

ART 140: SCULPTURE I

Instructor: Ruben Ochoa

This studio course is an introduction to ideas and forms in contemporary sculpture. Students learn how to use tools and equipment in the wood shop and explore plaster along with other rigid and soft materials. The class focuses on the production of individual objects and class critiques, along with lectures, presentations and possible field trips, students learn about the conceptual and material processes that generate sculptural objects.

4.0 units

