Italian Julymester Online

July 19–August 13, 2021

The Department of French and Italian offers students the opportunity to study Italian language and culture online. No previous knowledge of Italian is required. Students enroll in one course. Online art history lessons, social events with Italian university students, a cooking class and other experiential learning opportunities online are included in the courses and in the cost of tuition. The four-week program is offered at the undergraduate level and the 4 units are included in the tuition and fees for the fall semester (please contact Dr. James M. Fortney, Department of French and Italian, Taper Hall 155H, fortney@usc.edu for more information and for details on issues concerning fall financial aid disbursement for the Julymester).

ENROLL IN ONE COURSE: ITAL 120: Italian I (4 units), ITAL 150: Italian II (4 units), ITAL 220: Italian III (4 units) OR ITAL 347: Youth, Family, and Migration (4 units, course in English)

ESTIMATED PROGRAM COSTS: USC Tuition (included in the fall semester).

TIME 9:00am–1:00pm Monday–Friday

No application necessary. Please write the Department of French and Italian (irish@usc.edu) to request a D-Clearance for the course that you would like to enroll in during the Julymester. If you are also planning on enrolling in the next level of Italian in the regular Fall semester please include that information as well. Be sure to include your USC ID number in your email.
