

Alfred E. Mann School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences

RXRS/BPSI 490 Application for Directed Research

RXRS 490: Pharmacology and Drug Development majors; minors in Science and Management of Biomedical Therapeutics and Foundations in Regulatory Science. Majors outside of USC Mann.

BPSI 490: Biopharmaceutical Sciences majors and minor in Biopharmaceutical Business.

Only completed and signed applications will be reviewed. Applications must be submitted no later than 4 pm (Pacific Time) on the last day to register for a specific semester. Return to Dr. Randa Issa rissa@usc.edu

Name	USC ID (no dash)		Email
Major or Minor	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Course – indicate one only RXR	S 490	BPSI 490	Units	2 or 4 units only.
Semester and year — one only Fa	11	Spring	Summer
Project Title
Briefly describe the research you	intend to und	lertake for the pr	roject.
Itemize your timeline and delive	rables for com	pleting the resear	rch described above.
Project Due Date (can be no late	r than the last	day of the semes	ter)
Student Acknowledgement: Stude maintain regular contact with their letter graded course and students a Registration in 490 is subject to resemester listed. A maximum of 4 max	ents enrolled in faculty supervice expected to gistration dead	n 490 must follow isor. Course expect complete the requi- lines per the Scheo d research permitt	the terms of their agreetations governed by universe the transfer of the trans	ement form and nit enrollment. 490 is a raded accordingly.
Student initials	_ Date
The faculty advisor signature is retthe student's directed research pro			, the faculty advisor ac	knowledges discussing
USC Faculty Project Supervisor	-	Signature		Date

Identification Matching Grading Research After completing the 490 Research Form and outlining deliverables, student will be given D-Clearance and can begin their project. Students will reach out to the identified faculty members who are able to provide student with research experience. Grading will be completed before the end of the semester Research interests of the student are and students will be instructed identified, and potential research opportunities what to submit by their research discussed. mentor. Have scheduled Develops Lab meetings Research Research with Plan Mentor Submit end of Student Research 490 Form Begin semester Inquiry Completed Research areas project(s) identified Work on completing Develops Policy objectives Research Research outlined in Plan 490 Form If continuing with research into the next semester, student will need to complete the 490 Form and submit again before registering for the course.

490 Research Flowchart

Pharmacy Undergraduate Programs

Alfred E. Mann School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences