

Course Description

"Every true artist has deep within them the desire for Transformation" –Michael Chekhov

Working in stages with Metaphysical Mask, Neutral Mask, Larval Mask, Expressive Mask, and Character Half - Mask, the actors will explore how the Mask, body and imagination speak to the primal, organic and poetic forms of physical expression as an actor. Students will discover how the “story” lives in the body, and explore the methods by which one can explore character transformation from an initial base of neutrality. Mask work offers the opportunity to engage the actor into an examination and awareness of both the subtle and bold forms of expression in the body, voice and spirit. Mask work offers the opportunity to discover an awareness of habitual patterns in body expression and energy particular to each actor, arriving at a blank canvas on which to then build specific choices of body shape, body center, and specific emotional and psychological point of view to then artfully transform body, breath, voice and energy into a fully developed character that is specific , dynamic and a leap beyond the actors “everyday self” and comfort zones. A rigorous commitment is expected and required towards the goal of shedding habitual form and developing the tools and ability to shift these elements of being with specificity and imagination, leading to transformation of selfTheatre is a collaborative art form and we foster an inclusive learning environment that addresses integration of equity, diversity, and inclusion.

Learning Objectives

The work will engage the actors in Mask work that has its origins in the pedagogy of Jacques Copeau, Jacques LeCoq, and Libby Appel and also incorporate components of Michael Chekhov technique.

- Introduce and actively work with the fundamental principles of various forms and styles of Mask and experience their effect and value on the imagination and physical expression in developing the “poetic body” of the actor.
- Train through a series of exercises to strengthen spontaneity and imagination.
- Exploration of energy, connectivity and communion between the actors in relation to each other.
- Discover the unity of the actor’s instrument: body, mind, psyche – thus, exploring and developing its optimal potential.

- Explore the potential for character transformation through mask work, and the various external and internal degrees of that work.
- Cultivate an awareness and control of the actor’s vocal and physical apparatus.
- Apply the work to scenes both masked and unmasked, exploring different levels of theatricality.

USC technology rental program

If you need resources to successfully participate in your classes, such as a laptop or internet hotspot, you may be eligible for the university’s equipment rental program. To apply, please submit an application. The Student Basic Needs team will contact all applicants in early August and distribute equipment to eligible applicants prior to the start of the fall semester.

- Expressive Mask exploration..... 15 points
- MID-TERM (Half Character Mask) 20 points
- FINAL (specifics TBD)20 points
- Cumulative Active Class Participation, Contribution15 points
- TOTAL 100 points

PARTICIPATION

Acting is a subjective art form and you will be graded not on your talent, but rather on your growth, willingness to risk, and your participation and commitment to yourself, your partners and the class as a whole. This is an experienced-based course and participation in class activities is essential for students to gain a deeper understanding of the work.

- Willingly engaging in and contributing to the overall experience of the group in a positive way. Your participation grade for this course is based on the following criteria:
 - Being present and available in mind and body and willing to physically participate in all the various forms of Mask work we are exploring
 - Engaging in and contributing to discussion in this exploratory eo
 - Attitude – Enthusiasm – Professionalism
 - Maintaining focus and concentration
 - RESPECT: always respect your classmates and instructor

- The nature of this work is incredibly personal and revealing. It can be exciting, hysterically funny, frightening and even painful. I expect that you fully engage in everything we do, and actively seek this excitement and intensity.

Grading Breakdown

Absences/Tardiness:

Learning in class depends on the layering of intellectual and emotional discovery resulting from the consistent active exploration of 100% of the Ensemble No absences or tardies are allowed. Cumulative active class participation points will be lost. Participation is weighted at no more than 15% as per University Guideline

Grading Policy:

Grades are not dictated by the success of acting presentations or the instructor's subjective opinion of talent and artistic preference.

Grades are dictated by

- Participation, preparation, attendance
- Willingness to experiment and apply the constructive feedback of instructor and students on one's own scenes, presentations, and exercises
- Meeting all assignment deadlines: reading, writing, acting, scene and exercise presentations
- Application and understanding of methods being explored in class and in reading, to scene work and exercises

Grading Scale

Course final grades will be determined using the following scale

A	95-100
A-	90-94
B+	87-89
B	83-86
B-	80-82
C+	77-79
C	73-76
C-	70-72
D+	67-69
D	63-66
D-	60-62
F	59 and below

For all assignments points will be determined as follows:

100% - Excellent: clear understanding of the class material is coupled with original and creative insight and confident preparation

85% - Good: class material has been understood clearly and performed competently

75% - Average: class material has been generally understood, but gaps in understanding and performance remain

50% - Poor: there are identifiable gaps in the understanding of class material, as well as deficiencies in basic requirements such as memorization, blocking, etc.

0% - Unacceptable: work was not completed on time, with no communication with professor or student partners

Course Schedule: A Weekly Breakdown. NOTE: Since this is a live studio style class where we work on the craft live during class time this schedule is always subject to change

SDA PRODUCTIONS, ISPS, AND EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

SDA productions, ISPs and Extracurricular Activities* will not excuse you from any class work. There will be no exceptions made for absences in class, missed or delayed assignments, homework or lack of class participation resulting from your involvement in any of the above. Your grade will reflect your work in this class, independent from work in any other class or activity.

*Activities that have been officially sanctioned by the larger university (such as marching band, song girls, or varsity sports) are exempt. You must submit official documentation to your professor regarding your participation in an event prior to your absence.

Statement on Academic Conduct and Support Systems

Academic Conduct:

Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Part B, Section 11, “Behavior Violating University Standards” policy.usc.edu/scampus-part-b. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, <http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct>.

Statement for Students with Disabilities

Any student requesting academic accommodations based on a disability is required to register with Disability Services and Programs (DSP) each semester. A letter of verification for approved accommodations can be obtained from DSP. Please be sure the letter is delivered to me (or to TA) as early in the semester as possible. DSP is located in STU 301 and is open 8:30 a.m.–5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Website for DSP and contact information: (213) 740-0776 (Phone), (213) 740-6948 (TDD only), (213) 740-8216 (FAX) ability@usc.edu

Emergency Preparedness/Course Continuity in a Crisis

In case of a declared emergency if travel to campus is not feasible, USC executive leadership will announce an electronic way for instructors to teach students in their residence halls or homes using a combination of Blackboard, teleconferencing, and other technologies. See the university's site on Campus Safety and Emergency Preparedness.

Health and Participation in Class

You are expected to complete your Trojan Check screener daily and, as your instructor, I may ask you to show your daily screening in class. Your health and safety, and the health and safety of your peers, are my top priorities. If you are experiencing any symptoms of COVID-19, or if you discover that you have been in close contact with others who have symptoms or who have tested positive, you must follow the instructions on Trojan Check. My hope is that if you are feeling ill or if you have been exposed to someone with the virus, you will stay home to protect others. I will ensure that you can continue to participate in class remotely so that your education is not disrupted.

To reduce the spread of COVID-19, USC requires that face coverings (masks) be worn indoors including in classrooms. Face coverings must cover your nose and mouth and be worn throughout the class session. A mask with a valve is not considered an adequate face covering and should not be used, as it can expel exhaled air, increasing the risk to others. Eating or drinking during class is prohibited because of the risk posed by removing your mask for these activities. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in your being asked to leave the classroom immediately. Requests for accommodations related to the face covering and eating/drinking policies should be directed to the Office for Student Accessibility Services (<https://osas.usc.edu/>).

SDA Student Support & Reporting Form:

To facilitate a supportive environment of accountability, SDA has created an internal system of reporting for students to address issues/concerns and to offer feedback or suggestions for improvement. This mechanism provides a pathway for reporting and offering feedback without fear of retaliation or judgment. Any submission filed through this form will be reviewed and processed accordingly through SDA Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion.
