Course Syllabus

Spring 2022

Units: 2.0

Instructor: JoAnna Hardy

Email: hardyjoa@usc.edu

Office Hours: by appointment

Sections: 50034 (Tuesday 3-4:50) & 50036 (Thursday 3-4:50)

Room: 50034: CPA 202 50036: GFS 111

Course Description: Situated in the mind-body branch of the USC Physical Education Program, this experiential course is an introduction to mindfulness. Through it, students will learn the principles of practice, develop their own meditation practice, and apply principles to daily life. They will learn strategies to skillfully work with thoughts, emotions, and sensations, while developing their capacity to enhance mind-body awareness of present-moment experience. They will study theory and research in the field of mindfulness and the emerging science that shows promising, beneficial effects for physical and mental health and well-being. This course is designed for beginners and is also suitable for those with experience who want to refine their practice. Classes consist of a combination of lecture, practice, and discussion.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Synthesize theory, practice, and research in mindfulness and apply understanding to individual practice.
2. Develop and sustain personal meditation practice.
3. Investigate mind-body awareness and connection and apply principles to enhance capacity for presence, connection, openness, and curiosity in experiences.
4. Describe and apply mindfulness principles to skillfully cultivate focus and concentration, including as they relate to working with emotions, thoughts, and sensations.
5. Describe and apply mindfulness principles as they relate to self-regulation in navigating difficult emotions and thoughts, including stress and anxiety.
6. Identify and apply techniques to skillfully cultivate emotions of well-being, such as kindness, compassion, joy, and equanimity.
7. Apply mindful awareness in daily life, including as it relates to:
 - a. clarity in decision making and problem solving to skillfully respond, rather than react, to complex situations.
 - b. interpersonal relationships and relational mindfulness practices of active listening and mindful communication.
 - c. navigating change, time management, and exploring what it means to have a conscious and purposeful relationship with technology.

Relevant Physical Education Department Objectives:

1. Students will understand the importance of sound health and fitness principles as they relate to better health and will be able to recognize the physical and mental benefits of increased activity.
2. Student will be exposed to a variety of activities providing them the opportunity to participate in a motivating and nurturing environment resulting in a greater sense of well-being.
3. Students will demonstrate proficiency through knowledge and acquired skills enabling them to develop an appreciation of physical activity as a lifetime pursuit and a means to better health.

Acknowledgement:

Though our program here is secular, it is with an acknowledgement for the roots mindfulness has in Buddhist philosophy, which emerged in the context of an ancient India where Hinduism, Jainism, yoga, asceticism, and other traditions were practiced. Certain practices and ideas have evolved and been carried across time and geography and have been adapted here for a foundational, interdisciplinary study. USC PE Mindfulness would also like to acknowledge and honor the ancestral and unceded land of the Tongva people that our university sits on. For at least 9,000 years, they stewarded the land we call Southern California along with their neighbors the Chumash, Tataviam, Kitanemuk, Serrano, Cahuilla, Payomkawichum, Acjachemen, Ipai-Tipai, Kumeyaay, and Quechan peoples. Communication: I encourage students to reach out by email and will try to respond as soon as possible, and within 48 hours.

Reflection and Evaluation: Reflection is an integral part of the learning and teaching process. As such, you will complete a series of reflections on your practice through the course. We will also complete mid- and end-of-course evaluations for the course so that it can best serve the needs of students. Please feel free to also communicate feedback to me through the semester in person or by email.

Online Etiquette (if online): Your presence and engagement are as important online as in a physical classroom. Please plan to have screens on when possible and be on time to class. Once class has begun, it may take time to be admitted if meditation is in progress. Mute when not speaking to minimize background noise.

In-Peron Policies: To protect yourself and others, USC currently requires masking indoors for all individuals in campus facilities, including vaccinated and unvaccinated individuals. Please do not eat in class. If you are feeling sick, please do not come to class in person. Compliance with Trojan Check is required before entering campus. Students are expected to comply with all aspects of USC's COVID-19 policy. Failure to do so may result in removal from the class and referral to Student Judicial Affairs and Community Standards. For updates and information: <https://coronavirus.usc.edu>

Grades: The impact of your practice will be felt in how much effort, time, and awareness you choose to invest in it. Grades are based on your willingness to show up for your personal and class practice and are based on your approach to the following criteria:

1. Presence: time and awareness to show up for your practice
2. Effort: diligence and precision with which you practice
3. Curiosity: growth through a nonjudgmental approach
4. Kindness: choosing gentleness and patience over harshness towards body, mind, and practice

All work is due on the assigned date and is to be typed and submitted to Blackboard. Format: submit as a Word or PDF document, double-spaced, Times New Roman, 12-point font, 1" margins, MLA format. Due dates under course outline.

- 60 Points: Attend class and participate in sessions. 4 points for each week. It is the responsibility of each student to accurately sign in. Participation is an essential component of this course and serves to deepen student inquiry and reflection of the course material. Students need to be present in class to earn participation points. There will be an absence make-up opportunity in Module 5.
- 20 Points Each (100 points total): 5 Module Reflection Forms (for each of the 5 Modules). (Due Sunday midnight January 23; February 6; February 20; March 6; April 3). They include:
 - Daily personal meditation practice log. 5-10 minutes per day recommended time Modules 1, 2 (weeks 1-4); 10-15 minutes per day Modules 3, 4 (weeks 5-8); 15-20+ minutes/day Module 5 (weeks 9-15). Or, you may increase depth by a self-chosen amount of minutes each week. You are welcome to use an app, guided meditations, or break up the time through the day.
 - Rubric Criteria: 8-10 points for meditation practice (presence, effort); 2-2.5 points for each of the written responses (thorough, reflective).
 - Workbook prompts. Choose 2 questions from the module to answer.
 - Class reflection prompts. Submit a reflection from class each module. Can be typed or submitted as a picture included in your document.
 - Outside meditation class. Attend a meditation class outside ours. Include reflection in Module 4 (week 8) form.

- 40 Points. Mindfulness in Daily Life Group Strategy and Presentation. (Due Week of April 4 in class)
 1. Choose an area/topic in mindfulness you're interested in exploring with a group in Week 4. Areas of daily life can include relationships and communication, mindful eating, self-care and self-compassion, mindful technology use, mindful learning, mindful decision making, mindful movement, or social justice.
 2. Choose a mindfulness strategy to apply to an area of daily life you'd like to try out regularly for 5 weeks (daily or minimum 3x week). While groups will choose a shared topic to explore as a community, they may all employ different strategies within it. You are welcome to explore apps that track progress or enhance your experience.
 3. Organize a group in-class 15-minute per group presentation on your mindfulness topic and strategy. Include relevant research behind it (from credible, evidence-based sources; MLA format), reflections on how your strategy went, recommendations, or next steps. Presentations should be cooperative with each group member speaking, and interactive in nature (the class participates in the particular technique), and be visually displayed (ie. PowerPoint, Prezy, etc.).
Rubric Criteria: 8 points for each of the following:
 - Content: clearly and concisely convey thoughtful ideas and examples
 - Application: Understanding and application of mindfulness principles
 - Voice: volume, clarity, emotion
 - Stance: body language, eye contact, presence
 - Style: effort, creativity, organization, applicability, interactivity, collaboration

- 75 Points. Online Exam (Due Sunday, April 17 midnight). Based on content from reading, class content, and discussions. Be sure to stay current on course reading and material, as not all content on exam will be discussed in class.

- 25 Points. Meditation Final Reflection (Due last day of class midnight). Rubric Criteria: 5 points for each: Thorough, reflective, creative, understands and applies principles of practice.
