

CTPR515 The GLOBAL EXCHANGE WORKSHOP (2 units)
May 20-July 5, 2024 (7 weeks)

at the
Communication University of China, Beijing

Applications available now! DUE March 18th 9am

Eight USC Students will be invited to collaborate with eight students at CUC in Beijing to create short documentaries around the theme of “Beijing as a Global City.” Airfare will be covered for USC students. Applications available now; due March 18.

All subject matter will be encouraged.

Films created in this class have won international awards including: The 6th China Academy Awards of Documentary Film: “The Lost Tribe,” 2017 US Student Academy Award nomination, “With Cancer,” the 2016 Guangzhou International Documentary Film Festival; The 2017 Venice, Italy, International Film Festival; Best Editing, Beijing College Student Film

Festival: “Go Gentle into the Good Night;” The Fujian Student Film Festival: “Alone With 5 Million Fans;” The 2nd Asia University Film Festival in Pusan, South Korea, and the Gold Award of the 5th Shanghai University Student Film Competition: “The Unclaimed;” 2019 Best Student Documentary Indie Short Festival: “Aleeya;” 2019 Palm Springs LGBTQ Film Festival: “Aleeya.”

The Global Exchange was founded by Profs Mark Harris & Marsha Kinder at USC, and Ling Guan, Professor and Dean at the School of Theatre, Film & Television, CUC.

PLEASE CONTACT PROF. PABLO FRASCONI FOR AN APPLICATION.

pfrasconi@cinema.usc.edu

Coordinating SA: Luoxi Liu “April” luoxiliu@usc.edu

STUDENTS FROM OTHER SCHOOLS MAY APPLY, BOTH UNDERGRADS & GRADS