Course Description

Examination of basic directorial principles. Pre-production analysis and rehearsal procedures; relationship of the director to the writer, the design team, the producing team, and the actor. This course will actively examine the fundamental principles of directing for the stage. Topics covered in this course will include script analysis, practical approaches to staging, directorial presentation skills, techniques for communicating with actors and designers, rehearsal techniques, and the creation of the director's prompt book.

Learning Objectives

- 1) Acquire a basic understanding of the skills and procedures required of a stage director to effectively prepare and rehearse for a theatrical production
- 2) Incorporate and apply detailed analysis and preparation into an effective rehearsal process, in support and guidance of the actors' work, and in conjunction with the overall vision of a scene from a play.
- 3) Cultivate the leadership skills necessary in leading a group of actors and design team through an effective rehearsal process.
- 4) Gain practical experience in the role of director through:
 - a. Classroom exercises
 - b. In- class rehearsals
 - c. Director prompt book preparation
 - d. Exploration, application and utilization of methods explored in class prompt book guidelines and reading assignments
 - e. Presentation of scene-work directed by the student

Course Notes

All students in this class are required to act in other student-director scenes. Time and availability outside of class for director preparation and rehearsals as both director and as actor for other scenes is extensive, expected and required in order to succeed in this course. There will be a considerable amount of time spent WATCHING others work and requires your feedback for participation points – this is where you can learn a LOT – but it requires self motivation and focus - you will not be on your feet working every class. Like in the professional world outside of school only you can manage your desire, interest and commitment.

Required Readings and Supplementary Materials TBD

Description and Assessment of Assignments

All of the following assignments below must be completed thoroughly and in a timely fashion per established schedule and per the PDF guidelines. Assignments and in-class work and presentations will be assessed accordingly and in direct relation to the grading rubrics per project and the rules and expectations presented in the full body of this syllabus. Grading Rubrics are posted on Blackboard.

All reading assignments lead into class discussion on the reading – engaging in, contributing to, and participating in the discussion will be both an assessment of your reading comprehension (completion of the assigned reading) and an assessment of a portion of the gradable component of participation

Another aspect of assessment will be based on the demonstration of the student in directly applying the concepts and practices of the reading and the prompt book in their in - class work, rehearsals and scene presentations. Incorporating / applying that which is taught to OTHERS while observing others work into your own in class scene rehearsals and presentations is also expected.

Assignments and work will include:

1. Conceive and direct a 2-3 minute scene based on a visual image selected by the student.
2. Direct a 5-8 minute scene from a play TBD
3. Conduct an in-class rehearsal and do a final presentation for all scenes.
4. Conduct oral directorial pitch for one scene.
5. Conduct a minimum of two rehearsals per week outside of class time for all scenes.
6. Submit the following written documentation for the scenes :
 - Director prompt book, with completed sections per PDF guidelines
 - Written assessment for both scenes - all due by email after your presentation.
7. Show readiness and fully engaged participation in all class discussions and text readings as well as complete all assigned readings.
8. Provide fully engaged participation for all exploratory and analytical work.
9. Act in fellow director's scenes – required.
10. NOTE:. I suggest organizing a “trio” for cast / director that rotates in one rehearsal session to cover all three director projects when possible. Equal time must be given to each director in a rehearsal group session in the outside rehearsals. Set a timer.
11. Props and Costumes must be provided by the actors and directors for in class rehearsals and scene presentations – no “miming” objects please.
12. A daily artistic question will be asked during roll call. You are required to be present and participate in answering and/or discussing the topic at hand. If you are not present when your name is called and the question is asked...points will be deducted from your overall grade per each absence/tardiness.

Grading Breakdown

Including the above detailed assignments, how will students be graded overall?
Participation should be no more than 15%, unless justified for a higher amount. All must total 100%.

Assignment	Points	% of Grade
Director Pitch- Image Scene	5	5
Scene work, in- class rehearsal (2 @ 10 pts each)	20	20
Scene Presentation "Image Scene" (Mid Term)	20	20
Scene Presentation Scripted Scene (Final)	20	20
Prompt Book/Self Assessment (2 @ 10 pts each)	20	20
Daily artistic question	.5	15
TOTAL	100	100

1. SCENE WORK For each directed scene assignment, the student is expected to perform well in each of four distinct categories:

- A. Follow directions of the assignment.
- B. Lead a rehearsal that demonstrates skills being taught in class
- C. Demonstrate that the scene is well prepared, and exciting to watch, and in service of a clear and vivid story
- D. Display a creative physical use of the space and the actors through staging and ground plan choices, guiding of performances, and creative and economical design choices

A Grading rubric for both in-class rehearsals and final presentations, director presentation and prompt book will be made available to review.

2. DIRECTOR PITCH Each directorial presentation must be no longer than 5 minutes and incorporate visual aids. Details will be discussed in class.

Grading rubric for director pitches will be made available to review on Blackboard

3. WRITTEN WORK THAT ACCOMPANIES SCENE WORK The student is expected to perform well in each of the following categories:

- A. Your prompt book must be neat, following the directions that are given, thoroughly documented, and show creative insights into text analysis and realization of directorial ideas on paper.
- B. Your written self-assessment must include detailed working objectives and a clear description of the extent to which you achieved them.

Grading Scale (Example)

Course final grades will be determined using the following scale

A	95-100
A-	90-94
B+	87-89
B	83-86
B-	80-82
C+	77-79
C	73-76
C-	70-72
D+	67-69
D	63-66
D-	60-62
F	59 and below

Assignment Rubrics

All assignment rubrics will be available on Blackboard and when possible emailed to entire class.

Assignment Submission Policy

All written work turned in will contain the following or will not be accepted:

1. Your name
2. Course name, number, and section
3. Assignment label
4. Date
5. Must be stapled or in binder in orderly fashion

Due Dates

Reflected in schedule on following pages. All assigned due dates must be met on time with proper preparation. No late assignments will be accepted. Students absent from presentation date without an official excused absence will receive a 0 for that portion of assignment. All directors are required to have a back-up exercise or rehearsal plan to work on with the actor (s) if an actor is missing from in-class rehearsal portion of project.

Grading Timeline

Per schedule and rules previously stated. Per class schedule / at time of presentation of various graded assignments. If a student is concerned about their grade or progress in class, they should make an appointment to discuss this with the professor. Midterm grades will reflect only a “satisfactory” or “unsatisfactory” score.

Additional Policies

- Respect the course and your colleagues. Everything you do in class is reflected in your grade, especially your participation and collaboration with your colleagues. Please respect the studio space, your colleagues, and the working environment
- No eating / no food allowed in class at any time
- Please use restroom before class and during break, do not interrupt the flow of class with leaving studio unless for an emergency
- If you are outside of our studio while class is in session for any reason – wait until the work that is happening in space is finished before you re-enter studio.
- There is absolutely no technology allowed during class. No cellphones, no computers. no texting , no social media – TURN THEM OFF AND PUT THEM AWAY UNLESS THEY ARE BEING USED AS A TOOL TO PRESENT YOUR SCENES
- Students must be in proper rehearsal clothes at the start of class if presenting a scene.
- Please refrain from distracting unfocused unprofessional behavior during class – you are expected to practice the focused respectful behavior displayed in the professional world and in keeping with the mature professional culture of SDA. Behave as an observing participant the way you would want the class to behave when you are on the floor working.
- Sharing of course materials outside of the learning environment
USC policy prohibits sharing of any synchronous and asynchronous course content outside of the learning environment.

SCampus Section 11.12(B)

Distribution or use of notes or recordings based on university classes or lectures without the express permission of the instructor for purposes other than individual or group study is a violation of the USC Student Conduct Code. This includes, but is not limited to, providing materials for distribution by services publishing class notes. This restriction on unauthorized use also applies to all information, which had been distributed to students or in any way had been displayed for use in relationship to the class, whether obtained in class, via email, on the Internet or via any other media. (See Section C.1 Class Notes Policy).

Course evaluation

Course evaluation occurs at the end of the semester university-wide. It is an important review of students' experience in the class. You should expect to receive an email update once the system has launched to provide your feedback on this course. In addition, you are always welcome to connect with me as the instructor to offer any feedback on the course.

Absences/Tardiness

No absences or tardies are allowed, however I will allow each student two "mental health" days. These days may be scheduled in advance or may be taken with 24 hour notice. However due to the nature of the class you must make sure that any colleagues impacted by your absence are notified and that alternate arrangements are made so that the available partners can continue their assignments in your absence.

Note: If a deadline is missed because of a classmate/ project partner's unavailability, the available partner/s will not be penalized. If problems arise, a discussion with the professor with all involved must be arranged before the day of the scheduled scene or everyone will be held equally accountable.

Participation and Collaboration

I expect students who want to be in the classroom want to perform well. "Performing well" means focused participation in the classroom even as a "spectator". The methods being explored in the reading, prompt book and in-class rehearsals are expected to be applied. I also expect students to communicate if they have questions about instructions or vocabulary. As the course moves quickly, you may have to attend an office hour in order to get your questions answered. But ask them.

MISSED WORK DUE TO EXCUSED ABSENCE Because of the compacted schedule, you cannot make up a presentation, in-class rehearsal, or final scene rehearsal or scene presentation. Exceptions will not be made to this policy. Check your calendars to ensure that important dates in this class do not fall on important dates for you during the semester. Due to the nature of this workshop class; in-class participation (and any collaborative exercises done in class) cannot be made up. Homework assigned on the day of your absence can be obtained from one of your colleagues. I do not accept late work for any unexcused absence.

REHEARSAL ETIQUETTE (As Director and Actor) Being absent for an in-class or from a scheduled out of class rehearsal is not acceptable. Be early and ready to work for all rehearsals. Be responsible for creating a good working environment. Be respectful of others. Set up agreed rehearsal times and honor them. Any physical demands (intimate, violent) must be simulated and properly discussed and rehearsed so as not to endanger yourself, your actors & scene partners, or classmates. This includes the use of or throwing of properties. Weapons of any sort (real knives, guns etc...) are not to be used in scene work, ever. If your scene requires a weapon of any sort, discuss with professor. These policies apply to all in-class rehearsals and out of class rehearsals.

Grading

For in- class rehearsals scene work and written work, as well as classroom focus and participation grades will be earned as follows:

“A”- Performance of the student has been at the highest level, showing sustained excellence in meeting all course requirements and exhibiting an unusual degree of intellectual and creative initiative.

“B”- Performance of the student has been at a high level, showing consistent and effective achievement in meeting course requirements.

“C”- Performance of the student has been at an adequate level, meeting the basic requirements of the course.

“D”- Performance of the student has been less than adequate, meeting only the minimum course requirements.

“F”- Performance of the student has been such that minimal course requirements have not been met.

The final course grade is articulated as a Letter Grade. This grade is translated into a G.P.A using the following scale: A = 4; A- = 3.7; B+ = 3.3; B = 3; B- = 2.7; C+ = 2.3; C = 2; C- = 1.7; D = 1; F = 0. When the average falls between two grades, the final grade will be weighted toward the positive end of the scale for students whose attendance and participation in class has been good, but will be weighted toward the negative end of the scale for those with poor attendance and participation.

Assessment of “Participation”

- Students are required to be present and be on time for all classes and scheduled sessions unless they are genuinely too ill to attend or affected by unavoidable personal or external circumstances. If the student has more than 2 absences during the course they will not be able to fulfill their ability to fully participate in class. Additionally, students must keep the teacher informed of any absence or late arrival IN ADVANCE. Failure to do so also constitutes a lack of participation and points will be deducted.
- Appropriate rehearsal clothing and props for ALL EXERCISES AND IN CLASS REHEARSALS.
- Openness to new methods of working and eagerness to attempt them.
- Constructive feedback on classmates’ presentations.
- Energized support of all classmates’ work.
- Willingness to experiment and apply the constructive feedback of professor and fellow students on one’s own work.
- Meeting all assignment deadlines.
- Availability to fellow classmates to rehearse outside class.

Course expectations and requirements:

- Printed copies of all scenes, monologues and play scripts must be brought to every class meeting.
- Correct props and costumes are expected for all in class rehearsal and scene presentations
- Assembled prompt book in 3-ring binder must be utilized even if ‘in-process” for all in-class rehearsals – leading a rehearsal from a few loose script pages without the prompt book, and applicable work applied is not acceptable. No electronic copies (laptops, tablets, phones) may be used in class .
- When participating as an actor wear appropriate rehearsal clothing for all in class rehearsals.
- When participating as a director – appropriate props for all rehearsals must be provided – no pantomime or imaginary “air / space objects” please.
- Openness to new methods of working and eagerness to attempt them.

- In class active student analysis and commentary when requested.
- Constructive feedback on classmates' presentations when requested.
- Energized support of all classmates' work.
- Willingness to experiment and apply the constructive feedback of professor and fellow students on one's own work.
- Availability to fellow classmates to rehearse outside class.

SDA PRODUCTIONS, ISPS, AND EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

SDA productions, ISPs and Extracurricular Activities* will not excuse you from any class work. There will be no exceptions made for absences in class, missed or delayed assignments, homework or lack of class participation resulting from your involvement in any of the above. Your grade will reflect your work in this class, independent from work in any other class or activity.

*Activities that have been officially sanctioned by the larger university (such as marching band, song girls, or varsity sports) are exempt. You must submit official documentation to your professor regarding your participation in an event prior to your absence.

Statement on Academic Conduct and Support Systems

Academic Conduct:

Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Part B, Section 11, “Behavior Violating University Standards” policy.usc.edu/scampus-part-b. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, <http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct>.

Statement for Students with Disabilities

Any student requesting academic accommodations based on a disability is required to register with Office of Student Accessibility Services (OSAS) each semester. A letter of verification for approved accommodations can be obtained from OSAS. Please be sure the letter is delivered to me (or to TA) as early in the semester as possible. OSAS is located in GFS 120 and is open 8:30 a.m.–5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Website for OSAS and contact information: (213) 740-0776 (Phone), (213) 814-4618 (Vidoe Phone), (213) 740-8216 (FAX) ability@usc.edu.

Emergency Preparedness/Course Continuity in a Crisis

In case of a declared emergency if travel to campus is not feasible, USC executive leadership will announce an electronic way for instructors to teach students in their residence halls or homes using a combination of Blackboard, teleconferencing, and other technologies. See the university's site on Campus Safety and Emergency Preparedness.

Equity, Diversity & Inclusion + Intimacy in Theater Consent Culture Statement:

Through our pluralistic approach of diverse pedagogies, methodologies, ideologies, and modalities of artistic expression, we invite(engage) and challenge students to expand their breadth and depth of knowledge, complexity, and range of the human experience. Even though we nurture, guide, and challenge our students to embrace the unknown or unfamiliar and step outside of their comfort zones through storytelling/art, we aim to practice effective strategies and offer tools to students mindful of their physical, psychological, social, and emotional wellbeing. In alignment with professional and industry standards, we will integrate core principles and techniques of Intimacy in Theater and Building Cultures of Affirmative Consent. This will provide agency, offer resources and support to the teachers, students, directors, and staff to establish healthy boundaries of consent when working on material that is physically, intimately, or emotionally charged content in both the classroom and production.

SDA Student Support & Reporting Form:

To facilitate a supportive environment of accountability, SDA has created an internal system of reporting for students to address issues/concerns and to offer feedback or suggestions for improvement. This mechanism provides a pathway for reporting and offering feedback without fear of retaliation or judgment. Any submission filed through this form will be reviewed and processed accordingly through SDA Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion.
