Exams (100 pts.)

All students registered in this class for credit are expected to take a Midterm and Final exam. Missing either exam will result in the lowering of the student's grade on the makeup exam (if approved by instructor) by one letter grade.

Participation (54pts.) + Assignment (6pts) and Technique Swims and Improvements (40pts.)

Success in this class greatly depends on student participation. Students must actively participate by attempting, completing and/or showing improvement of swimming skills, techniques, and/or assessments on various days to earn Participation and Technique Swim points. See Course Schedule for further information.

Extra credit work and make-up work are not available unless noted by instructor.

Students are asked to attend the section for which they are enrolled, arrive on time and be ready to swim each day. Tardiness/leaving early will result in partial credit. Make-ups are not allowed except for emergency situations and then only upon approval from the instructor. It is the student's responsibility to attend class consistently and fulfill the requirements of this course.

Assignments will be discussed in class using lectures and is a component (6 pts.) of the participation grade. Students will have one week to complete written assignments. Points will be assigned to each assignment and points will be deducted for being late (10%) and or for not following directions (10%). One written assignment is due week 14. Extra credit work and make-up work are not available unless noted by instructor.

Academic Conduct & Support Systems

Academic Integrity

The University of Southern California is a learning community committed to developing successful scholars and researchers dedicated to the pursuit of knowledge and the dissemination of ideas. Academic misconduct, which includes any act of dishonesty in the production or submission of academic work, comprises the integrity of the person who commits the act and can impugn the perceived integrity of the entire university community. It stands in opposition to the university's mission to research, educate, and contribute productively to our community and the world.

All students are expected to submit assignments that represent their own original work, and that have been prepared specifically for the course or section for which they have been submitted. You may not submit work written by others or "recycle" work prepared for other courses without obtaining written permission from the instructor(s).

Other violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, fabrication (e.g., falsifying data), collusion, knowingly assisting others in acts of academic dishonesty, and any act that gains or is intended to gain an unfair academic advantage.

The impact of academic dishonesty is far-reaching and is considered a serious offense against the university. All incidences of academic misconduct will be reported to the Office of Academic Integrity and could result in outcomes such as failure on the assignment, failure in the course, suspension, or even expulsion from the university.

For more information about academic integrity see the student handbook or the Office of Academic Integrity's website, and university policies on Research and Scholarship Misconduct.

Please ask your instructor if you are unsure what constitutes unauthorized assistance on an exam or assignment, or what information requires citation and/or attribution.

Student & Disability Accommodations

USC welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. The Office of Student Accessibility Services (OSAS) is responsible for the determination of appropriate accommodations for students who encounter disability-related barriers. Once a student has completed the OSAS process (registration, initial appointment, and submitted documentation) and accommodations are determined to be reasonable and appropriate, a Letter of Accommodation (LOA) will be available to generate for each course. The LOA must be given to each course instructor by the student and followed up with a discussion. This should be done as early in the semester as possible as accommodations are not retroactive. More information can be found at osas.usc.edu. You may contact OSAS at (213) 740-0776 or via email at osasfrontdesk@usc.edu.

Support Systems

Counseling and Mental Health

(213) 740-9355 – 24/7 on call

Free and confidential mental health treatment for students, including short-term psychotherapy, group counseling, stress fitness workshops, and crisis intervention.

988 Suicide and Crisis Lifeline
