Course Description

This class will explore the art of theatrical clowning and how it supports all live performance. We will investigate what it means to be on stage in performance and give the student a solid understanding of what it takes to make people laugh. We will discover what makes each individual student funny in their own singular, inimitable way, and come away celebrating our greatest failures with the same enthusiasm as we do our most triumphant triumphs. Underneath all of it is the truth. Comedy isn't comedy unless it is rooted in a deep understanding and experience of the human condition. Through this exploration, we begin to see the similarities between comedy and tragedy, the pathetic and the sublime, the sacred and the profane.

This class will challenge students to fully give in to the present moment, to redirect their focus to the relationship between performer and audience, to examine the threshold of what can be done with our bodies and voices in performance, to confront preconceptions about one's own individual capabilities and discover what makes each individual funny, to celebrate one's greatest failures and experience the magnitude of true openness in front of an audience.

Learning Objectives

- To create original comedic material based on our in-class clown work
- To constructively critique the work of other classmates as well as professional work
- To apply the criticism from the class and from myself to the student's classwork
- To develop one's own sense of what makes them funny.

Required Readings and Supplementary Materials

For required reading and viewing please see breakdown of class schedule. All viewing and reading should be carried out PRIOR to the class for which is it indicated.

Description and Assessment of Assignments

Clown Pieces – Original pieces of material, with or without text, generated from the class work around clown technique and pathos. The pieces will be presented in at least two rounds, the second round having been adjusted, augmented based on the feedback from the class.

Final Culmination – a remounting of work done throughout the semester...

Each assignment will receive a grade out of 100.

Grading Scale for SDA:

Excellent: A (4) = 100-95 A- (3.7) = 94-90

Good: B+ (3.3) = 89-87 B (3) = 86-83 B- (2.7) = 82-80

Average: C+ (2.3) = 79-77 C (2) = 76-73 C- (1.7) = 72-70

Poor: D (.7-1.3) = 60's

Failing: F (0) = 59 and below

A = work of excellent quality; clear understanding of class material coupled with original and creative insight

B = good quality; class material has been understood clearly

C = average quality; class material generally understood, gaps in understanding remain

D = below average quality; identifiable gaps in the understanding of class material

F = inadequate work; gaps in completion of work, poor understanding of class material

Further Grading Notes:

When the GPA falls between two grades, the final grade will be weighted toward the positive end of the scale for students whose attendance and participation in class have been excellent or good and toward the negative end of the scale for those with average or poor attendance and participation.

Assignment Submission Policy

All assignments are performance based and will be presented in class.

AI Policy

I expect you to use AI (e.g., ChatGPT and image generation tools) in this class. Learning to use AI is an emerging skill, and I welcome the opportunity to utilize it in your class work in a way that supports your growth and education. Keep in mind the following:

- AI tools are permitted to help you brainstorm topics or revise work you have already written.

- If you provide minimum-effort prompts, you will get low-quality results. You will need to refine your prompts to get good outcomes. This will take work.
- Proceed with caution when using AI tools and do not assume the information provided is accurate or trustworthy. If it gives you a number or fact, assume it is incorrect unless you either know the correct answer or can verify its accuracy with another source. You will be responsible for any errors or omissions provided by the tool. It works best for topics you understand.
- AI is a tool, but one that you need to acknowledge using. Please include a paragraph at the end of any assignment that uses AI explaining how (and why) you used AI and indicate/specify the prompts you used to obtain the results. Failure to do so is a violation of academic integrity policies.
- Be thoughtful about when AI is useful. Consider its appropriateness for each assignment or circumstance. The use of AI tools requires attribution. You are expected to clearly attribute any material generated by the tool used.]
- For more information on how to cite or credit AI, visit <https://libguides.usc.edu/generative-AI>

Additional Policies

Attendance Policy

- The training at this MFA program is ensemble-based work; therefore, it is a requirement for the entirety of the ensemble to be present for every class. Absences will directly affect your grade and standing in the program. A lateness will be counted as an absence. A lateness is anything after a 5 minute grace period at the official start time of class. Anything longer than five minutes will result in being locked out of class. Don't be absent. Don't be late.

Absences

- THREE (3) absences will result in a full letter grade demotion. If you miss a total of FIVE (5) classes, you fail the class. Any failed class results in academic probation.
- Excused and unexcused absences are the same.

Email records

- All latenesses and absences need to be documented by the Student at fault via email. The Student must email the specific professor for which class will be missed, as well as David Warshofsky and Natsuko Ohama.
- If a Student is late/absent to class and an email has not been sent in advance, the professor must report these events to David Warshofsky and Natsuko Ohama.

Lateness

- There is no need to text professors if you are late.

Illness

- Stay healthy. Illness counts as an absence. Please notify your professor, as well as David Warshofsky and Natsuko Ohama with a doctor's note.

Rehearsal

- Students are responsible for making themselves available for rehearsal outside of class.

Social Media

- No social media posting about class.

SDA PRODUCTIONS, ISPS, AND EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

SDA productions, ISPs and Extracurricular Activities* will not excuse you from any class work. There will be no exceptions made for absences in class, missed or delayed assignments, homework or lack of class participation resulting from your involvement in any of the above. Your grade will reflect your work in this class, independent from work in any other class or activity.

*Activities that have been officially sanctioned by the larger university (such as marching band, song girls, or varsity sports) are exempt. You must submit official documentation to your professor regarding your participation in an event prior to your absence.

Statement on Academic Conduct and Support Systems

Academic Integrity

The University of Southern California is foremost a learning community committed to fostering successful scholars and researchers dedicated to the pursuit of knowledge and the transmission of ideas. Academic misconduct is in contrast to the university's mission to educate students through a broad array of first-rank academic, professional, and extracurricular programs and includes any act of dishonesty in the submission of academic work (either in draft or final form).

This course will follow the expectations for academic integrity as stated in the USC Student Handbook. All students are expected to submit assignments that are original work and prepared specifically for the course/section in this academic term. You may not submit work written by others or "recycle" work prepared for other courses without obtaining written permission from the instructor(s). Students suspected of engaging in academic misconduct will be reported to the Office of Academic Integrity.

Other violations of academic misconduct include, but are not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, fabrication (e.g., falsifying data), knowingly assisting others in acts of academic dishonesty, and any act that gains or is intended to gain an unfair academic advantage.

The impact of academic dishonesty is far-reaching and is considered a serious offense against the university and could result in outcomes such as failure on the assignment, failure in the course, suspension, or even expulsion from the university.

For more information about academic integrity see the student handbook or the Office of Academic Integrity's website, and university policies on Research and Scholarship Misconduct.

Please ask your instructor if you are unsure what constitutes unauthorized assistance on an exam or assignment, or what information requires citation and/or attribution.

Students and Disability Accommodations:

USC welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. The Office of Student Accessibility Services (OSAS) is responsible for the determination of appropriate accommodations for students who encounter disability-related barriers. Once a student has completed the OSAS process (registration, initial appointment, and submitted documentation) and accommodations are determined to be reasonable and appropriate, a Letter of Accommodation (LOA) will be available to generate for each course. The LOA must be given to each course instructor by the student and followed up with a discussion. This should be done as early in the semester as possible as accommodations are not retroactive. More information can be found at osas.usc.edu. You may contact OSAS at (213) 740-0776 or via email at osasfrontdesk@usc.edu.

Equity, Diversity & Inclusion + Intimacy in Theater Consent Culture Statement:

Through our pluralistic approach of diverse pedagogies, methodologies, ideologies, and modalities of artistic expression, we invite(engage) and challenge students to expand their breadth and depth of knowledge, complexity, and range of the human experience. Even though we nurture, guide, and challenge our students to embrace the unknown or unfamiliar and step outside of their comfort zones through storytelling/art, we aim to practice effective strategies and offer tools to students mindful of their physical, psychological, social, and emotional wellbeing. In alignment with professional and industry standards, we will integrate core principles and techniques of Intimacy in Theater and Building Cultures of Affirmative Consent. This will provide agency, offer resources and support to the teachers, students, directors, and staff to establish healthy boundaries of consent when working on material that is physically, intimately, or emotionally charged content in both the classroom and production.

SDA Student Support & Reporting Form:

To facilitate a supportive environment of accountability, SDA has created an internal system of reporting for students to address issues/concerns and to offer feedback or suggestions for improvement. This mechanism provides a pathway for reporting and offering feedback without fear of retaliation or judgment. Any submission filed through this form will be reviewed and processed accordingly through SDA Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion.
