within a period text.
- d. History, period, style and or genre.
- e. Continued integration of the mechanics of movement into performance.

Prerequisite(s): THTR 115A, THTR 115B, 120A, 140A, 215A, 220A, 240A

Co-Requisite (s): NA

Concurrent Enrollment: THTR 220b, THTR 240b

Recommended Preparation: N/A

Course Notes

The principles introduced in Movement II are processes that take time to absorb and understand. Remain patient, positive and curious about the work. Remember the results are not instantaneous. Your commitment to a physically oriented process is of much greater importance than a definitive result. Resist judgment and expectation of any particular outcome. Explore. Play. Be fearlessly inventive within the parameters given. Each student works and learns in a unique manner.

- The Expressive Body by David Alberts – Recommended (should have from fall semester)
- The Seagull by Chekhov (Signet Classic) or a text decided upon by the ensemble- Required
- Daily Life in Russia Under the Last Tzar by Henri Troyat-Recommended if the ensemble chooses Chekhov.
- In addition, the Instructor may supply necessary handouts and excerpts from suitable sources throughout the semester.
- Period research materials as sourced by texts chosen and/or suggested to explore.

Description and Assessment of Assignments and Schedule (Due Dates)

A. Practical Assignments & Schedule

- Various out of class observation/research assignments throughout semester as necessary for class work. Assessment: formative only.
- Continuation of your movement observation journal. Assessment: summative (10pts). Due: Thurs. April 29th

In addition to class notes and other acquired pertinent information to your movement study the journal has two components:

- a. Personal Observation & Assessment of your movement discoveries, difficulties and questions. Include associations between your areas of study throughout the semester. These notes will aid in personal integration of the disciplines (5 of the above 10pts).

- b. Continuation of Iconic Study. Select a film performance by an actor who utilized the techniques of iconic physical work to prepare and actualize transformation to the role (5 of the above 10pts).
- i. Watch the film and analyze the actors' process from your own observation of the performance, then research any and all sources available to you to find documentation of the actor's actual process of transformation. You may find written accounts from press junkets where the actor was interviewed, perhaps the director of the film can be found discussing the actor's process...if the performance is by an actor of lasting significance you undoubtedly can find extensive documentation on the artists transformational process not only in the role you've chosen to scrutinize but in other performances from his/her body of work. Feel free to compare/contrast if you find the research pertinent. Be curious and inventive in researching/seeking this information.
 - ii. Research briefing in class. Bring in an excerpt of your chosen performance. Show 2-3 min. of the work and then talk to us about how the performer achieved his/her transformation.
 - iii. Document your discoveries about, and reactions to, this actor's use of transformational physical work in your journal. Do the accounts surprise you, inspire you and, in any way, affect your opinion of the authenticity of the performance? How so? Does the actor utilize any techniques you might find useful in your work?
- Ensemble Sourced Scenes brought to class for initial reading. Due: Tues., Feb. 2nd. Assessment: Formative only.
 - Scene Pairs present research briefings on scenes. Due: Feb. 9th, 11th, 16th. Assessment: Formative towards the end of revision for the summative assessment at midterm submission.
 - Character Iconic Imagery, Goody Bag materials, levels of objectives. Due: Feb 16th&18th. Assessment: Formative towards the end of revision for the summative assessment at midterm submission and scene share.
 - Scenes first share. Due: Feb. 23rd and 25th. Assessment: Formative towards the end of revision for the summative assessment at midterm submission and scene share.
 - Scene re-works. Due: March 2nd & 9th. Assessment: Formative only towards the end of revision for the summative assessment at midterm share.
 - Research Briefs of Film Physical Perf. Due: Thurs. March 4th & 11th. Assessment: Formative towards the end of revision/additions for the summative assessment at semester end when grading the journal.
 - Scenes Midterm Showing. Accompanying paperwork/research. Due: Tues., March 16th and Thurs., March 18th. Assessment: Summative (20pts-10pts live share/10pts paper packet)
 - "Rag Scene" selection to class. Due. March 25th Assessment: Formative Only. Select a scene from a different time, different place (period) play. Only parameters are that the scene should be a two-hander and from prior to 1900...
 - After the "Millennium Project: One Thousand Years of Theatre" is explained

March 30th and groups assigned, select your text for exploration, choose a scene and the nature of your project. Introduce your project objective and be ready for an initial read of your scene in class Thurs. 4/1. Assessment: Formative only

- Project Workshops. Due: April 6th, 8th, 13th and 15th. Assessment: Formative towards the end of revision for the summative assessment at midterm submission and scene share.
- First Present Millennium Project. Due: Tues., April 20th. Assessment: Formative towards the end of revision for the summative assessment at midterm submission and scene share.
- Final Exam. Millennium Project Scene Presentation Due: Wed., May 12th, 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. Assessment: Summative

B. Written Assignment (specifics elaborated) and Schedule

- Scene Paperwork

Paperwork to accompany each scene (Midterm and Millennium Project) includes:

- i. A working copy of your script with operative and image words circled, beat changes and status changes noted.
- ii. Physical choice commitments. Iconic picture of your character, structural and behavioral choices, physical typing (Mirror Process from last semester).
- iii. Environment / spatial decisions (your Do Re Mi's)
- iv. Of paramount importance in 215B: All research pertaining to period, style, and historical givens as they affect the physical world of your text. Follow our 215b physical approach guidelines for scene work (class handout).
- v. Please assemble your scene paperwork into an organized format. We are working to establish order and documentation to your evolving process.
Due: On final share day of your scene.

- Personal Journey Summary

- i. Discuss your personal journey in the physical acting process we've explored together this year. Where did you start? Where are you now? Where do you need to go from here? Do you look at movement and physical acting from any different perspective from the one you had in August of 2019? Take time to review your 28 weeks in 215A and 215B (Movement II) AND remember you have an additional 15 weeks of process and progression from our encounters in 115A & B (Movement I)! Please consider all portions of your BFA movement training to date in your reflection. Of particular interest are associations made between movement study covered in your program and application to other areas of your BFA curriculum and rehearsal/performance processes. The aim of this summary exercise is to move to a point of clarity about the work through written articulation of a visceral experience. Length of the paper is whatever length you need to articulate your experience. Due: Final

Class Meeting, Thurs. April 29th.

- Journal/Iconic Performance Research Due: Last day of class. Thurs., April 29th.

- Attendance, Time Requirements and Additional Policies (Failure to adhere to the following guidelines will significantly affect the Class work portion of your grade.)
 1. Students should dress in movement attire for movement vocabulary work. It is of the utmost of importance to be able to observe physique and form. Sweats, athletic shorts, yoga pants/leggings and non-baggy T's are appropriate. No jeans. No belts. Character studies require attire / costuming that supports movement choices/genre/period requirements.
 2. The period/style/genre aspect of the class will require inventive use of available

- “found” garments and props to simulate the period needs of the texts we’re exploring (see Goody Bag addendum)
3. Students are expected to be in the classroom (virtual or on ground), dressed, and ready to work by 1p.m. sharp.
 4. Attendance is mandatory.
 5. Three episodes of tardiness equal 1 absence.
 6. Late work will be accepted at the discretion of the instructor. and then will be reflected in the grade by docking no less than 2 points per day.
 7. Check email and Blackboard. Important class notices/announcements may be relayed in this way.
 8. Cell phones are to be turned off and put away for the duration of class.
