

CTCS 469 LYNCH-VERSE: David Lynch's Cinema and Art

PROF. Akira Mizuta Lippit Wednesdays 6:00-10:00pm NCT

This course explores the universe of David Lynch's cinema and art, an oeuvre that includes over five decades of film and television, but also painting, photography, music, music videos, commercials, cartoons, and weather reports, among many other arts and activities. LYNCH-VERSE considers the complex ways in which Lynch's work produces in the aggregate a universe, perhaps even a multiverse that connects these seemingly disparate practices into a terrifyingly beautiful cosmos. Course will consist of weekly screenings and lectures, with frequent guest appearances by the many people that worked with Lynch in cinema and art.
