

Course Description and Overview

This course will explore Shakespeare's plays through the craft of acting by focusing on monologues and scenes from the canon. This is an ensemble building class in which exploration of Shakespeare's text will be a fully embodied process (mind, body, voice, heart and imagination). Students will investigate how the text resonates deeply and personally, and how this allows for the full emotional expression of the character. In the process, students will also study Shakespeare's unique linguistic structure and the use of the First Folio as tools to approaching Shakespeare text in performance.

Learning Objectives

The purpose of this work is:

1. To explore the richness, clarity and specificity of Shakespeare's text.
2. To allow the student to discover a personal connection to the text.
3. To free the student from preconceived notions of how Shakespeare's text "should" sound or "should" be spoken.
4. To understand how the structure of the verse can be used as a tool in the performance of Shakespeare's text.
5. To use the First Folio as a resource and reference for the performance of Shakespeare's works.
6. To remind the student of the need for discipline, rigor, and time management skills in a professional actor's life by requiring students to set their own rehearsal schedules for meeting the deadlines of the class.
7. To practice self-tape and in-person audition skills.

 No late assignments, projects, papers, presentations, or exams shall be accepted or graded. (NOTE: If a deadline is missed due to a classmate's unavailability, the available partner will not be penalized IF a discussion is held with the instructor with all involved prior to the scene presentation. Otherwise, each person in the scene will be held equally accountable).

Assessment of Assignments

Grades are NOT dictated by the "success" of acting presentations or the instructor's subjective opinion of "talent."

Grades ARE dictated by:

- In-class active analysis of text.
- Written analysis of text (Figurative Paraphrasing exercises, scansion, dictionary work, Folio work)
- Willingness to experiment and apply constructive feedback of instructor and classmates.
- Meeting of all deadlines.
- Memorization of assigned material.
- Utilization of props, appropriate costume/wardrobe pieces and scenic elements.
- In-class rehearsal.
- Availability to rehearse outside of class.

(NOTE: In addition to in-class contact hours, the university dictates that all courses must meet a minimum standard of out-of-class time which accounts for time spent on homework, readings, writing and other academic activities. For each unit of in-class contact time, the university expects two hours of out-of-class student work per week. This is the minimum.

 SCENES MUST REHEARSE OUTSIDE OF CLASS. REHEARSING FOR AN SDA OR ISP PRODUCTION OR OTHER EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITY IS NOT AN EXCUSE FOR NOT BEING TO REHEARSE *****

Assessment of "Participation"

15% of the final grade is earned through class participation. This will be defined as:

- Show up on time – students who are more than 10 minutes late are considered tardy. Three unexcused tardy arrivals will result in a deduction of 5 points from the final grade unless special arrangements have been made with the professor. Consistent tardiness within the 10-minute grace period will result in a discussion with the student and a restructuring of the grace period.

- PRINTED copies of all scenes, monologues and play scripts must be brought to every class meeting. No electronic copies (laptops, tablets, phones) may be used in class. NO EXCEPTIONS.
- Appropriate rehearsal clothing and props for ALL EXERCISES AND IN CLASS REHEARSALS.
- Openness to new methods of working and eagerness to attempt them.
- Constructive feedback to classmates' acting presentations.
- Energetic support of all classmates' work.

Attendance, Tardiness and Absences

Tardiness or unexcused absences are not excused without proper notification. Communication with the instructor is essential in case of emergency or illness.

The structure of this class is cumulative and layered. The class functions as an ensemble and the emotional/intellectual growth of the class results from consistent and communal active exploration. Missed classes mean you fall behind and your partner falls behind if you miss on a day scheduled for scene work.

 Zoom is no longer an option for class participation. Sickness for any reason will be marked as an absence. *****

Communication & Blackboard

Communication and information for this class will be relayed via email using your USC email addresses (if you have a non-USC address as your primary email address, please make sure your USC email is bouncing over to your primary address).

Assignments and additional instructional material will be available on Brightspace. As each module is released or additional content is added you, will be notified via Brightspace (which uses your USC email address to deliver messages).

Additional Class Policies

- All students must assist with the set-up and strike of each class session.
- Cellphones or other electronic devices must be muted or turned off and should remain off your person.
- Students must wear proper rehearsal clothing (which may change throughout the semester depending on the text being worked on). NO flip flops. Working barefeet IS acceptable unless a specific instruction has been given about footwear for a monologue or scene.
- All monologues, scenes and plays must be in PRINTED format. No electronic copies (laptops, tablets, phones) may be used in class.

Academic Integrity

The University of Southern California is foremost a learning community committed to fostering successful scholars and researchers dedicated to the pursuit of knowledge and the transmission of ideas. Academic misconduct is in contrast to the university's mission to educate students through a broad array of first-rank academic, professional, and extracurricular programs and includes any act of dishonesty in the submission of academic work (either in draft or final form).

This course will follow the expectations for academic integrity as stated in the USC Student Handbook. All students are expected to submit assignments that are original work and prepared specifically for the course/section in this academic term. You may not submit work written by others or “recycle” work prepared for other courses without obtaining written permission from the instructor(s). Students suspected of engaging in academic misconduct will be reported to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Other violations of academic misconduct include, but are not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, fabrication (e.g., falsifying data), knowingly assisting others in acts of academic dishonesty, and any act that gains or is intended to gain an unfair academic advantage.

The impact of academic dishonesty is far-reaching and is considered a serious offense against the university and could result in outcomes such as failure on the assignment, failure in the course, suspension, or even expulsion from the university.

For more information about academic integrity see the student handbook or the Office of Academic Integrity’s website, and university policies on Research and Scholarship Misconduct.

Course Content Distribution and Synchronous Session Recordings Policies

USC has policies that prohibit recording and distribution of any synchronous and asynchronous course content outside of the learning environment.

Recording a university class without the express permission of the instructor and announcement to the class, or unless conducted pursuant to an Office of Student Accessibility Services (OSAS) accommodation. Recording can inhibit free discussion in the future, and thus infringe on the academic freedom of other students as well as the instructor. (Living our Unifying Values: The USC Student Handbook, page 13).

Distribution or use of notes, recordings, exams, or other intellectual property, based on university classes or lectures without the express permission of the instructor for purposes other than individual or group study. This includes but is not limited to providing materials for distribution by services publishing course materials. This restriction on unauthorized use also applies to all information, which had been distributed to students or in any way had been displayed for use in relationship to the class, whether obtained in class, via email, on the internet, or via any other media. (Living our Unifying Values: The USC Student Handbook, page 13).

SDA PRODUCTIONS, ISPS, AND EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

SDA productions, ISPs and Extracurricular Activities* will not excuse you from any class work. There will be no exceptions made for absences in class, missed or delayed assignments, homework or lack of class participation resulting from your involvement in any of the above. Your grade will reflect your work in this class, independent from work in any other class or activity.

*Activities that have been officially sanctioned by the larger university (such as marching band, song girls, or varsity sports) are exempt. You must submit official documentation to your professor regarding your participation in an event prior to your absence.

Equity, Diversity & Inclusion + Intimacy in Theatre Consent Culture Statement

Through our pluralistic approach of diverse pedagogies, methodologies, ideologies, and modalities of artistic expression, we invite(engage) and challenge students to expand their breadth and depth of knowledge, complexity, and range of the human experience. Even though we nurture, guide, and challenge our students to embrace the unknown or unfamiliar and step outside of their comfort zones through storytelling/art, we aim to practice effective strategies and offer tools to students mindful of their physical, psychological, social, and emotional wellbeing. In alignment with professional and industry standards, we will integrate core principles and techniques of Intimacy in Theater and Building Cultures of Affirmative Consent. This will provide agency, offer resources and support to the teachers, students, directors, and staff to establish healthy boundaries of consent when working on material that is physically, intimately, or emotionally charged content in both the classroom and production.

SDA Student Support & Reporting Form

To facilitate a supportive environment of accountability, SDA has created an internal system of reporting for students to address issues/concerns and to offer feedback or suggestions for improvement. This mechanism provides a pathway for reporting and offering feedback without fear of retaliation or judgment. Any submission filed through this form will be reviewed and processed accordingly through SDA Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion.

Statement on University Academic and Support Systems

Students and Disability Accommodations:

USC welcomes students with disabilities into all the University's educational programs. The Office of Student Accessibility Services (OSAS) is responsible for the determination of appropriate accommodations for students who encounter disability-related barriers. Once a student has completed the OSAS process (registration, initial appointment, and submitted documentation) and accommodations are determined to be reasonable and appropriate, a Letter of Accommodation (LOA) will be available to generate for each course. The LOA must be given to each course instructor by the student and followed up with a discussion. This should be done as early in the semester as possible as accommodations are not retroactive. More information can be found at osas.usc.edu. You may contact OSAS at (213) 740-0776 or via email at osasfrontdesk@usc.edu.
