OVERVIEW

In this class students will learn to express their ideas through the language of cinema. The basic principles of cinematography, directing, editing, producing, and sound will be introduced, but the class does not aim to produce polished movies or moviemakers.

When you make narratives, we would like you to focus on the expressive potential of physical behavior; reveal emotions and ideas through what the characters do rather than say. Dialogue is used sparingly in 290; we make sound pictures, but not talking pictures.

The Golden Rule in Film: Show, Don't Tell.

Students are encouraged to explore alternative and non-traditional forms in Fictional Drama, Documentary, as well as Experimental and New Media.

The instructor and class will critique screened projects. The goal of these sessions is to provide constructive criticism that will improve the student filmmaker's understanding of the process and skills required to produce and consume movies.

By the end of the course, students should display basic competence in conceiving and developing movie ideas and in using the techniques of cinema and digital media to express themselves and communicate to audiences.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Understand and begin to apply the aesthetics of visual and aural communication through cinema.
- Use the creative interaction of image and sound for expressive purposes.
- Design and create cinematic structures.
- Introduce the basics of scriptwriting, producing, directing, cinematography, editing, and sound design, and their interrelationship in the creation of a cinematic project.
- Develop ideas into movies.
- Experiment with personal expression through cinema.
- Show skills in characterization and visual story telling.
- Recognize the potential of a variety of cinematic forms: experimental, documentary, animation...
- Deliver and receive effective critiques of work in progress.
- Establish ethical standards for movie making.
- Show ability to collaborate, to both lead and take direction on a crew.

Crit on Crits are due one week after the project is screened. Forms for both are at the end of the syllabus. All documents are to be TYPED and SUBMITTED IN DUPLICATE.
- Five-minute script for Crew Project
- USC Hotel Production Notebook

When doing your fictional projects, cast actors if you want performances – do not cast roommates, friends, and family—use the casting sources at SPO. Since you must operate camera, you are not permitted to act in your own movies.

ETHICS

It is extremely important that you protect your opportunity to learn and not hand it over to someone more experienced. We expect you to operate your own camera, plan your own lighting, etc. You may not have people from outside the film school or in advanced classes crew or edit for you; this is the equivalent of asking someone else to write a paper for you, which is a violation of academic integrity. We DO encourage you to help out on each other's shoots by carrying equipment, dressing sets, watching over safety, and so on; it's more effective and more fun!

HEALTH AND WELL-BEING

Cinema school is intense. One important aid in coping is managing one's time, energy, and health. Don't get overwhelmed. This translates into: scaling projects to do-able sizes; having back-up ideas, locations, equipment and actors in case of problems (weather, accidents, camera break-downs, etc.); realistically estimating time; protecting time to eat and sleep!

If you are feeling stressed out, please talk with your instructors or SA. Use office hours with Katy to have a private discussion about anything causing you stress. Call her in urgent situations.

USC also provides a Student Counseling service which has helped pull many students through rough spots; you can reach them at (213) 740-7711. Chances are that as the semester progresses you will be amazed at how much you are capable of and how quickly you are becoming a seasoned filmmaker.

GRADING BREAKDOWN

Final grades will be issued only upon completion of all required movies and documents; grades will be calculated on the following percentages or points:

Individual Exercise	10% (10 pts.)
Individual Project 1	20% (20 pts.)
Individual Project 2	20% (20 pts.)
Crew Project (Final Exam)	25% (25 pts.)
Documents*	15% (15 pts.)
Class participation	10% (10 pts.)

*The 15% of the overall grade for “Documents” is based solely on the percentage of times the student’s scripts, Personal Critiques, and Crit on Crits are delivered at the requested time. Blank or nonsensical documents will be considered late.

“Participation” is defined as constructive in-class activity, including, but not limited to, asking questions, giving constructive opinions on lessons and other students’ work.

Grading Scale

Course final grades will be determined using the following scale

A	95-100
A-	90-94
B+	87-89
B	83-86
B-	80-82
C+	77-79
C	73-76
C-	70-72
D+	67-69
D	63-66
D-	60-62
F	59 and below

PRODUCTION DIVISION (and Katy’s) POLICIES (You should read these!)

Students are expected to be on time and prepared for each class. Two unexcused absences will result in a student's grade being lowered by one full letter (i.e. an A becomes a B). A student's grade will be lowered by one full letter for each additional unexcused absence. Two late class arrivals equate to one full absence. Just come to class and be on time, it’ll be fun!

In order for an absence to be excused, the student must have approval in advance from me for a verifiable, good reason. Last-minute emails will never be excused.

Late Arrival: SEVEN minutes late constitutes an official late arrival. In cases where petty tardiness – i.e. of less than seven minutes becomes chronic, I will give one “warning”, and then I will assign penalties. SA will keep track of late arrivals.

Cell phones, tablets, laptops: Here’s my feeling: Cell phone usage during class is disrespectful to me, your fellow classmates, and the professional standards for which you all are striving. Absolutely no video or audio recording of class is permitted. Violation of this policy is subject to a discretionary grade deduction.

Deadlines Unexcused missed due dates for projects will always result in a reduction of your final grade. Missing deadlines is regarded as unacceptable in the industry – no studio, network or production company will ever say it’s ok to deliver a project late - and so it will be in this class.

If you know ahead of time that unavoidable circumstances will hinder the timely delivery of your work you must notify me immediately, and the circumstances must be verifiable. Only genuine “emergencies” beyond your control will be accepted.

Unforeseen Circumstances: If you have life problems or circumstances that might affect your work, please let me know in advance. I want to be understanding and helpful if I can. See me to make arrangements for deadline extensions. We’re all human.

10. No open-toed shoes on sets, stages, or around any heavy equipment.
11. Students may not go beyond the 50 Mile Studio Zone.

Failure to follow safety policies may result in:

1. Confiscation of the student's film.
2. Lowering of the student's grade. Serious violations will result in a grade of F for the project.
3. Suspension of the student's production number.
4. Class failure.
5. Appearance before the SCA Academic Violation Committee of both peers and faculty members.
6. Appearance before the University Judicial Affairs Committee.

All students must consult with the instructor on any shot that might raise a safety issue

If students are concerned about these matters in the classroom setting they are encouraged to contact their SCA Diversity and Inclusion Liaison, <http://cinema.usc.edu/about/diversity.cfm>; e-mail diversity@cinema.usc.edu. You can also report discrimination based on a protected class here <https://equity.usc.edu/harassment-or-discrimination/>

A student responsible for disruptive behavior may be required to leave class pending discussion and resolution of the problem and may be reported to the Office of Student Judicial Affairs for disciplinary action.
