

JOUR 448

Government and Public Affairs Reporting

#21210R Christina Bellantoni
Thursdays, 12 – 3:20 p.m., 4 units

Learn more about JOUR 448, the politics reporting class, open to anyone from any major or program with a demonstrated interest in politics who wants to write about the presidential race during the primary season. It requires D-clearance to register and the info session is the first step. Preference will be given to students who are graduating.

If can't make it and you'd like a recording of the session, email christina.bellantoni@usc.edu

The class will be capped at 16. If you are unable to take it in Spring, it will be offered again on Tuesdays in Fall 2024.

Both classes will provide students the opportunity to travel at no cost to cover events of national importance in person.

FILL OUT AN INTEREST FORM

[annenberg.usc.edu/
reporting](https://annenberg.usc.edu/reporting)