External financial reporting refers to financial accounting information included within an organization's external financial reports such as SEC Form 10-K.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Develop capabilities to identify and articulate current external financial reporting challenges and issues, concentrating on operating, financing, and investing activities of primarily business enterprises, by solving problems and analyzing transactions.
- Be able to use accounting information, including the underlying professional standards required to prepare and report this information by using the FASB Codification ("ASC") and other authoritative sources (SEC), to analyze, guide and support a position taken on complex accounting matters.
- Analyze accounting information from the perspective of its various users (stakeholders) such as equity investors, creditors, company management and auditors, by preparing written and oral presentations based on information presented in cases, SEC Filings, articles discussing emerging accounting issues.
- Identify and describe differences between the various forms of business combinations by preparing business combinations worksheets resulting in the preparation of consolidated financial statements.
- Recognize and explain certain differences between U.S. and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) by using the FASB Codification, other U.S. authoritative sources to compare, identify and articulate areas of convergence and disagreement with IFRS.
- Apply ethical principles and professional standards in analyzing situations and making informed decisions.

Acct 370

COURSE NOTES:

This course will consist of class discussions, homework, quizzes, in-class exercises, presentations, two midterms, and a final examination. Students should attend class during the section for which they are officially enrolled. Class slides and other class information will be posted on Blackboard.

GRADING:

Assignments	Points	% of Grade
Three Exams
Midterm 1	100	25%
Midterm 2	100	25%
Final Exam	100	25%
Final Team Project	40	10%
Professionalism, in-class exercise & class participation	20	5%
Homework	20	5%
Group Assignments	20	5%
	400	100%

Final grades represent how you perform in the class relative to other students. Your grade will not be based on a mandated target, but on your performance. The average grade for this class is expected to average about 3.5. Three items are considered when assigning final grades:

1. Your score for each of the items above weighted by the appropriate factor and summed.
2. Your overall percentage score for the course.
3. Your ranking among all students in the course(s) taught by your instructor during the current semester.

The grade of “W” is allowed only if a student withdraws after the official add period and before the end of the drop period during the semester. The grade of incomplete (IN) can be assigned only if there is work not completed because of a documented illness or unforeseen emergency occurring after the drop period of the semester that prevents the student from completing the semester. An “emergency” is defined as a serious documented illness, or an unforeseen situation that is beyond the student’s control, that prevents a student from completing the semester. Prior to the end of the drop period, the student still has the option of dropping the class so incompletes will not be considered. Arrangements for completing an IN must be initiated by the student and agreed to by the instructor prior to the final examination. All work required to replace the IN with a final grade must be completed within one calendar year from the date the IN was assigned. If the student does not complete the work within the year, the IN will automatically be converted to a grade of F.

General descriptions on the components of your grade (team case and team project assignments, etc.) are given below:

Midterm Exams

There will be two midterm examinations given during the semester. These midterms will start at the beginning of class on the dates listed on the schedule. The midterms will emphasize material covered in lectures, homework assignments, and the text. The midterms may include multiple-choice questions, brief essay discussion questions, exercises and problems. In order to prepare for the midterm please make sure you understand the assigned readings and the concepts discussed in class.

There will be no make-up midterms. If you have to miss a midterm for a valid reason, the score earned on the final examination will be attributed to the missed examination. This policy is intended to accommodate sickness or other emergencies.

Final Exam

The final exam will include all material covered in the course subsequent to the second midterm examination. It will be of similar nature to the midterm examinations. The date and time of the final exam is listed below under “Course and Examination Schedule.”

Final Team Project

The final project will require students to work in teams to integrate the material learned during the semester in ACCT 470 to analyze an accounting issue. You will be graded on content (accuracy, completeness, etc.), writing style (grammar, consider your audience, etc.), professional appearance of your project, and the appropriate use of cited resources. More information about the final project will be discussed as the semester progresses. The due date for the written team assignment is Wednesday, April 26, 2023. Details on team makeup and size will be given to you during the semester.

Professionalism and Other Class Conduct

Professionalism will be expected at all times. Because the university classroom is a place designed for the free exchange of ideas, we must show respect for one another in all circumstances. We will show respect for one another by exhibiting patience and courtesy in our exchanges. Appropriate language and restraint from verbal attacks upon those whose perspectives differ from your own is a minimum requirement. Courtesy and kindness are the norms for those who participate in my class.

Please note that this is a residential class and in-person attendance is expected. Unless students provide an accommodation letter from USC OSAS requiring remote attendance, there is no option to attend class via Zoom. Class recordings will be provided on Blackboard for students who miss a class and would like to catch up with the class material. If you cannot attend the class, please e-mail as soon as possible so that I can provide you with an alternative assignment for class participation.

In-class Exercises

At various points during the semester, unannounced exercises will be introduced to provide students with examples of kind of material they should expect to see on exams. These exercises can be completed by ad hoc groups, of five members or less, using any course materials present (i.e., open book/open notes).

Homework

It is extremely important to complete the reading assignment and homework before class. Homework Assignments are required and due on Blackboard before class time. Homework assignments will be graded for effort not correctness. If you attempt each problem assigned, whether or not you get it right, you will receive full credit. No make-ups or alternative assignments will be accepted but you will be allowed to drop five homework grades. In other words, you need to complete 16 out of 21 homework assignments during the semester.

Group Assignments

The group assignments will be posted on Blackboard and will comprise of exercises, brief essay discussion questions and problems. Collaboration on these assignments is encouraged as working with other students can enhance the learning process. Please note that each student will need to submit their answers individually in order to receive credit. There will be total of three group assignments during the semester and you will be allowed to drop one group assignments.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

We are all living through unprecedented times and if needed, online lectures through Zoom will be provided in Blackboard. Therefore, you must have access to the Internet to view/hear lectures. No special software is required.

The lecture presentations, links to articles, assignments, quizzes, and rubrics are located on Blackboard. To participate in learning activities and complete assignments, you will need:

- Access to a working computer that has a current operating system with updates installed, plus speakers or headphones to hear lecture presentations;
- Reliable Internet access and a USC email account;
- A current Internet browser that is compatible with Blackboard (Google Chrome is the recommended browser for Blackboard);
- A working video camera with microphone for use on Zoom;
- Microsoft Word as your word processing program; and
- Reliable data storage for your work, such as a USB drive or Office365 OneDrive cloud storage.

If your computer does not have Microsoft Word, Office 365 package is available to you free of charge and allows you to install Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook, OneNote, Publisher, and Access on up to 5 PCs or Macs and Office apps on other mobile devices including tablets. Office 365 also includes unlimited cloud storage on OneDrive. To download Office 365 log into your student (University) email through a web browser, choose Settings (top right corner), and select software. If you have further questions or need help with the software, please contact the USC ITS service portal.

Some Netiquette Rules:

- Dress respectfully. Video conference business meetings are and will be the norm, so practice your professional telepresence.
- Virtual background respectfully professional
- Display both your first and last name during video conferencing and synchronous class meetings.
- Respectfully minimize distractions with muting and video off when moving around
- Disagree respectfully
- Respectfully pay attention to classmates
- Re-Read, think, and edit your message before you click "Send/Submit/Post.". as a check, consider whether you would be comfortable with your email or post or text being widely distributed on the Internet.

Final Comments:

This class has often been described by students as the toughest course they have taken during their time at USC. The course material is dense and requires a lot of work but I have full confidence that every student in my class is capable of learning and mastering the material. Just make sure you keep up with the reading and requisite practice. Instructional Assistants and I are here to help with your learning, make sure you attend our tutoring/office hours in case you are struggling with any material. Also, please feel free to email me with any questions. I hope you find the course beneficial and enjoyable.

GRADING AND ACADEMIC STANDARDS

The Leventhal School of Accounting adheres strictly to the grading standards of the University and the School of Business Administration. Additionally, the Leventhal School of Accounting has supplemented those standards with certain others. For students' convenience, and to prevent misunderstanding, these additional standards are summarized below.

GRADING STANDARDS

The following grades are used: A - excellent; B - good; C - fair; D - minimum passing; F - failure. The grade of F is awarded for failing work at the end of the semester. The assignment of minuses and pluses when earned is required.

The grade of W (Withdraw) is assigned if the student officially withdraws after the third week but before the end of the twelfth week of the semester. No withdrawals will be permitted after the end of the twelfth week except by student petition to the University's Committee on Academic Policies and Procedures. Students may elect to audit courses during the first three weeks of the semester. A course taken for audit (V) will be assessed at the current tuition rate. A course taken for audit (V) will not receive credit and will not appear on the USC transcript or grade report. Under no circumstances will the University allow a change in the registration status of a course from letter grade or credit to audit (V) or vice versa after the third week of a given semester.

OTHER ACADEMIC STANDARDS

1. The ability of students to write clearly and concisely is a necessary prerequisite to success in accounting work. Accordingly, students will be required to demonstrate writing capability in all accounting courses. This may be accomplished primarily through the inclusion of essay-type questions on course examinations.
2. Academic Integrity: Ethics and values are very important in accounting, in the business world, and in education. We will consider ethical issues in accounting throughout this course. As an instructor, I will assume, barring evidence to the contrary, that you are an ethical student. To help you fulfill your ethical responsibilities as a student, the ethical standards for this course are listed below.

Graded team assignments: All work is to be performed exclusively by the members of the team and all team members must contribute their fair share to each assignment. If outside research is performed, sources are to be cited and information discovered via outside research is to be clearly referenced as such. The products of your research are not to be shared with any student who is not a member of the team nor should you use the product of any prior students in the class.

In-class examinations: All exams must be the exclusive work of the individual student. No student may share the exam contents with another student until exam grading has been fully completed.

If you know that another student is violating these standards: Allowing another student to obtain course points by deceit contributes to a general lowering of the ethical standards of the University and contributes to deception of potential employers and other academic institutions. Thus, you have an obligation to take some action when you know another student is violating the course's academic integrity standards. This is a difficult personal trial to face, but it is an important part of your ethical obligation as a student. If you know that another student is violating the standards, it is your responsibility to inform the student's instructor. See the latest edition of SCAMPUS for a discussion of academic integrity violations. In this course, academic integrity violations generally will be penalized with a grade of F for the course.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Add/Drop Process

Most Marshall classes are open enrollment (R-clearance) through the Add deadline. If there is an open seat, you can add the class using Web Registration. If the class is full, you will need to continue checking Web Registration or the Schedule of Classes (classes.usc.edu) to see if a space becomes available. Students who do not attend the first two class sessions (for classes that meet twice per week) or the first-class meeting (for classes that meet once per week) may be dropped from the course. There are no formal wait lists for Marshall undergraduate courses, and professors cannot add students or increase the course capacity. If all sections of the course are full, you can add your name to an interest list by contacting the Office of Undergraduate Advising & Student Affairs; if new seats or sections are added, students on the interest list will be notified.

Retention of Graded Coursework

Final exams and all other graded work which affects the course grade will be retained for one year after the end of the course if the graded work has not been returned to the student. If I returned a graded paper to you, it is your responsibility to file it.

Open Expression and Respect for All

An important goal of the educational experience at USC Marshall is to be exposed to and discuss diverse, thought-provoking, and sometimes controversial ideas that challenge one's beliefs. In this course we will support the values articulated in the USC Marshall "Open Expression Statement."

Statement on Academic Conduct and Support Systems

Academic Integrity:

The University of Southern California is a learning community committed to developing successful scholars and researchers dedicated to the pursuit of knowledge and the dissemination of ideas. Academic misconduct, which includes any act of dishonesty in the production or submission of academic work, comprises the integrity of the person who commits the act and can impugn the perceived integrity of the entire university community. It stands in opposition to the university's mission to research, educate, and contribute productively to our community and the world.

All students are expected to submit assignments that represent their own original work, and that have been prepared specifically for the course or section for which they have been submitted. You may not submit work written by others or "recycle" work prepared for other courses without obtaining written permission from the instructor(s).

Other violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, fabrication (e.g., falsifying data), collusion, knowingly assisting others in acts of academic dishonesty, and any act that gains or is intended to gain an unfair academic advantage.

The impact of academic dishonesty is far-reaching and is considered a serious offense against the university. All incidences of academic misconduct will be reported to the Office of Academic Integrity and could result in outcomes such as failure on the assignment, failure in the course, suspension, or even expulsion from the university.

For more information about academic integrity see the student handbook or the Office of Academic Integrity's website, and university policies on Research and Scholarship Misconduct.

Please ask your instructor if you are unsure what constitutes unauthorized assistance on an exam or assignment, or what information requires citation and/or attribution.

Students and Disability Accommodations:

USC welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. The Office of Student Accessibility Services (OSAS) is responsible for the determination of appropriate accommodations for students who encounter disability-related barriers. Once a student has completed the OSAS process (registration, initial appointment, and submitted documentation) and accommodations are determined to be reasonable and appropriate, a Letter of Accommodation (LOA) will be available to generate for each course. The LOA must be given to each course instructor by the student and followed up with a discussion. This should be done as early in the semester as possible as accommodations are not retroactive. More information can be found at osas.usc.edu. You may contact OSAS at (213) 740-0776 or via email at osasfrontdesk@usc.edu.
