"Acting is the simplicity and the complexity of TRUTH TELLING”

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course will lay out the foundational principles for studying the craft of Acting. We will explore this artform and discipline as a means of storytelling and performance. Our goal is to break down various pedagogical approaches, find a dynamic understanding of our instrument, and explore theories that will enhance our knowledge of the American theater. During the semester, we will utilize improv, sensory exercises, clowning, ensemble-based workshops, movement, text analysis, monologue coaching, and extensive Scene Study to sharpen our skills and approach to the work. Our hope is to BUILD the Body, OPEN the Voice and IGNITE the Imagination. We will strive every day to foster a safe space, where each artist can create and explore freely, in an environment that will also challenge their comfort zone. In addition to this, students will examine various forms of artistry, from solo show performance, poetry, and music. Actors are encouraged to lead with respect, generosity, curiosity, compassion, and courage so they can grow as an ensemble and cohort.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
By the end of this course students should be able to:
- Write & preform their own monologues.
- Lead their own personal warmups.
- Have a beginning framework of text analysis for the actor.
- Apply various techniques into daily acting exercises.
- Engage in play with openness, relaxation, healthy impulse and focus.
- Effectively practice the basic anatomy of a scene (Previous Circumstance, Given Circumstance, Wants, Objectives, Activity, Spatial Relationship & Actioning).

EXPECTATIONS
- Preparedness - There will be a high expectation of professionalism that will mirror the same standard as actors in the industry. Students will agree to show up on time, rehearse extensively outside of classroom hours, and do the work of taking care of your mind, body and soul with the same care as a fine-tuned instrument. Every class will begin with group warm up. Exploring foundations of voice, physicality, relaxation, concentration, imagination, focus, playfulness, and ensemble-building. Please come DRESSED WITH APPROPRIATE MOVEMENT ATTIRE!!

- Respect - The work we explore throughout the course of the semester will be raw, vulnerable, and honest. We cannot have breakthroughs if we don’t uphold a level of respect for each member of this cohort. This means attentiveness while your fellow ensemble mates are working, refrain from harsh language and bullying, showing compassion and understanding while people are learning, and being committed to conflict resolution when disagreements arise.

- Hard Work - Acting is a craft and should be treated as such. Though this career path can lead to a life in entertainment, not every entertainer is a true actor. Actors are athletes of the heart and soul. This art form takes a high level of diligence and dedication, it takes consistent study, focus, concentration, and resilience. Please do not disrespect the pioneers of this practice by not giving your maximum effort.

- Dignity & Integrity - When the world is in crisis, artists are called upon to put the mirror to humanity’s face. We are charged with the task to make people laugh, make people cry and to make people think. There will be a high emphasize on the responsibility of what it means to be an artist citizen. We will do the daily work on acknowledging the supernatural calling on our lives to tell other people’s stories. We will strive to do so with honor and with care.

- SAFE SPACE - There are two types of discomfort: 1. discomfort of the unfamiliar and 2. discomfort of UNSAFETY. We strive for the unfamiliar, this is where our best work lives, but we protect ourselves from the unsafety. The nature of our artform is one that calls us to dig deep into the untouched aspects of the human condition. Often times, this can bring up triggers for people in the room. I believe in pushing students to a place of growth that has been hidden deep within, but not at the expense of your mental health and your physical health. We will foster and create a community and culture of boundaries to ensure the safety of everyone.

REQUIRED READING
- “Words Become Flesh” by Marc Bamuthi Joseph (will be available via Blackboard)

COVID SAFETY
As of now University and CDC guidelines state that masks are encouraged but NOT required indoors. We will leave this to the digression of everyone’s personal comfort level. (Please see USC’s guidelines for Covid-19). I cannot control what you do outside of the classroom but please be mindful and move with an abundance of caution while in large groups on and off campus. Please be considerate of your fellow ensemble members.

ATTENDANCE POLICY
It is imperative that you do your best to remain healthy throughout the course of the semester so that you can be present for you cohort. In the event you are absent, it is your responsibility to refer to the syllabus for all homework assignments, and it is your job to confer with your fellow classmates about information that was given during class hours you missed.

SDA PRODUCTIONS, ISPs, AND EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

SDA productions, ISPs and Extracurricular Activities* will not excuse you from any class work. There will be no exceptions made for absences in class, missed or delayed assignments, homework or lack of class participation resulting from your involvement in any of the above. Your grade will reflect your work in this class, independent from work in any other class or activity.

*Activities that have been officially sanctioned by the larger university (such as marching band, song girls, or varsity sports) are exempt. You must submit official documentation to your professor regarding your participation in an event prior to your absence.

STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC CONDUCT AND SUPPORT SYSTEMS
Sharing of course materials outside of the learning environment
USC policy prohibits sharing of any synchronous and asynchronous course content outside of the learning environment.

S Campus Section 11.12(B)

Distribution or use of notes or recordings based on university classes or lectures without the express permission of the instructor for purposes other than individual or group study is a violation of the USC Student Conduct Code. This includes, but is not limited to, providing materials for distribution by services publishing class notes. This restriction on unauthorized use also applies to all information, which had been distributed to students or in any way had been displayed for use in relationship to the class, whether obtained in class, via email, on the Internet or via any other media. (See Section C.1 Class Notes Policy).

Academic Conduct
Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Part B, Section 11, “Behavior Violating University Standards” policy.usc.edu/scampus-part-b. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct.

Statement for Students with Disabilities
Any student requesting academic accommodations based on a disability is required to register with Office of Student Accessibility Services (OSAS) each semester. A letter of verification for approved accommodations can be obtained from OSAS. Please be sure the letter is delivered to me (or to TA) as early in the semester as possible. OSAS is located in GFS 120 and is open 8:30 a.m.–5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Website for OSAS and contact information: (213) 740-0776 (Phone), (213) 814-4618 (Video Phone), (213) 740-8216 (FAX) ability@usc.edu.

Emergency Preparedness/Course Continuity in a Crisis
In case of a declared emergency if travel to campus is not feasible, USC executive leadership will announce an electronic way for instructors to teach students in their residence halls or homes using a combination of Blackboard, teleconferencing, and other technologies. See the university’s site on Campus Safety and Emergency Preparedness.

Equity, Diversity & Inclusion + Intimacy in Theater Consent Culture Statement
Through our pluralistic approach of diverse pedagogies, methodologies, ideologies, and modalities of artistic expression, we invite(engage) and challenge students to expand their breadth and depth of knowledge, complexity, and range of the human experience. Even though we nurture, guide, and challenge our students to embrace the unknown or unfamiliar and step outside of their comfort zones through storytelling/art, we aim to practice effective strategies and offer tools to students mindful of their physical, psychological, social, and emotional wellbeing. In alignment with professional and industry standards, we will integrate core principles and techniques of Intimacy in Theater and Building Cultures of Affirmative Consent. This will provide agency, offer resources and support to the teachers, students, directors, and staff to establish healthy boundaries of consent when working on material that is physically, intimately, or emotionally charged content in both the classroom and production.

SDA Student Support & Reporting
To facilitate a supportive environment of accountability, SDA has created an internal system of reporting for students to address issues/concerns and to offer feedback or suggestions for improvement. This mechanism provides a pathway for reporting and offering feedback without fear of retaliation or judgment. Any submission filed through this form will be reviewed and processed accordingly through SDA Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion.
