Course Description and Overview

This course will offer a specific look at the art of Standup Comedy and serve as a laboratory for creating original standup material: jokes, bits, chunks, sets, while discovering your truth and your voice. Students will practice bringing themselves to the stage with complete abandon and unashamed commitment to their own, unique sense of humor. We will explore the “rules” that facilitate a healthy standup dynamic and delight in the human connection through comedy. Students will draw on anything and everything to prepare and perform a three to four minute set in front of a worldwide Zoom audience.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- Implement the comic’s tools: notebook, mic, stand, “the light”, and recording device
- List the elements of a joke and numerous joke styles
- Execute the stages of standup: write, “get up”, record, evaluate, re-write, get back up
- Identify style, structure, point of view, and persona in the work we admire
- Demonstrate their own point of view and comedy persona (or character)
- Differentiate audience feedback (including heckling) using sight and sound
- Use improvisation, crowd work, and editing as needed
- Demonstrate being an active listener, offering “pitches” and support
- Participate in constant, constructive evaluation of their work
- Create a three to four minute standup act

Required Reading

I Can’t Make This Up: Life Lessons by Kevin Hart (Audiobook encouraged)

Born Standing Up: A Comic’s Life by Steve Martin (Audiobook encouraged)

The Comedians: Drunks, Thieves, Scoundrels and the History of American Comedy by Klyph Nesteroff (Audiobook available)

Recommended Reading

Dear Girls: Intimate Tales, Untold Secrets & Advice for Living Your Best life by Ali Wong (Audiobook encouraged)

Daily Rituals: How Artists Work by Mason Currey

Sick in the Head: Conversations About Life and Comedy by Judd Apatow

How to Succeed in Business Without Really Crying by Carol Leifer

Funny on Purpose: The Definitive Guide to an Unpredictable Career in Comedy: Standup + Improv + Sketch + TV + Writing + Directing + YouTube By Joe Randazzo

Recommended Preparation

STAY HEALTHY. Come to each class, prepared. Be on time. Turn your camera on.

Ideally, find a small space where you feel free to express yourself and play.

Come willing to take risks, be silly, honest, inquisitive, and supportive.

Except for water, no food or drinks are allowed during Zoom class at any time.

Absolutely no distractions. No social media, visiting with roommates, family members, or side chats with classmates while in class, especially when a comic is “on stage”.

We will take a 10-minute break midway through the class so you can eat, chat, etc.

Description of Grading Criteria and Assessment:

Grades are not dictated by the success of comedy presentations or the instructor’s subjective opinion of talent or sense of humor.

Grades are dictated by:

Points. Each aspect of class has a point value: participation, in-class exercises and assignments, Midterm, Show, and Final. I provide options to make up 15 points total per semester. More details listed under “Make-Up Options”.

Be advised: auditing students observe but do not participate.

Participation (14% of total grade):

- In-class active student analysis of presented materials such as text and video clips
- Constructive feedback on classmates’ comedy presentations
- Willingness to experiment and apply the constructive feedback of instructor and other students to one’s own work
- If a student is late or leaves early, they will lose their participation point for that day

Exercises and Assignments (46% of total grade):

- Due to the live performance aspect of standup comedy, exercises and homework assignments will be presented in class, no video submissions accepted
- If you cannot commit to being in this class, on time, please wait for another semester
- Student invests fully, striving to make a connection with the crowd and improve over time
- If a student misses an exercise or assignment, student accepts that they have missed their opportunity to perform (stage time) and will lose points which will impact their grade

Midterm (15% of total grade):

- The Midterm presentation is worth 15 points, presented in class w/no paper component
- No video submission of presentation accepted, except example video requirement
- If you miss the Midterm, you lose 15 points, which will greatly impact your grade
- The policy for tardiness/leaving early (pg. 4) applies to the Midterm, as well
- No phones or papers, but you may hold 3x5 or 5x7 index cards

Show (15% of total grade):

- You must perform in the Zoom Show, it is worth 15 points
- You may sub into another class’ show, provided there is room in that show
- You may choose to do less time, but let’s talk about it before you decide

Final (10% of total grade):

- The Final is a paper worth 10 points, due at the beginning of the 2-hour Final period, and must be at least 500 words
- The Final will be submitted electronically, via Blackboard
- Tech problems happen during Finals week, please plan ahead. No late papers accepted
- Not handing in a paper will result in a loss of 10 points, which will impact your grade

Make-up options:

- If you miss an in-class exercise or assignment, you may make up 15 points, total, by Thursday, May 29th at 11:59pm. No submissions accepted after this day and time.
- You may make up 8 points by doing a non-USC open mic or booked show.
- You may make up 6 points by doing a USC open mic or booked show.
- You must send a Zoom screengrab and a clip of your set.
- You must post both items AND a paragraph (at least 5 sentences) on the experience to the entire class, and me, via the specific discussion board on Blackboard.
- Technical/posting issues will result in a loss of points, leave time to figure it out.
- You may make up 2 points by switching sections, if there is room available that day.
- You may make up 3 points by watching a live stand up show and sending a picture and paragraph (at least 5 sentences) to the entire class via the Blackboard discussion board.
- Make-up points cannot take you over 100 points, 100 points is the maximum
- Make-up points do not count toward the Show, you must do the show

Grading Scale:

Excellent: A (4) = 100-96; A- (3.7) = 95-90

Good: B+ (3.3) = 89-86; B (3) = 85-84; B- (2.7) = 83-80

Average: C+ (2.3) = 79-76; C (2) = 75-74; C- (1.7) = 73-70

Poor: D (.7-1.3) = 60's

Fail: F (0) = 59 and below

Further Grading Notes:

- If your work in class is unsatisfactory, you will be warned before the deadline for dropping the course with a "W", April 9th. I will discuss your work at any time.
- Auditing students attend class strictly as an observer and will not participate.

Assignment Submission Policy

This is a live performance class, no video submissions of presentations or exercises.

ATTENDANCE

Absences:

Developing stand up material and style depends on consistent writing (usually as homework) and “getting up” (performing in class). Each class helps you build and refine material over time. Be advised: if you miss a class, points awarded that day for performing your stand up material in class and being an active, supportive audience member will be lost. I provide make-up options should you need to miss a class, or two. But things happen, save missing class for emergencies.

Tardiness/leaving early:

Everyone gets up each class. Names are picked “lottery” style. When you are late or leave early it is unprofessional, disruptive, and unsupportive. Committing to this class means being here from 10am to 12:50pm. If you arrive after 10:05am you will lose your participation point for the day. Students arriving late are put at the end of the lottery and may not get up, depending on time. I take the late people last, in the order they arrived. Students choosing to leave early lose their participation point and risk not getting picked before they have to leave. If you do not get up before you leave, you lose all the points for the day. I do, however, try my best to get you all up. I realize things happen and will try to make time for you. Be mindful of days that have more points. I end class at 12:40pm to give homework. Everyone who comes to class on time and stays the duration will get up. Anyone who is late/leaving early may or may not get up, depending on time and running order. If you are not in class for the homework refer to this syllabus or contact another student before contacting me. Make the choice to be in class on time, and stay.
