Taking pictures is savoring life intensely, every hundredth of a second.
 –Marc Riboud (France, b. 1923-2016)

A poem is a mirror walking down a high street full of visual delight. Poetry is the essence of ideas before they are distilled into thought. Poetry is a book of light at night, dispersing clouds of unknowing. Poetry is emotion recollected in emotion.
 -Lawrence Ferlinghetti (US. b. 1919-2021)

The poet makes himself a seer by a long, prodigious, and rational disordering of all senses. –Arthur Rimbaud (France 1854-1891)

When people look at my pictures I want them to feel the way they do when they want to read a line of a poem twice. –Robert Frank (US, b. Switzerland, 1924-2019)

*A poem must resist the intelligence
 Almost successfully.* --Wallace Stevens (US, 1879-1955)

What is poetry? What are poetic images? The poetics of cinema? How are poetics engaged—especially by writer/directors—for intellectual, aesthetic, visceral, structural, emotional, and narrative purposes to create cinematic moments that resonate long after the film is over? Through the production of four short films in HD, students will investigate poetic cinema from four different perspectives: 1) found poetry, 2) applied poetry, 3) poetry as image, and 4) expanded cinema.

The found poetry exercise, “From the Street,” focuses on the appropriation and manipulation of vernacular text and images; the applied poetry exercise, “From the Word,” translates ideas from written poetry to image; the poetry as image exercise, “From the Light,” explores the image as text—especially in imagistic, expressionist films; the expanded cinema exercise, “With New Eyes,” synthesizes the abstract and mimetic traditions of cinema.

During our journeys into film production, we will screen and analyze selected works that embody a breadth of approaches, including works from the acknowledged poets of cinema, as well as younger generation, including: John Gianvito, Miranda July, Charlie Kaufman, and Michel Gondry.

With illustrated lectures, creative exercises, and discussions we will explore the relationships among poetic cinemas and the breadth of expression, including: painting, still photography, graphic art, music & collage –among them, the works of John Cage, Steve Reich, John Baldessari, Kurt Schwitters, Romare Bearden, Robert Frank, Henri Cartier-Bresson, Jackson Pollock, Ed Ruscha, and Barbara Kruger.

Poetic cinema will be explored in key texts, including David James’, “Allegories of Cinema,” David Bordwell’s “Ozu and the Poetics of Cinema,” Raul Ruiz’s “Poetics of Cinema,” and Andrei Tarkovsky’s “Sculpting in Time,” and discussions/lectures: “What is poetic cinema?,” “What is found there,” “Ideas and things,” “New eyes are ears,” “Emotion recollected in tranquility,” “Poetic images as narrative,” and “Light as text.”

The course will provide all needed production equipment and resources including instruction in HD capture, Avid Editing, and sound design. A background in filmmaking is not required to successfully engage with these projects, and students with creative experience in writing, photography, painting, sculpture, textiles, music, and graphic arts will find this approach to filmmaking accessible and cohesive. Students with backgrounds in theory and criticism will have the opportunity to bridge their studies with “hands on” experience.

Individual mentoring in film concept and structure will compliment the technical workshops in production and post-production. This is a unique opportunity to engage with filmmaking at its most refined level while immersed in the crafts of filmmaking.

Office Hours are arranged with Frasoni by appointment. I suggest you have at least one pre-production meeting with me during the semester. The SA is on-call throughout the semester to assist you with your projects.

Safety is our highest priority during production. Hazardous Shooting Conditions forms and procedures are required IN ADVANCE for any hazardous shooting conditions, especially scenes involving: vehicles, weapons, violence (real, impending or implied), weapons, water, sand, electricity, minors, animals. Please contact us well in advance if you have any questions about how to shoot anything safely.

COVID-19 PROTOCOLS: all films created by SCA students must follow our SCA Production Protocol. All students must sign the agreement on the class drive.

Permits: Check with the Student Production Office for the latest rules about shooting in L.A. Many locations do not allow filmmakers; many require permits or fees. In most cases if you are going to be visible by the public (on or off campus), you will need a permit. Many permits are free but are time-consuming.

Strict Limitations are an essential part of fostering creativity. Please do not augment your projects with additional resources and expenses without discussing with your faculty.

PRODUCTION HANDBOOK AND SAFETY GUIDELINES are available at <https://scacommunity.usc.edu/index.cfm>

OFFICE OF STUDENT ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES: Any student requesting academic accommodations based on a disability is required to register with this office each semester. A letter of verification for approved accommodations can be obtained from OSAS. Please be sure the letter is delivered to me (or the SA) as early in the semester as possible. OSAS is located at 3601 Watt Way GFS 120, and is open 8:30am-5:00pm Monday through Friday. The phone number for OSAS is 213-740-0776.

Statement on Academic Integrity

USC seeks to maintain an optimal learning environment. General principles of academic honesty include the concept of respect for the intellectual property of others, the expectation that individual work will be submitted unless otherwise allowed by an instructor, and the obligations both to protect one's own academic work from misuse by others as well as to avoid using another's work as one's own. All students are expected to understand and abide by these principles. Scampus, the Student Guidebook,

<https://policy.usc.edu/scampus/>

Students will be referred to the Office of Student Judicial Affairs and Community Standards for further review, should there be any suspicion of academic dishonesty.

Grading will be based upon student growth during the semester. It is required that all deadlines on the calendar are met. Incompletes or delays are only acceptable due to illness (Dr's note required).

Grade breakdown:

In-classes exercises, assignments, and readings:	15%
Project 1	15%
Project 2	15%
Project 3	15%
Project 4	20%
Class Participation	10%

PF 1.13.22

Collaboration

10%

Grading Scale

Course final grades will be determined using the following scale

A	95-100
A-	90-94
B+	87-89
B	83-86
B-	80-82
C+	77-79
C	73-76
C-	70-72
D+	67-69
D	63-66
D-	60-62
F	59 and below

Incomplete Grade (IN) - Grades of incomplete (IN) are given when a student cannot complete the course requirements as a result of a documented illness or an emergency occurring after the twelfth week of the semester. No more than one year is allowed for completion of an IN.

Production Division Attendance Policy

Students are expected to be on time and prepared for each class. Two absences will result in a student's grade being lowered by one full letter (IE: A becomes B). A third absence will result in a student's grade being lowered by one, additional full letter (IE: B becomes C). A student's grade will be lowered by one full letter for each additional absence. Two late class arrivals equate to one full absence.

If a student misses class due to an emergency, the student must contact the professor prior to class or contact the Production Office at 213-740-3317.

Each student will work on FOUR HD PROJECTS (individual or collaborative; feel free to form your own collaborations for each project)

- 1) Found Poetry: "From the Street" will focus on found, observed, and vernacular poets and poetry (5 min max)
- 2) Applied Poetry: "From the Word" will focus on translating written poetry to images (5 min max)
