Do you want to learn how to transform a social change idea into a news item? Or how to mobilize your family and friends?

In the course, you will learn how to use classical spokesmanship tools, e.g. press releases and op-eds, as well as social media tools, e.g. memes, gifs, and videos to promote social change. The course will also provide transnational perspectives on media and activism.